THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

I often wonder just what would I have to write about these days when Seasons change and the social tide is low, if it were not for the Fair. Oh, ye blessed Fair, you saved my life this Fall. The trek continues, and it seems I am only the one left in captivity, who have not gone. Soon, I'll be bale to describe it just as if I had been. Everyone is caught by something different, and thus I have received many slants, many assorted descriptions.

A party from here, who have just returned and seemed to have had a thoroughly good time for several days, include Mr. and Mrs. Don T. Falls, Jr., Miss Elizabeth M. Baxter, Miss Lucille Rasin, Mr. James T. Anthony, 3rd and Mr. Burdette Nuttle, of Denton.

To-morrow, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Maxwell will entertain at a large buffet supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Omar D. Crothers, of Baltimore, whose mariage took place recently.

Among the out-of-town guests who will be at Worton Manor, for the week-end include: Mrs. Grace Aldridge, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Farrington Hall, of Baltimore, Dr. Joseph Franklin, of Cumberland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell, of Tarreytown, N. Y.

Crop Loans Avaialbale To Farmers

Farmers not able to secure satisfactory credit from other sources, may apply to the Emergency Crop Loan office of the Farm Credit Administration for loans for seed or fertilizer or tractor fuel, etc., in order that winter grains may be seeded.

Mr. C. R. Hare will be at the County Agent's office Monday, September 25, at 11 o'clock, to help farmers make proper application.

Crop mortgages are required as security. The Landlord signs a waiver of his interest in the crop before the tenant may secure a loan.

This type of loan has met a real need for a small group—enabling the borrower to secure seed, fertilizer, etc. ,at cash price and in time to get crops in properly prepared seed beds.
