THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Gone is the Chestertown Regatta until another year. But the memory lingers on. In the phraseology of country papers, years ago—a good time was had b yall. At the dances, both nights, one saw all his friends, and many strangers. Everyone seemed in good spirits making the most out of the occasion. Much entertaining took place before the dances bringing everyone together, which, of course, is always a help. The Welch-Giraitis party Friday night where you just met up with everybody, was simply swell and was the main attraction for Friday evening. On Saturday, a similar crowd was at the party given by Mrs. Hynson Beck in the late afternoon which was delightful in every way. Later, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead entertained informally at a buffet supper, prior to the dance. Many cocktail parties were given, one by Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa., and another by Miss Hazel Marscher at the home of her parents, near Chestertown.

Sunday, Mrs. Karl Melamet and her brother, Mr. James L. Bacchus entertained at noon in honor of their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson, of Baltimore. Mrs. Melamet, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe and her little daughter, Frances returned to Baltimore with Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, as their guests for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cannon also entertained at noon on Sunday in honor of out-of-town guests.

Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Nicholson entertained a large number of friends at a buffet supper in honor of Mrs. Jack Clendaniel, of Baltiomre, who has been a guest of relatives in the county for several weeks.

Monday, was a day of rest and complete let-down.

Tuesday, another luncheon was on the calendar, a clever affair, namely, a Mother and Daughter party given by Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell, at Worton Manor. The seating of all the Mothers on one side of the table, with place cards of a block of wood, while on the opposite side, were placed the daughters, with "little chips" off the block, marking their place.

Wednesday, Misses Grace and Jennie Wilkins were hostesses at their home, "The Maples", when they entertained at a beautiful bridge-luncheon.

Friday evening, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. Walter Hawkins.

Mrs. Hawkins will leave on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deringer and son, Hurtt, who will motor South where they will spend their vacation on a plantation near Tarboro, North Carolina, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Fillmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hines, of Mattaposett, Mass., are guests for two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Doresy Hines. Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins, accompanied Mrs. Guy M. Stone on Thursday to Marblehead, Mass., where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stone for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison at their summre home, Broadfield on Lankford Bay.

Announcements were received this week which caused much surprise, and yet equal delight, to the many friends of the former, Miss Margaret Jefferson. Mrs. Harry Foraker Jefferson has announced the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Elizabeth to Mr. Omar Derotheus Crothers, junior, on Tuesday, the first of August, at Old St. Anne's Church, Middletown, Del. The wedding, which was a quiet one, was attended by the family and a few close friends. The bride, who was given away by her mother, was smartly attired in a suit of blue imported linen, with hat and shoes to match. She wore a corsage of white orchids. Mr. Robert Settle, of Baltimore, served as best man to Mr. Crothers. Following the ceremony, a bridal luncheon was held in the Club Room of the Hotel Du Pont, Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. Crothers are now touring Canada or their wedding trip. After October 1st, they will be at home at the De Sota Apartments on Greenway in Baltimore.

To-night, Saturday, Miss Cornelia Walker will be hostess at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Allan A. Harris.

On Thursday, Mrs. Walter Norris who with Mr. Norris has been spending the summer at the Sophie Fisher Inn, will entertain a number of friends at luncheon at the Inn.

Miss Lottie Peacock sailed from Baltimore Monday evening enroute to San Francisco by way of Panama Canal. On her return home, Miss Peacock, making the trip by train, will visit friends in Pasadena, Cal., and Alamagorde, New Mexico.

Miss Mayme Thompson, of Cockeysville, Md., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Reiche.

Mrs. Barber Bartley is spending a few days at Ocean City, N. J.

Miss Dorothy Vickers, who is taking a course at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., returned to her home here on Thursday for her vacation. Miss Vickers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Vickers, completed her course in medicine with the highest average ever attained at the University, receiving 100 as her mark.

Mr. and Mrs. David Barr Ford, Jr., are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter on Thursday, August 3rd at Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, Del.

The August meeting of Our Garden Club will be held on Tuesday, August 8th at 3 p. m. when the members are asked to meet at the home of their President, Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler. Following a tour of gardens, the afternoon will conclude with a picnic supper.

Many have gone, some on the way, and a few are going to the Regatta at St. Michael's, but one a year is enough for me. Therefore you'll find me—

Yours at home,

The Wanderer

MAGISTRATE LAW CONSTITUTIONAL

The new State magistrates' reform law today was held constitutional in every respect, including the provision reducing the salaries of justices of the peace appointed under the old law. An opinion in the matter was filed by Judge Ridgely P. Melvin in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county.

The decision, of State-wide importance, was handed down in an action brought by the State against George B. Woelfel, attorney, and one of the justices appointed under the old law. It also dealt with proceedings filed by Woelfel to compel the municipal and county governments to pay his $1,500 annual salary, which the new law cut to $20.

Harford County Adopts Beer Ruling

The Liquor Control Board of Harford County this week adopted the following resolution:

"Every beer and wine licensee must keep his winodws and doors adjacent to the street uncovered, uncurtained and with plain clean glass so that at all times passersby on the street can see within the entire establishment; and that no glass doors or swinging doors are to be permitted in the interior which would in any way separate the buyer from the restaurant; except that kitchens may be closed off from the restaurant with swinging doors."

Tip Darts in Poison Sap

Malay natives tip darts with poison sap from the upas tree, but there is no truth in tales that the tree's poison can kill birds that merely fly around it.
