THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

The high-light of the week's social news is the annual picnic to be held this evening by Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown in the grove of their estate Godlington Manor. As always, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Thomas are really the guests of honor. This affair which usually marks the social opening of the Fall season, is an event which is enjoyed and remembered by guests from year to year. Many out-of-town guests attend including those from New York, Baltimore, Annapolis and neighboring counties. Among those from Baltimore who will attend will be Mr. and Mrs. Omar D. Crothers and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Settle. From Annapolis, Mrs. William A. Jackson and her son, Mr. Harold Hallet will come on their yacht anchoring in the Chester over the week-end. Here's wishing the hosts and their guests "fair weather."

The week otherwise has, like last, been without parties, to my knowledge. Many have found this a pleasant time of the year to enjoy a vacation and to visit the Fair.

Mrs. William T. Dixon, of Green Point Farm, attended the wedding of her niece last week-end in New York and while there attended the Fair accompanied by her son, Mr. William T. Dixon, Jr., who is a student at Princeton. Mr. Alfred Crisfield, brother of Mrs. Dixon, has been her guest this week. Miss Josephine Dixon, who will make her debut at the Bachelors' Cotillion in Baltimore this winter, is in that city now attending, the various debutante parties. Several parties in Miss Dixon's honor are planned for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins are guests of Miss Maude Roberts, at her home in Annapolis for the week-end. Mrs. Perkins and Miss Roberts will attend the weding of Miss Anne Peterson and Mr. Conrad Hines which will take place this afternoon at the home of the bride's sister in Owing Mills.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Farr left on Wednesday for a week's visit to New York and the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong returned home Friday after a week's visit to the New York Fair.

Mrs. A. T. H. Harper left this week for a visit to Elizabeth, N. J., where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cooke.

Miss Fredrica Metcalfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe returned to Hollins College, Va., Friday, where she will be a Junior this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley and Mr. G. Harry Cannan accompanied Miss Elizabeth Wheatley this week to Durham, N. C., where she will matriculate at Duke University.

Miss Carrie Schreiber left this week for Port DePosit, Md., where she will resume her duties as teacher at Tome School.

Mr. William McCullough has accepted a position as an instructor in accounting and economics at Bethany College, Bethany, W. Va. Mr. McCullough graduated in June from the Harvard School of Business Administration of Harvard University.

Mr. Charles N. Satterfield, Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, Mr. George W. French spent the latter part of this week attending the Pennsylvania State Fair, at Reading, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Purlitz, of Houston, Texas came yesterday, to be a house-guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick for a few weeks. Mr. Purlitz will join Mrs. Purlitz here later, when they will continue their trip to the New York Fair.

Guests for a few days of Mrs. Joseph Archbell at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr., were Mrs. Charles George, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. John Guion, of Staten Island, N. Y.

Miss Anne Boardman and Mr. Holliday Riepe, of Baltimore, are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., at The Fairway.

Young folks yesterday had the time of their lives at the birthday party of little Tommy Eshman. The party was in the nature of a circus, thirty some little people who were invited being asked to come in costume. The circus was held in the side yard of the Voshell House, where the parade an dantics took place. Mr. Eshman and Mr. Jesse Maxwell were the star clowns and performed much to the amusement of the youngsters. Refreshments were served later with the theme motive of the circus carried out in favors and decorations.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, who, to-morrow, celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Morris, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born last week at the Union Memorial Hospital in Baltimore.

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Annie H. Stam, of Chevy Chase, Md., of the marriage of her daughter, Lillian Roberts to Mr. Herman F. Hancock, of Snow Hill, Md., Mr. Hancock was ot one time assistant at the Stam Drug Co., in Chestertown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Johnston, of Sassafras, Md., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Helen to Mr. Ralph K. Fillingame, of Chesapeake City, Md. The ceremony was performed in the parsonage at Warwick, Md., by the Rev. P. R. Schauer, on September 2nd. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Alma Johnston, while Mr. Harry C. Walls, of Kennedyville, served as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Fillingame will reside in Wilmington, Del.

And so, we hope they'll live happy ever after. Here ends my story. Watchman, what of the night?

Yours heeding,

The Wanderer

WHEAT ACREAGE ALLOTMENT FOR KENT INCREASED

Price Adjustment Put At 22c Bushel

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace advises farmers to proceed with their farm plans as if the outbreak in Europe had not occurred.

In a statement he said, "American agriculture is in a much better position to meet the shock of war than it was 25 years ago. The very machinery which farmers have used to adjust production to decreased demand in peace-time can be used in war-time to increase production if and when that becomes advisable.

"There is little likelihood that any substantial increase in production of the major crops will be desirable, certainly not in the near future," the Secretary's statement continued. "In any case, the need for increase in supplies can be anticipated in ample time to make any necessary increases in acreages."

The provisions of the 1940 AAA program dealing with agricultural conservation measures follow closely those in effect this year. The wheat allotment of 62 million acres—7 million acres larger than the 1939 allotment— has already been announced, as have tentative wheat conservation and price adjustment payments which will total from 18 to 22 cents per bushel next year. Acreage goals for other major crops, together wtih rates of payment, will be established later in view of developing conditions.

An important provision which will encourage further soil conservation measures on small farms insures that as much as $20 may be earned on every farm participating in the program. Another important conservation provision will encourage the planting of forest trees on farms by allowing farmers to earn up to $30 for tree planting, in addition to the regular soil-building allowance for the farm.

Soil building practices have been provided to meet more adequately the needs for soil conservation, and special emphasis will be given to conservation of wildlife. Food for the family is generally recognized as an important conservation measure and will be included by making provision for home gardens.
