THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

The regularity and frequency in which I write to you causes such neglect in correspondence to my other friends, that sometimes I'm afraid you will be the cause of severing a few friendships. Seriously, though, the weeks roll by so fast, and the things left undone, that ought to be done, multiply with equal rapidity. But you, my pet, are seldom neglected, are you? I may not always be vibrating with news, as is the case to-day, but at least I go through the motion. To say the least, it has been a noisy week. But what 4th of July week, in what year, isn't?

Everyone enjoyed the fireworks down at the Club Tuesday evening. They really were lovely. And those who took their picnic suppers seemed to heartily enjoy the abandon of a meal served at home in proper manner. The concert by the Fireman's band prior to the fireworks, was a treat, allowing time for a general run-a-round and fellow-mixing before the lights of WELCOME blazed forth, announcing the arrival of beauty and sound. (Note I say, and, not, of).

On Thursday, Mrs. H. Clay Brown entertained a few friends, informally, at tea in honor of Mrs. Olive Gilpin and her sister, Miss Mae Russell, of Baltimore, who are house guests of Miss Belle Emory at Piney Grove.

Mrs. Wilcox Rowland and her young daughter, Mary Lee, of Jacksonville, Fla., are house guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deringer. Mrs. Rowland, who came on Wednesday, will be entertained at several informal parties. Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Deringer will give a picinic in her honor, and on Monday Mrs. Harry B. Cannon will be hostess at a tea in honor of Mrs. Rowland.

Monday evening, before the 4th, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell entertained at buffet supper in honor of Mrs. Franklin of Birmingham, Ala., and her son, Dr. Joseph Franklin of Cumberland.

The same evening, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel entertained at dinner at their bungalow on the Chester River.

The July meeting of Our Garden Club will be held Tuesday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell. As usual in July, the meeting will be in form of a picnic which will begin at 4 o'clock.

Summer time brings many back to our community that we look upon not as guests but summer residents. The Jack Harrisons are now down permanently out at Broadfields, the Bob Wilsons at Fox Point, the Walter Bloechers at Langcraft Farm, the Woodburn family down at Mrs. Woodburn's parents home, Mr. and Mrs. William Paca, the Dick Carvels and many others who skip my mind at the moment. It seems a real homing when they all get here and rather sad in the Fall when they return to the city.

Commander and Mrs. Hugh Sease of U. S.N., who have recently purchased Bloomingdale have come for the summer and are, at present in the act of organization of the grounds and house.

Each week, we hear of new ones going to the Fair. This week, Mr. James L. Bacchus and his nephew, Karl Melamet are spending several days in New York, and while there, will spend most of the time at the Fair. Seems to me an ideal way, taking a little of it each day, instead of the whirl wind tour of a day or two. The principal thing I've heard, from those who went, is how tired they were.

Miss Louisa Finney, of Churchville, Md., has been a guest this week, of Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones. Mrs. Jones, incidentally, due to the illness of her father, Mr. Horace Beck, has indefinitely postponed her trip to England.

Mr. Edward Alexander, of Rye, N. Y., and his sister, Miss Violet Alexander are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. DeCoursey at Kinsale.

Over the holiday past, Mr. and Mrs. Bartus Trew had as their guest Captain Dimitri Pavlova-Pavloski.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Stone, of Marblehead, Mass., who have spent the past ten days in Ocean City, have returned to Chestertown and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

To-day is the wedding day of Miss Patience Pyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Pyle and Mr. Frederick G. Usilton. The wedding will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Christ Methodist Church, with the Rev. W. P. Roberts and Dr. J. F. Carey performing the ceremony.

Miss Pyle will have as her Maid of Honor, her sister, Miss Phoebe Pyle, while Mrs. Laurence Griffith, of Sharon Hill, Pa., and Miss Mildred Williams of Hurlock, Md., will act as bridesmaids.

Mr. George Carrington, of Frostburg, Md., wil serve as best man, with the following serving as ushers: Mr. Willis Briddell, of Crisfield, Md., Mr. Harry Fallowfield, Betterton, Md., and Mr. Frank Jarrell, Jr., of Chestertown.

Prior to the ceremony, Mr. John Andrews will sing.

Last night, Friday, the wedding party were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton, Sr., at the Bell Haven.

And so now I leave you with wedding bells ringing, and a nice, lazy summer week-end ahead. All you have to do is to enjoy it.

Yours in the making,

The Wanderer
