THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

City goes to the Country in the Summer, and we of the Country go to the City in the Winter. That's the way it always has been and rightly so. But the long week-end here on us taking us over the 4th of July on Tuesday, really does get the crowd. As usual, over the 4th we'll have a picnic at the club, followed by the display of fireworks and a concert by the Volunteer Firemen's band to which everyone is invited.

Guests last Saturday afternoon at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mac Donald at their home in Quaker Neck had a delightful surprise in greeting Mrs. Frederic Viewig, Jr. The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Viewig took place on Friday, June 2 in Virginia, the day after Mr. Vieweg was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy. Mrs. Vieweg, who was Miss Martha Chambers, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chambers of Brandon Road, Huntington, West Va. Mr. Vieweg is the son of Mr. Frederic Vieweg of New York City and Mrs. Francis MacDonald. After spending three weeks here, Mr. and Mrs. Vieweg left Thursday for New York, where they have an apartment, Mr. Vieweg having a position as engineer with the Foster-Wheeler Co. in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Armstrong of Cynwyd, Pa., will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Miss Cornelia R. Walker, of St. Louis arrived in Chestertown to-day, and will spend the summer months at the home of the Misses Welch on Maple Ave.

The theme song this week however is not parties, but guests. Mrs. A. C. Dick, of Sumter, S. C., has been a guest this week of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chapman, of Baltimore, have been guests this week of the latter's mother, Mrs. Frank Simpers.

Miss Anne Ryland and Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., of Richmond, Va., were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines from Monday until Wednesday.

Miss Fredrica Metcalfe has had as a house guest, Miss Corinne Hughes of Philadelphia, for several days. Miss Metcalfe entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of Miss Hughes who was her classmate at Hollins College this past winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellington, of Alexandria, Va., will be guests over this week-end and the Fourth of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris have as their guests for the summer, their grandsons, Allan and Louis Harris, of Beverly Hills, California. Their mother, Mrs. Allan B. Harris will join them here within a few weeks.

Miss Barbara Ann Brittain, of Jacksonville, Fla., will arrive on Monday to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Harry Deringer.

Mrs. William T. Dixon has had as a house guest Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones for the past week. Miss Josephine Dixon has been attending a conference at Northfield, Mass., while Mr. William Dixon, a student at Princeton, has resumed his position as tutor on Long Island for the summer after a two weeks vacation at Green Point Farm. Last week-end, Mrs. Dixon entertained a house party of young people from Baltimore and Philadelphia for her son and daughters.

Mrs. S. Holt Wright and little daughter, Rose Mary, have returned from a week's visit at Ocean City, Md.

Motoring up to the New York's World's Fair this week were Howard Strong and Tommy Eliason, while Gilbert Ingersoll, who has just returned home from M. I. T. started on Monday with a friend motoring to California to view the Fair there. Enroute home they plan to include Canada in their itinerary.

Mrs. Joseph Clark leaves tomorrow for a train tour of the West which will include the San Francisco Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and family, of Lansdowne, Pa., reopened last week-end their country home, Fox Point, for the summer months. Miss Peggy Wilson, whose engagement to Mr. Robert Alexander was recently announced, will join her family over the week-ends.

Mrs. Sudler Baxter and her daughter, Miss Madeleine Baxter, have returned from a week's vacation at Union Lake, Millville, N. J.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend is spending several days as a guest of her sister in Leesburg, Va.

Mr. Clyde Maslin, of Chester, Pa., spent part of this week with his uncle,, Mr. Millard Maslin on West High St. While here he enjoyed the fishing in Chester River and Chesapeake Bay.

Mrs. William J. Osborne, of Duwuesne, Pa., is visiting with her brother, Dr. Gilbert W. Mead.

Mrs. Olive Gilpin and her sister, Miss Russell, of Baltimore, are guests of Miss Belle Emory at Piney Grove for two weeks.

Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones and Mrs. Rex N. Whaley are contemplating a trip to England sailing on July 14 from New York via the Holland-American line. They plan to be away until late summer. This week-end Mrs. Jones and her father, Mr. Horace Beck will be guests of friends in Seaford, Del.

Yea, the holidays—of thee I sing, and declare my freedom from the pen. Fare-ye-well!

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell at Worton Manor are a case of have been, are and are to-be. Mrs. John W. Colby of White Plains, N. Y., spent last week-end there; Miss Ethel Macomb and Mr. Howard Colby also of White Plains are guests all of this week, while Dr. Joseph Franklin, of Cumberland and his mother, Mrs. Franklin of Birmingham, Ala., come to-day to remain over the holidays. Mr. George Maxwell will join his family also over the holidays.

Yours for Independence,

The Wanderer

Resolution Of Respect

In Memory of Annie V. Rash.

WHERAS, In the Wise Providence of God he has seen fit to remove from our midst our beloved sister, Annie V. Rash, a faithful member of our Ladies Aid Society and a true and loyal member of Union Methodist Church, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of this Aid Society, record our heartfelt sorrow at our sad loss and commend the sorrowing relatives and friends to the God of all comfort who alone can sustain them in their sad hour.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the sorrowing family, that they be published in our county papers and be spread upon
