WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1891.

Local Democratic conventions are pronouncing in favor of the re-election of Senator Gorman. Does that mean that the Democratic party in Maryland is in favor of the free coinage of silver. Democrats who hold sound views on this subject should remember that one of the most recent public acts of the senior Maryland Senator was his vote for the bill requiring the unlimited coinage of silver, with the standard dollar worth intrinsically, only 75 cents. Do they propose to approve that act by voting to return him to the Senate.

Ex-United States Senator Jos. E. McDonald, of Indiana, is dead. Mr. McDonald was a prominent factor in Indiana politics. He was something of a rival of the late Vice-President Hendricks, and was several times spoken of as a possible Democratic candidate for the Presidency or Vice-Presidency. He was in the Senate eighteen years. He was one of a class of statesmen of whom Lincoln and Garfield were types, who came up from the ranks of the laboring people of the nation. He was a saddler by trade, but studied law and became eminent in his profession and in politics.

Mr. Gorman has been charged by a prominent member of his own party, in his own county, with the perpetration of the most flagrant crimes against the ballot. Under his leadership ten or a dozen Democratic election officers in Baltimore were sent to jail for fraudulent practices in the discharge of official duties, a year or two ago, but were promptly pardoned by the Governor of his choosing. But in the face of all this he receives the unequivocal endorsement of Democratic county conventions in various counties of the State, even that of Cecil, which, it was supposed, was controlled by a better element of the party, chiming in. How does this tally with sound ideas of Jeffersonian Democracy?

A Practical Tin-Plate Monopoly.

The Post-Express, an Independent paper, of Rochester, New York, in commenting on an alleged agreement among the tin plate manufacturers of Wales to stop production for a time, for the purpose of keeping up prices, says: "If the condition of things in England and Wales be as the London Times represents, then no time should be lost and no effort spared to insure the success of American tin-plate production." It must be apparent to the most superficial observer that the English manufacturers of tin-plates have had a practical monopoly of the business for many years. It would be difficult to find another article of home manufacture that has not largely depreciated in price during the last ten years; but there has been very slight variations in tin plate prices. While sheet iron and steel, the basis of tin plates, have depreciated twenty-five to thirty per cent. in a few years, the decrease in the cost of the plates, in the same period, has been only about four per cent. The establishment of tin plate manufacture in ours own country is an urgent necessity and can be successfully accomplished under the McKinley law. The tin schedule of this law was adopted for that purpose and that alone and it would be well for American newspapers generally to imitate the example of the Rochester Post-Express and lend encouragement to those who are manfully seeking to inaugurate this industry within the limits of our own country.

Democratic Conventions Called.

The Democratic County Central Committee, Mr. B. F. Crouse, chairman, met at the court-house on Monday to fix the dates for the primaries and county conventions, and decided that the primaries for the convention which will send delegates to the State convention shall be held Saturday, July 4th, and the convention on the following Monday. The primaries for the convention to nominate candidates for the Legislature and county officers will be held Saturday, August 22nd, and the convention on Monday, August 24th. This convention will also appoint delegates to the judical convention of the fifth district, which will meet in Annapolis, September 24th. The meeting of the central committee was largely attended, not alone by its members, but by the local Democratic politicians of the county and by aspiring candidates for places on the ticket. As the number of these is considerably in excess of the offices to be filled, it is impossible to make the prizes to be given out go round and somebody must be disappointed. Naturally each aspirant wants the disappointed one to be "some other fellow." Some of the would be candidates are very positive and determined in asserting their claims to recognition. What they will do about it when beaten, as some of the most pronounced of them are likely to be, remains to be seen. Perhaps the wounds of defeat may be covered and soothed, if not healed, with the salve of promise.

Hon. Frank Brown was here during the meeting of the committee and his presence naturally occasioned remark and added zest to the occasion. Whether his visit was merely accidental, or was made with design and intention, for the purpose of booming his gubernatorial boom, is matter of speculation. So far as we are informed there is no danger threatening the solidity of Carroll for her farmer son, in the State convention, and no candidate with sufficient hardihood to dispute the delegation with him. He seems to be determined to make his fences strong enough this time, however, to stand a strong assault from the capricious bosses, and the wisdom of that course may hereafter appear.

That there are deposits of tin metal in the United States is shown by a telegram from San Francisco, dated on the 15th inst., which reads: "The first shipment of block tin, consisting of seven tons, from the Temescal tin mines in San Bernardino county, has been received here."

Two men were drowned in Baltimore harbor on Sunday.

The Only Remedy.

Democrats "point with pride" to the maintenance of the State credit during a quarter of a century of Democratic control of the State finances. They are not saying anything, however, about onerous direct taxation during all those years, and the diversion of funds, levied and collected for specific objects under the constitution, to other uses, leaving the people to pay them over again to cancel the indebtedness, principal and interest, for which the taxes were originally imposed. They are shy of saying anything, too, about a defaulting State Treasurer, who was chairman of the Democratic State Committee; of a Governor, chosen by the bosses, who plead ignorance of the constitution as an excuse for neglect of duty, and of a Comptroller who neglected his duty and made the looting of the Treasury possible, without even the excuse of ignorance. Of course these are not pleasant subjects of reflection for Democratic politicians, and especially ring politicians. In the face of them, however, the great ring leader maintains his grip on the party machinery and compliments and assurances of continued support are showered upon him from every side.

For all these years the people have borne the burden of taxation to maintain State credit, and upright Democratic politicians have longed and waited in vain for the overthrow of bossism in their party government. The fall of Archer; the ignorance of the Governor and the official neglect of the Comptroller, all adherents of the ring, naturally suggested the overthrow of the bosses' combination, but the zeal with which Democratic county conventions hasten to express their admiration for the great boss leader, indicates that the day of redemption from boss rule is not nigh the straightforward, upright Democratic politicians in Maryland. There is no redemption except by the defeat of the Democratic party. There is no other remedy from the ills of boss rule in this State. When that remedy shall be applied the combination which has so long held the Democratic party in fetters will be broken forever, and the only wonder then will be that it maintained its power so long.

The Court of Appeals has pronounced invalid the bond given by Stevenson Archer, as Treasurer, and approved November 18th, 1889. This is a reversal of the opinion of the court below, and of the verdict for $12,857.55, rendered by the jury in favor of the State under that opinion. The probability is that the State will recover little more than the $60,000 awarded by the jury on the trial against the bondsmen of 1886. Something may be obtained from the estate of the late Henry W. Archer, now deceased, one of the original bondsmen; but the aggregate loss to to the State, principal, interest and cost, will be $75,000 to $100,000. This is the penalty the tax payers must bear for the pleasure of enjoying boss rule.

English Testimony.

A cablegram to the Baltimore American from London, under date of the 23rd inst., says: "The report of Mr. Wm. Lane Booker, the consul general of Great Britain at New York, upon the trade of that city, was published to-day, Mr. Booker, among other things, says that the trade of New Nork has been influenced by the new and higher duties, which have afforded benefit to American manufacturing interests. New life, he adds, has been imparted to the cotton and woolen industry everywhere, but especially, says Mr. Booker, is this the case in the Southern States, where new textile mills are going up with surprising activity, while all the old mills are being operated on full time. The silk industry, Mr. Booker's report says in conclusion, is the only exception to this state of General prosperity."

Five colored men and two women were drowned in Curtis' Creek, Anne Arundal county, last Saturday evening. They were berry pickers from Baltimore, and were employed on the farm of Capt. Wm. B. Chairs. Most of them were under the influence of liquor and the accident was caused by one of their number trying to climb into a rowboat in which they were about to start to the shore from the bugeye Thomas B. Bourne, in which they had been making a visit to Baltimore. The boat upset and seven persons out the ten who occupied it were drowned.

The second annual reunion of the Reformed Churches in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia, will be held at Pen-Mar on Thursday, August 13th, next. The committee to fix the date and make arrangements for the reunion is composed of Rev. Dr J. A. Hoffheins, of Martinsburg, W. Va.; David M. Hurley, Hagerstown; Edward Shafer, Baltimore; Samuel Dutrow, Frederick; Jno. K. Barger, Chambersburg, Pa.; Niles M. Fissel, Carlisle, Pa.; Chas. E. Stahle, Gettysburg, Pa.; P. C. Weist, York, Pa.; John M. Humrich, Martinsburg, W. Va.; B. F. Borden, Tom Brook, Va.

The death of Catharine N. Sinclair, the divorced wife of the late Edwin Forrest, the great American tragedian, recalled the divorce proceedings which took place nearly forty years ago, and which excited universal interest throughout the United States, and also in England, where Mr. and Mrs. were married in 1837. Mrs. Forrest was allowed alimony at the rate of $4,000 a year, which she received until Mr. Forrest's death, which occurred a few years later.

An Italian named Rosascal, a brakeman on the W. Md. R. R., accidentally fell across the track in front of the Blue Mountain Express, at Chewsville, on Wednesday afternoon, and his body was cut in two, a portion falling on each side of the track.

By order of the War Department the National flag, after July 4th, will officially contain forty-four stars, which will be disposed in six rows, the upper and lower rows to contain eight stars each and the others seven each.

A cloudburst occurred in Iowa on Tuesday which flooded fifteen or twenty counties. At Cherokee a hundred houses were swept away, and immense damage was inflicted elsewhere. Ten or twelve persons are reported drowned.

The Weather Bureau will be transferred July 1st from the War Department to the Department of A iculture, under an act passed by the last Congress.
