Mrs. Lucile Bowman Died At Betterton

wife of J. A. Bowman, died at her home in Betterton, Monday, August 21st in her sixty sixth year.

Altho she has been ill for a number of months and suffered intense pain, she "never murmured nor complained beneath the chastening rod, but in the hour of her pain, she leaned upon her God." She was a life long member of the Methodist Church and was active in all of the its organization and was faithful in the service she rendered. She lived her life for others and altho having no children (her only child died in early childhood), she was a mother to many and it is indeed, truly said of her "that inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these ye have done it unto Me". The bank of beautiful flowers bore witness of the love of her many friends.

The funeral service was held at the Methodist Church, Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. C. E. Davis her pastor, officiating and the interment was in Still Pond Cemetery. The bearers were her nephews, Messrs. Hydie Brice, Edward Myers, Howard Smith, William Brice, Charles Brice and Clifford Brice. Undertaker B. R. Fellows was in charge.
