THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Don't settle back in your chair now for a nice long rest intending to read The Wanderer. You can just stand right where you are and read and I'll guarantee you won't be tired when you're through. To-day is Hello and Good-bye.

Practically naught of interest has occurred during the past week, that is, which I can write about Life is always full of choice little details, but I know you have only eyes and ears for the big events. I could tell you more about the picnic last Saturday night given by Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, but I am sure by now you've heard how much fun everybody had, and how yummy was all the food. Governor and Mrs. Herbert O'Conor with some friends were guests of honor with Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Thomas. As always, Mr Thomas was gracious enough to sing a ballad or two for us, following the little chorus who usually chirp around the camp fire. Yes, the party was a glowing success.

A cabtegram was received this week by Mr and Mrs. Franklin Beck that Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones has sailed from Southampton on the Manhattan. We are wishing her Bon Voyage home.

Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., accompanied by his friend, Mr. John Daniels will come on Monday to spend the latter half of their vacations with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines. Both Mr Hines and Mr. Daniels have positions in Richmond, and spent the first part of their vacation in Old Hickory, Tenn., at Mr. Daniels' home.

Mrs. Thomas Kibler and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kelsey on a motor trip to Williamsburg, Va., yesterday, remaining there over the week end.

Mrs. Robert S. Dwyer, of Harrisonburg, Va, is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong.

Miss Christine Shore, of Keyser, W. Va., was a guest during the past week of Mr and Mrs. Howard Pennington.

Miss Lucy Frazier, of Washington, is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pennington.

Mrs. Harrison Vickers is a guest of relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr and Mrs. William Beck Nicholson, 2nd, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born on Monday, at the University Hospital in Baltimore Mrs. Nicholson was formerly Miss Nancy Gane, of Perryville, while Mr. Nicholson, known to all of us as Bill, is with the Chicago Cubs and is not expected home until October 1, when the National League season ends.

Reverend and Mrs. J. Franklin Carey of Laurenceville, Va., are spending several days here at the Usilton home on High St. Mrs. Carey was formerly, Miss Clara Usilton, of Chestertown.

Mr.Walter P. Robinson has returned to his home here from a week's tour of Eastern New York and New England. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S Lee Startt and friends of Baltimore.

Mr William Belt Townshend and Mr. T. Alan Stradley have returned from a motor trip to the World's Fair and New England.

Miss Rose Coursey, of Baltimore, is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ella P. Robinson on Kent Circle.

The opening of Washington College on Wednesday, makes the town seem normal again, with groups of College students here and there, lots of new faces, lots of old ones, and all in a happy, collegiate mood. Welcome one and all!

Yours hand shaking,

The Wanderer

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

Whereas, Providence has in His Divine Wsdom seen fit to call from this earth one of our members, the oldest in point of age and the oldest in point of service as a Rotarian,

Be it resolved that the members of The Chestertown Rotary Club deeply regret the passing of our late member and friend, William S. Paca. In his many years and with keen interest in men and things he had learned much of life and how to live. A gentleman who was kind, thoughtful and considerate, it was a delight to know him and a pleasure to be associated with him. We do now and shall continue to miss him, yet we are thankful to have had him with us for a while in person, and we shall cherish his memory, knowing full well that the influence of a good life lingers on and on. To his family we wish to express our sincere sympathy, trusting that though they feel their loss keenly and shall miss him much, they may find comfort in the fact that they had him for a while as husband, father and grandfather.

Be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Chestertown Rotary Club, a copy sent to the family and a copy be published in the County Papers.
