THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Well, we certainly did have a merry-go-round last Saturday, with all the goings-on scheduled from 4 o'clock on. Dian Hubbard's tea dance at the Club was mighty nice, all the young buds looking adorable in their summer frocks and large picture hats. From there the garden party given by Miss Mabel Toulson for Dr. and Mrs. Toulson was equally enjoyable, drawing 125 of the society of the community. When dinner time drew near, the ways parted in three directions. Many went to the Alumni banquet at the College, others went to the dinner party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend and still others to the buffet supper at which Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deringer were hosts. Probably there were still more about which I didn't hear.

Now that the College and High School commencements are over, we'll settle down for Summer fun. We are terribly proud, incidentally of some of our local boys and girls who came out with such high honors and congratulations are extended right here.

Speaking of home talent, I just heard that Bob Huey, Jr., has been appointed organist and choir master at Immanuel Reformed Church in the Ashburton section of Baltimore. This is quite an honor, in view of the fact that there were 30 or more applicants and after many performances on the organ, Bob was chosen.

Still another item of interest comes from Rollins College at Winter Park, Florida, where it was announced that Miss Joan Kellogg-Smith, a junior there, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kellogg-Smith, of Chestertown, has been named on the honorary varsity riding team for women.

Mr. William McCullough, son of Mrs. J. S. W. Jones, who has just completed a course at the Harvard Business School has accepted a commission as Ensign in the Supply Corps of the U. S. Navy. He will be stationed at the Philadelphia Navy Yard for a training course.

Mr. John Truslow, who recently graduated from Lehigh University has accepted a position in the Aluminum Co. of America.

Mr. Gilbert Mead, a June graduate of Washington College has gone to New York, where he has accepted a position.

Miss Mary Lil Knotts, the recent Queen of the June Fete at Washington College, has acepted a position as a teacher in a High School in Talbot County.

The very young set, at this writing are in a dither of gay excitement over the big party Friday evening. The dancing class conducted its final class in the form of a dance. This alone has caused much delight, but the crowning beam of ectasy is a dinner party prior to the dance, given by Master Waldo Barroll. The stories of preparation, by these youngsters, that have trickled to my ear, would cause smiles to appear on the face of Gertie Gloom herself.

The luncheon-bridge given by Miss Margaret Jefferson on Thursday at the Sophie Fisher Inn drew a large crowd and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. The prizes, many in number, were attractively wrapped in yellow and green giving a final spring touch to the array of colorful frocks worn by the guests.

The spring dinner-dance to be held at the Country Club to-night is building up fast, and from all indications, the forecast is for a big evening.

Our Garden Club will hold its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Roach on Tuesday, June 13. At this time, Mrs. Jesse Maxwell will be in charge of the meeting, giving a talk on the Morris Arboretum. The members are asked to bring old straw hats and fresh flowers, trimming them while there, a prize to be given for the most attractive. It is also requested to let Mrs. Roach know how many will be present, as this is a valuable aid to the hostess.

Among the out-of-town guests who will be here include, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Robertson and Mr. R. Pierson Eaton, of Warren, Pa., who came on Thursday. Dr. and Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Eaton, though staying at the Sophie Fisher Inn are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin H. Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Settle, of Baltimore will be guests over the week-end of Miss Margaret E. Jefferson.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Watson, of Indianopolis, Ind., will be week-end guests of Mrs. John Clendaniel. Mrs. Watson will be remembered here as Miss Susan Edson, a former resident of Kent County.

Miss Cynthia Clendaniel, of New York, will come to-day and remain as a guest of her mother for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cooke and their two little daughters came last Saturday for a wek's visit as guests of Mrs. A. T. H. Harper.

Miss Margaret Atkinson and Mr. Robert Atkinson, of New York, were guests last week at Piney Grove, Miss Atkinson remaining until Tuesday as a guest of her aunt, Miss Belle Emory.

Miss Betty Covert, of Philadelphia, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. John B. DeCoursey at their home, Kinsale.

Mrs. Thos. Wroth and Miss Anna Wroth are guests this week of Mrs. William Wright in Baltimore. Mrs. Lillian Gurley is a guest of her sister in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. E. T. Bell and Miss Dora Bell were guests in Washington this week and saw the visiting Royalty, the King and Queen of England.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell left yesterday for a two weeks visit in Washington as a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. T. Stam.

Mrs. G. Howard Dana and her little son, will return to-day after a two weeks visit with Mrs. Dana's parents in Johnstown, Pa.,

Mrs. Charles E. Eshman and young Charles were guests of relatives in Newark, Del., this week.

Miss Betty Thibodeau will attend the International Polo games at Meadowbrook, L. I., this week end.

Visitors to the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital this week were Dr. Esther M. Dole and Mr. James G. Metcalfe. Both were on the same mission—that of having their tonsils removed. I hear of a half dozen more who are on their way; it must be the mode.

Mr. Robert Hadaway is convalescing is at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital from an operation for appendicitus performed last Saturday.

The wedding of Miss Clara B. Usilton to the Rev. Dr. John Franklin Carey, of Lawrenceville, Va., on Wednesday came as a great surprise to her many friends in this community. The ceremony was performed at the Usilton Home on High St., by the Rev. Dr. W. P. Roberts, in the presence of the immediate family including her three brothers.

Dr. Carey is a graduate of Washington College and is in charge of a Methodist Church in Lawrenceville, Va., where he and his bride will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bringman have announced the marriage of their daughter, Katherine Olive to Mr. James Thomas Ozman on Saturday, June 3rd. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ozman will reside in Chestertown.

Now checking up—luncheons, dinners, dances, guests, weddings and those making good, have I covered it all?

Yours hoping,

The Wanderer

How Flower Was Named

The passion flower, which is so common in Mexico, received its name from the story of the crucifixion of Christ, according to William C. Campbell, passenger traffic manager of the New York and Cuba Mail Line. The leaves indicate the spear that pierced Christ's side; the tendrils are the cords that bound Him; the ten petals represent the apostles; the pillar in the center is the cross or tree; the style, the nails; the inner circle around the pillar represents the crown of thorns; the radiance, the glory; the white of the flower is the emblem of purity; the blue, the color of heaven, and the scent is that of incense.

'Sky Dance' Is Tops

The "sky dance" of the woodcock is probably without parallel in all nature. A peculiar burred note announces proximity of a courting male bird. The calls are repeated at regular intervals. Presently they will give way to a musical twittering sound. The bird will then circle to 100 or 150 feet, twittering. The twittering will grow louder. The bird is plummeting to earth and will pitch at almost the identical spot he took off. Then the entire performance will be repeated.
