Free Trade, Free Silver and Free Rum are the watchwords of the Ohio Democracy.

Ohio Democracy has a Gorman also, but unlike his Maryland namesake he isn't in favor of an unlimited coinage of depreciated silver dollars.

The New York Press publishes every day a tariff picture, concerning the condition of things under the system of comparative free-trade and protection. The method is very effective and the facts presented very forcible, showing in unmistakable characters the advantages of protection.

Our Democratic friends are emphatic as ever in their denunciations of the McKinley tariff, but their assaults on that instrument are now all of a general character. Their specific predictions of its inexorable effect upon prices have been so thoroughly negatived, by the actual results, that they are not left a peg of fact upon which to hang an argument against it, and so they return to the stale platitudes of worn out theories.

If the Democrats believe, as intimated by the resolutions passed by the recent convention in this county, that a protective tariff is unconstitutional why have they not sought the intervention of the courts against it? Surely the authority of the judiciary may be invoked to prevent the enforcement of unconstitutional legislation. The failure to make the slightest attempt to obtain a judicial decision upon the question is presumptive of a lack of confidence in their theory.

For years there has been a practical English tin combination which has kept prices at a stiff figure to American purchasers. This combination has now stopped production and thrown about twenty-six thousand hands out of employment. The "shut down," it is said, will continue about 6 weeks. Whatever the object of this action may be, it furnishes a sound reason for protecting and developing this industry at home, so that America may be no longer dependent upon the manufacturers of Swansea for her supply of this necessary article.

According to most of the leading Democratic and mugwump newspapers Mr. Blaine's health is in a state of hopeless decline. Reliable reports of his condition, however, indicate that he is steadily improving and will probably be back at his post in Washington in the autumn fully restored. He has been suffering with nervous dyspepsia, due to overwork, and there has been no attempt to conceal from the public the fact that he has been a sick man. The exaggeration has been on the other side and by those with whom, seemingly, the "wish is father to the thought."

An Imaginary Burden.

The Democrats of Carroll county, by their recent convention, expressed their opposition to a "Federal tax system" (?) "that weighs heavily on Agriculture," meaning, of course, the McKinley tariff law. How the farmer must groan in spirit when thus cruelly reminded of the burdens imposed by this "robber tariff;" when he reflects that he is paying the enormous sum of 5 cents a pound for refined granulated sugar; that binder twine cost him, for the recent harvest, 9 cents a pound; that he has to pay seven dollars for a genteel Sunday suit and in the same ratio for his working clothes; that a pair of good plow shoes will cost him a dollar and nineteen cents, &c. To be sure, he never before in his life bought refined granulated sugar for less than 7 cents per pound; his binder twine last year cost him 14 cents per pound; clothing has never been cheaper than it is now, and all manner of agricultural implements are also cheaper than they ever were before. Then, too, he is getting better prices for his produce than he did for a number of years previous to this time, and the outlook for his future prosperity is decidedly more favorable than it was under the preceding tariff. But the Carroll county Democratic convention says this "tax" "weighs heavily on Agriculture," and so the Democratic farmer, at any rate, is bound to believe it or discredit the wisdom and sagacity of the leaders of his party concerning such questions.

But seriously, is it not time the farmers were applying the rule of common sense and gauging, at their true value, such utterances as that quoted in the beginning of this article? With good crops and better prices than for several years previous, and the cost of everything he is obliged to buy lessened, under the McKinley law, should the farmer not hesitate to risk these advantages for a different system of taxation, if he choose to call it so, predicated upon the utterly false theory that the amount of the tariff is added to the price of the article upon which it is imposed?

This "theory" of the Democratic party, as enunciated by Mr. Cleveland and reiterated by numerous conventions, is now confronted by a "condition" utterly at variance with it. Democratic statesmen are busy inventing other theories to explain the general failure of this, but the main question with the people is whether they will delegate to the Democratic party the power to disturb the system which, in spite of theories and predictions, is being justified by its practical working.

The Omaha Bee says Nebraska has bank deposits of $50,507,000, or $47 per capita, almost enough to pay all the farm mortgages in the State. The estimated yield of the crops for this year is greater than ever before. Omaha has grown to be the third meat-packing centre in the country. The industry was unknown three years ago. The State produces fifty thousand pounds of butter and forty thousand pounds of beet sugar a day. There are 5,345 miles of railroad track in the State. There doesn't seem to be much to complain of in regard to the condition of agriculture in that vigorous commonwealth.

The Farmers' Alliance.

The Farmers' Alliance party is not working to the satisfaction of the Democrats who have hoped to use it as an adjunct of their own organization. As it becomes more and more apparent to the farmers of the West that Democratic sympathy has no better basis than a desire to use the Alliance as a club to break the lines of the Republican party they are losing faith in the ultimate result of their effort to establish a new party. And blind they must be not to discern the motives that prompted the Democrats, in the beginning of their movement, to pat them on the back and commend their purposes. The determination of the Southern members of the Alliance to maintain their fealty to the Democratic party tells the story of the trick that has been perpetrated upon their Western brethren with greater force than words can express it. And now comes the State Alliance convention of Texas, which met at Fort Worth last week, and coolly repudiates one of the cardinal planks of the Ocala platform, by denouncing the sub-treasury and land loan schemes and governmental ownership of railroads. A dispatch from Topeka, Kansas, says the Alliance leaders of that State are greatly chagrined and worried by the action of the Texas convention, which they fear is but the beginning of a scheme that will disrupt the organization and send thousands of Republicans who joined it back into the ranks of their old party. This is just the effect the attitude of the Southern Alliance men should have on their Western associates. They only need to use their wits in a moderate degree to realize that they have been misled in cherishing an expectation that the Alliance might be used to solve the Southern problem. Congressman elect Jerry Simpson, Gen. Weaver and Mrs. Lease, who have been active campaigners of the new organization, are now in Georgia for the purpose of addressing Alliance meetings; but they have been compelled to give assurances that they are not engaged in a third party crusade.

In the face of these facts the Alliance as a political organization should be short lived—the shorter the better.

Gov. Campbell Renominated.

The Ohio Democratic State convention concluded its sessions on Wednesday. Gov. Campbell was renominated with ease. The entire ticket selected is as follows:

For Governor, James E. Campbell, the present incumbent. The official vote on the first and only ballot was: James E. Campbell, 508 7-16; Lawrence T. Neal, 134 9-16; Virgil P. Cline, 56; Congressman Thomas L. Johnson, 1.

For Lieutenant Governor, W. V. Marquis, the present incumbent, renominated by acclamation.

For auditor of State, Hon. T. E. Peckinbaugh, of Wayne, by acclamation.

For Attorney General—John P. Bayley, of Putnam county.

For State Treasurer—C. F. Ackerman, of Mansfield.

For Judge of the Supreme Court—Gustavus H. Wald, of Hamilton county.

For Commissioner of Common Schools—Charles C Miller, of Erie county.

For Member Board of Public Works—John McNamara, of Summit county.

For Member of Food and Dairy Commission—H. S. Trumbo, of Lawrence county.

The resolutions passed by the convention, which were adopted by a vote of 399½ to 300½ pronounce in favor of a tariff for revenue only, the free and unlimited coinage of silver and, practically, free rum.

Gen. Benjamin F. Kelley, the "Hero of Phillippi," died at his home, "Swan Meadows," near Oakland, Md., at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. He had been suffering for some time from the effects of an old bullet wound in one lung, received at Phillippi during the late war. He was eighty-four years of age. His remains will be taken to Washington for interment in Arlington Cemetery, in a lot alongside that of Generals Crook and Sheridan. Gen. Kelly's services in West Virginia, in the early days of the rebellion, were of inestimable value to the government. He won one of the first victories of the war at Phillippi, the news of which thrilled and inspired the country.

This is grasshopper year in Colorado. A dispatch from Brush, in that State, dated Wednesday, states that ten miles south of that place, these insects "are devastating all plant life which lies in their course. Their operations extend over a scope of country twelve miles in width. They are moving north, and bid fair to lay waste all crops which they come across. The ground is completely covered, and so numerous in parts as to be an inch deep. Several upland farmers have lost their entire crops. Many of these farmers have suffered for the last four years from drought, and it is feared great distress will be caused by this new misfortune.

Enormous caverns have been discovered in Josephine county, Oregon, about twelve miles north of the California line and about forty miles from the coast. Many of the passages within the cave are described as of great beauty, containing in them semi-transparent stalactites, giant milk-white pillars, pools and streams of pure, clear water falling thirty feet in height. All kinds of grotesque figures were found in the various chambers.

On Wednesday Warden Brown, of Sing Sing prison, New York, filed his certificate of death of the four men executed by electricity. Appended to the certificate was a statement by Drs. Charles F. Macdonald and Samuel D. Ward, the physicians at the execution, that the men submitted quietly and that unconsciousness was produced instantaneously and death was manifestly painless.

A panic occurred at the performance of Forepaugh's Circus at Rock Island, Ill., on Tuesday. There were six thousand persons in attendance, when a lion in some manner got out of its cage and the immense crowd rushed for the street. Fortunately no one was killed in the wild rush to escape, but several were seriously injured. The lion did not get very far away from his cage before he was captured.

Policeman Jacob Zapp, of Baltimore, was struck by an engine of the B. & O. R. R., on Wednesday, and literally ground to pieces.

The State Teachers' Association.

The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the Maryland State Teachers' Association, held at Ocean City on the 7th, 8th and 9th of July, will always be remembered by those who were present as a complete and unqualified success. Everything combined to make it memorable as such.

The attendance was unprecedented, numbering nearly or quite six hundred. The exercises were unusually interesting, presenting a constant variety of feature. The harmony was unbroken, the good nature was universal, the enthusiasm was continual. Even the weather was altogether favorable, the one storm rousing the ocean to a sublimity worth the whole journey to see. The highest commendations were bestowed on the Executive Committee, who made all the arrangements for the meeting and managed it. Of this committee our Examiner, Prof. James A. Diffenbaugh, was chairman, and the credit of the unprecedented success is said on every hand to be due chiefly to his skill and tireless energy.

Besides the Examiner and Profs. Reese and McDaniel, of the college, who were both on the program and read valuable and entertaining papers, our county was represented by Mr. Jacob H. Blocher, School Commissioner, and Mrs. Blocher, Misses Carrie Mourer, Maggie Crass, Anna M. Mikesell, and Mary Reese, and Messrs. Paul J. Beck, Marion J. Abbott, and J. W. Croft, teachers, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Crouse, Miss Ida Diffenbaugh and Master Paul Reese.

The Address of Welcome was delivered by Joshua W. Miles, Esq., of Princess Anne, a graduate of Western Maryland College, and now the law partner of Hon. Henry Page, M. C. In addition to the formal welcome Mr. Miles's address was an eloquent and splendid oration on the relation of public schools to citizenship. Prof. E. B. Prettyman, State Superintendent, responded in behalf of the Association. The President, Prof. John E. McCahan, Asst. Supt. of Baltimore city schools, delivered a thoughtful and suggestive Inaugural Address. Prof. M. A. Newell read a Retrospect of Twenty-five Years, being an historical sketch of the public school system in this State. This was one of the special features of the meeting. It abounded in valuable facts, wise suggestions and pathetic tributes to the worth of the school men who had served their day and gone to their rest. It was felt that nobody in the State was so well qualified as Prof. Newell to write such a retrospect, and although it is high praise, it is but just to say his effort met fully the great expectations raised by the announcement that he had consented to perform the duty. Messrs. Bryan, of Dorchester; Squier, of Cecil; Chaplain, of Talbot, and Witmer, of Washington, veteran examiners, enriched the retrospect with tribute drawn from their experience and observation.

On Wednesday Prof. F. A. Soper, President of Baltimore City College, narrated in a graphic and entertaining way the history of the calendar. President Alvord, of the Agricultural College, read a paper on Manual Training as an Adjunct to General Education, and Miss Belle Newell one on the Benefits of Chautauqua to Teachers, written by Miss R. E. Brown, of Hagerstown.

The evening sessions were devoted to musical and literary entertainments by accomplished musicians and elocutionists, and were thoroughly enjoyed.

On Thursday Prof. W. R. McDaniel, of Western Maryland College, author of Club Swinging by Note, read a paper on Physical Training in the public schools, the possibilities of which were illustrated by a drill in dumb bell and club swinging exercises, by a class of thirteen young ladies from St. Michael's High School, under the direction of their principal, Mr. Wm. S. Crouse, our former fellow-townsman and a graduate of Western Maryland College. Prof. Jas. W. Reese, also of Western Maryland College, read a paper on Local Names, showing how the history of a people is recorded in the names of their rivers and hills. It need not be said that this was one of the best things on the program. Prof. Reese's reputation is a sufficient guarantee on that point.

Prof. Willis Boughton, of the Ohio University, made a short voluntary address on University Extension, and Prof. Geo. R. Steele, of the Elkton Academy, read a short paper on Method Madness. Mrs. M. A. Newell, Secretary of the State Teachers' Reading Circle, read the annual report of that organization, which suggested rather a languishing condition of health in it. She closed with an eloquent plea for greater interest and better results next year. The report of the Executive Committee, made by the chairman, showed that correspondence with the school authorities of Baltimore city and the various counties had elicited a pronounced preference for Ocean City as the place of meeting; that two circulars of information had been severally mailed to each of the 3500 public school teachers in the State; that as a result representatives from the city, from every county, and from nearly every college and academy in the State, and all but five of the twenty-five county and city superintendents, were present; that the enrollment of members was nearly twice as great as at any previous meeting; and that every School Board but one had responded favorably to the request for a donation towards the expenses of the meeting.

This closed the general exercises. The annual business meeting was immediately opened. A committee was appointed for the purpose of securing for the free school fund the money to be paid to the State under the Direct Tax Bill passed by the last Congress. Several amendments to the constitution were adopted. Thanks were voted to all who had contributed to the exercises, to the executive committee, and to the American Book Company for furnishing the program free of charge. The election of officers for the ensuing year was then held and resulted as follows: President, Jas. A. Diffenbaugh, of Carroll county; Vice-Presidents, Chas. B. Rogers, of Baltimore county, and Cornelius J. Scott, of Kent county; Recording Secretary, A. F. Wilkerson, Corresponding Secretary, Miss Agnes Durst, both of Baltimore city; Treasurer, Alexander Chaplain, of Talbot county; Executive Committee, Wilbur F. Smith, of Baltimore city, Prof. Raddatz of Baltimore city College, F. J. Maddox, Examiner of Charles county, M. B. Stevens, Examiner of Caroline county, and Miss Anna E. Johnston, teacher, of Howard county.

The composition of the new committee, which is made up of some of the best material in the Association, is an earnest that no effort will be spared to make the meeting of 1892 as successful as that of 1891.

One of the most destructive forest fires which has ever swept through the northern peninsula of Michigan was raging between Marquette and St. Ignace, along the line of the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railway, early this week. For hundreds of miles nothing could be seen but one mass of flame, and the density of the smoke was so pronounced that the beaming sun appeared like a golden ball.

The wife and seven-year old boy of Wm. Carpenter, of Camden, N. J., were drowned in the Delaware river Sunday night. They were in a row boat, and while the husband was making frantic efforts to get out of the path of a ferry-boat which was almost on them, the woman took the child in her arms and leaped overboard, and was carried away by the swift current.

Capt. George Walker rowed with his two children, a boy aged five years and a girl aged thirteen, from Croton Point to Sing Sing, N. Y., on Sunday. On the return he grabbed at the girl who was leaning over the side of the boat. The boat was upset and the two children were drowned. The father was rescued with difficulty.

Pliny W. Barney, general superintendent of the Lake George and Lake Champlain Transportation Company, was killed near Kenesaw, Fourteen-Mile Island, on Lake George, on Sunday, in rescuing his son, who had fallen into the water. In diving Mr. Barney struck a projecting rock, which crushed his forehead. The boy was saved.

A threshing engine exploded Saturday at Bruceville, Ind. John Fleck was instantly killed, having his head blown off; Dick Price, breast crushed in and will die; William Coan, Herman Milburn, Newton Baker, Charles Gibson and Gude Barr were horribly scalded.

Miss Adelaide Mansfield, daughter of Justice Mansfield, of the Arkansas Supreme Court, attempted Wednesday night to commit suicide by taking a dose of morphine at Little Rock. Her life was saved with the greatest difficulty. A love affair is said to be the cause of the girl's act.

A six-year-old daughter of Scott Evans, a farmer, of Providence township, Lancaster county, Pa., was almost instantly killed Tuesday evening by being kicked in the stomach by a horse which she had struck as it was being led to water.

The steamer Pickhuber, which arrived at Montreal Wednesday, brought over a large party of Hebrews who were expelled from Russia. Many of these poor people are in a sickly condition from the trials they have undergone.

Judge J. A. Warder, who was under indictment at Chattanooga, Tenn., for the murder of his son-in-law, Simpson Fayette, banker, committed suicide Tuesday night at his residence on Lookout Mountain, by blowing out his brains.

Judge John P. Briscoe was nominated for chief Judge of the Southern Maryland circuit on the first ballot in convention at Port Tobacco, on Wednesday, by the Democrats.

Misses Mollie Brooks and Kate Higgins were drowned on Sunday while attempting to ford a steam near Cedarville, Kansas. Wilson Brooke, who drove the wagon, was rescued.

John McNeff and Miss Lucy Kaiser were drowned while out rowing at Columbia Park, Chicago, on Sunday. He was a brick-layer.

Lesile Young and Henry Campbell, each ten years old, were drowned while bathing in Lake Calumet, near Chicago on Sunday.

The Harford county Prohibitionists have nominated a county ticket and candidates for the Legislature.

A Five Minutes Talk

TO FARMERS.

It may seem early to call attention to

FERTILIZER

FOR FALL SEEDING,

but there are farmers who have in former years given their orders for fertilizer before consulting us. To them we especially wish to talk.

DON'T BE HUMBUGGED

by misleading statements made by those who are interested in the results of misleading farmers. Remember that our fertilizer has been sold for years—long before many of the different brands that are sold to day were thought of; and remember we will not be undersold. The general business that we have gives us a great advantage over our competitors. This advantage we are willing to share with the farmer. For years farmers who have used our fertilizer have had the most flattering results and we are more thoroughly convinced than ever that are especialy adapted to the soil of our county. This was our aim, and the results have proven our success. Another year has just passed with the best of results from our fertilizer from all over the county. Here is what one of the many say of our fertilizer:

Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son: Gentlemen.—I used you dissolved raw bone fertilizer last fall, putting 167 pounds to the acre. I have just threshed 440 bushels of wheat from 11 acres, of excellent quality. I used other fertilizers, but yours was by far the best. I would have made money if I had used all of your fertilizer.

Respectfully,
DAVID J. BROWN, Cranberry.

Remember if you want cheap, but good fertilizers, see us, or our representives, who are:

Frank Brown, Silver Run.
N. D. Norris, Eldersburg.
D. W. Richards, Hampstead.
Wm. J. Brown, Arcadia.

Respectfully,

N. I. GORSUCH & SON,

A Competitive Examination

FOR A

Free Scholarship at Western Maryland College.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Scholarship at Western Maryland College, due to Carroll county, is vacant, and that in compliance with the law creating the same, a competitive examination of the candidates therefor will be held at Central Hall School House, in Westminster, ON MONDAY, JULY 20TH, beginning promptly at 9 o'clock, a. m. By an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, the College is enabled to furnish the holder of this scholarship tuition, board, fuel, lights and washing free of charge. The appointment is made by the Board of School Commissioners, by and with the advice and consent of the Senator for the county. The beneficiary thereof is required to give bond to the State, with approved security, that he (or she) will teach school within the State for not less than two years after leaving college.

As the tenure of the scholarship by any one student is limited to four years, it is desirable that competitors be able to pass an examination for the Freshman Class. Such examination would cover English and Latin Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, History of the United States, and Algebra to Equations of the Second Degree. Financial condition and personal merit will be considered, along with scholastic proficiency, in making the selection.

By order of the Board of County School Commissioners.
