THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Can you realize that Labor Day week-end is near, so very near, in fact that plans for entertainment, for trips away, for guests to come and all that goes with it are on the verge of materializing? The summer, with its all its heat, has been rather a jolly one, and the High Point ringing its Death Knell to the season is just one week away. For many, it's sad, but you've heard me rave in past years of my love for Fall. I love it and the sooner it comes, the happier I'll be.

What about these plans for next week? They are manifold. Of course the outstanding one is the dance at the Country Club on Saturday night, September 2nd. That will, most likely, be preceeded and followed, by many parties. Then on Sunday, the yachtsmen have their heads together about a small regatta down at Deep Point in the afternoon, with some talk of a bufet super following the races. I didn't get my ear close enough to hear the Amen, so don't get too excited yet.

Also, next week-end, there will be a wedding, of interest, when Miss Barbara Hubbard, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubbard, will become the bride of Mr. Henry Mustin, son of Mrs. George Murray, and the late Com. Henry Mustin, of Washington, at Old St. Paul's Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride wil be given away by Captain W. H. Stayton of U. S. N. Retired, who was a shipmate of Mr. Mustin's father.

Miss Hubbard will have as her only attendant, Miss Dian Hubbard.

Following the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. William Wyllie, there will be a reception for the family and close friends at Brick House Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg-Smith were hosts at a shower in Miss Hubbard's honor on Tuesday evening.

Col. Robert E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams were guests last week-end of Captain and Mrs. E. A. DeWitt, of Langley Field. On Friday, September 1, Miss Nina DeWitt will become the bride of Lieut. Mr. Reed of the Air Corps, the ceremony to take place in the chapel at the Field. The bride-to-be, who has been a frequent visitor in the county of her aunts, Mrs. Roger Harris, and Mrs. Harry Williams, is a daughter of Captain and Mrs. DeWitt, the latter, the former Miss Daisy Jones, of Lynch.

Miss Martha Louise Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thornburg, and Thomas Sutton Jett, of Reidsville, Va., were married at the home of the bride's parents in Broad Neck last Saturday afternoon. Only the immediate families and a few close friends were present.

Mrs. James G. Beck returned to her home here on Thursday, from a visit to Sherwood Forest, where she was the guest of Mrs. Rudolph Tull at her summer cottage there, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown will spend this week-end in Philadelphia as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinkley.

Mrs. Charles Purlitz, of Houston, Texas will come the middle of next week to be a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick.

Miss Mary Hynson, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., of Richmond, Va., were guests over the week-end and part of this week, of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, and Mr. Harrison Vickers, Jr., spent last week-end at Rehobeth Beach.

Mr. William S. Collins is spending this week end at the New York World's Fair.

A reunion of the family of the late L. Waters Russell was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Russell Chandler, at Salisbury, Md., on August 17th. Following luncheon the party motored to Ocean City, Md., where the clan enjoyed dinner. Members from Toronto, Canada and Reno, Nevada, were present.

Miss Ann Pippin has returned from a visit of several days at Severna Park, where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Walter Pippin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lusby, of near Chestertown, have returned home after spending a few days at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Davis are on a motor trip to the Thousand Islands and other points of interest in New England.

Mr. David McMenamin, after taking a six weeks' course at Delaware University, is vacationing at the World's Fair, in New York and Rehobeth Beach, Del.

Mr. Willard Shilley, of Souderton, Pa., is a guest of Mr. Ray Kirby at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kirby.

Misses Shirley Jenkins and Betty Rohmer, of Baltimore, have been guests of Miss Peggy Benton at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kirby.

Mrs. Harry Nicholson and Mrs. Virginia Cushing have returned from a visit to friends in Pittman and Wildwood, N. J., as well as the World's Fair in N. Y.

If encouragement has any power, maybe some day you'll hear about the Wanderer taking a day off, but it takes two to make such a bargain and I'm

Yours of the weaker sex,

The Wanderer
