THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Weather generally fair, invigorating air, and motorists raring to go. And gone they have this week, any excuse to ride. A trip to Wilmington, Baltimore, Philadelphia for no rhyme or reason, but the roads thereto and from have been traveled no end.

Those from here who will go to Philadelphia to-day to attend the Wilson-Alexander nuptials include Mrs. Scott Beck, Miss Betty Beck, Mr. Scott Beck, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe, Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong.

Mrs. Clarke Grieb has returned from a visit to Frederick, Md., where she was a guest at Hood College where her daughter, Marian is enrolled.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell left on Wednesday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Elizabeth, N. J., and Staten Island, N. Y.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Atwater have been in Easton, Pa., this week where Dr. Atwater attended the Synod of Clergyman.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines will be guests of General and Mrs. Milton A. Reckord next week during the annual convention of the National Guard Association. Included in the program for the ladies there will be a luncheon and reception at the Baltimore Country Club on Thursday, while on Friday, they will be guests of Governor and Mrs. Herbert O'Conor at a luncheon at the Mansion in Annapolis. That evening a ball will be held at one of the Baltimore hotels.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown will return home to-day accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Brown who wil spend the week-end here.

Billy and Page Wilmer, of Baltimore, are spending the winter here with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam. They have enrolled in the Chestertown school.

Miss Maude Roberts, of Annapolis, Md., will be a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Mrs. Edward Robinson, Misses Elizabeth Strakey, Frances Hodgson and Mrs. Franklin Davis left on Saturday for a motor trip via the Skyline Drive and other interesting points in Virginia, returning home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Roland Corey, Mrs. Simon Westcott, and Miss Elizabeth Westcott are guests of Mrs. Charles Schaeffer at her home in Westfield, N. J. While there, they will attend the Fair.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Howard Dana, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Myers, of Kennedyville, left Friday, by motor, to spend the week-end in New York, and naturally, will be among the visitors at the Fair.

Little Richard Barroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll celebrated his third birthday yesterday, Friday, with a party at the home of his parents, Byford Court.

But soon the flitting around will stop and we'll begin intensive work on our Fall programs. From the looks of things, we'll have no time to spare. Suppers, County Fair, Country Club activities all are looming up with seeming importance. Among the latter will be card-parties buffet suppers and dances.

The first dance of the Fall season wil be next Saturday night, October 28, at the Country Club. A very spiffy Wilmington orchestra has been engaged, and a buffet supper at the Club will precede the dance. This, of course, will be an added attraction getting all the crowd together and set for a big evening.

To-day, are the Rose Tree Hunt Races, which take place at the Rose Trunt Hunt Club outside of Philadelphia. Among the Chestertownians who will attend include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Roach and Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb.

Races, football, weddings, all to-day. Fall fun, and more to come.

Yours engaged,

The Wanderer

ODDS AND ENDS FROM C. H. S.

By Anna Ruth Logan

Yes, we are back to try to give you some more news from good old Chestertown High.

A very exciting program has started this fall. An intramural activity in which all the boys and girls are taking part The athletic period is before lunch and we are to play each class. The girls have been playing volley ball and the boys soft ball. Then they change around. So far 40 is leading; next comes 3A. The freshmen classes are doing very well, especially the boys. There was a victory party Friday night for the winning team. We are still going to have clubs. The teachers will sponsor the clubs in his or her spare time ano we are allowed to belong to two clubs.

There have been quite of few field ball and soccer games. The last game the girls had with Rock Hall they lost 6 to 12. The boy's score was 6 to 2. Friday the girls best Galena 25 to 6 and the boys lost 2 to 0. This is the first game the girls have won but after all they have tried hard. There was to be a game at Millington but postponed on account of tests. The game was played Wednesday. It was to be the last game of the season. On November third there will be a all star fieldball and soccer at Chestertown. Six men football will soon start which many boys are interested in.

The attendance for the month of September was high on the average. Mr. Hall's class of Juniors led with the average of 98.3. Next comes Miss Smith's class of freshmen having 97.79 percent of the time. Mr. Fleetwood takes third place having a percent of 97.5. Mr. Martin's class of Juniors have a percent of 96.9. Running close behind is Mr. Poole's class of seniors being present 96.8. Miss Riches's class of freshmen and Miss Byran's class of senior tie for sixth place having a percent of 96.3. Last comes Miss Shallcross's class of Sophmore's being present 9518 of the time.

The Juniors are very excited because of getting their class rings. The rings will be the same as those of last year; as it was made a standard ring. They hope to get the ring before Christmas.

Building the Constitution

The keel of the Constitution was laid at Hart's shipyard near Constitution wharf, in Boston, in November, 1794. She was designed by Joshua Humphreys of Philadelphia and built under the supervision of a board of naval officers, of live oak, red cedar, white oak, pitch pine and locust from the forests of Massachusetts, South Carolina and Georgia. The bolts for her timbers and copper fittings came from the foundry of Paul Revere. She was 204 feet long, 43½ feet beam, 23 feet draft, displaced 2,200 tons and cost $302,000.

Eliot's Country

Visitors to Staffordshire in England find that it is the Loamshire of George Eliot's novels. Ellastone is the "Haysthrope" of Adam Bede, and the cottage of the novelist's childhood can be seen there.

Hitching Hotels to Stars

An asterisk alongside the name of a hotel in the famous Baedecker guide books is the sign of commendation to travelers. Every good hotel keeper in Europe works all his waking hours and often dreams in sleep of hitching his house to that star.

Sabot Makers of France

If you want to see sabots—the wooden shoes of peasants—in the making, do not ask for a sabot factory, but go into the forest, such a one as the ancient forest at Fougeres in Brittany, where in lone wood-cutters cottages you will see sabots made by hand.
