THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Here we are almost at the end of glorious, golden October, with Hallow'een but a few nights off. The time when Jack o'Lantern trims his light, when fairies come and dance at night; when witches ride their broom-sticks tall, goblins out and black cats all.

And to start the month of November off, bright and gay, on Wednesday, invitations have been received to a luncheon in Sudlersville. 'Tis to be given by Mrs. Dudley Roe, Mrs. Dudley Roe, Jr., and Mrs. Brown M. Roe. Quite a number from Chestertown will be going, I understand, and as always the Sudlersville parties are anticipated with pleasure and enjoyed.

On Friday, November 3rd, a card-party will be held at the Country Club where one may either play Rummy or Progressive Bridge. If it may entice you still more, there'll be refreshments.

To-night, the Harvest Supper and Dance wil be held at the Club, which promises to be gay and colorful. Do try and go; we want it to be a huge success. Supper will be served at 7 o'clock, followed by dancing to music of a fine Wilmington orchestra.

Mrs. Dorsey Hines entertained on Wednesday afternoon at a dessert party in honor of Mrs. W. D. Hines, Mrs. Rudolph Tull, Mrs. Harvey Tull, and the latter's mother, Mrs. Pribe of Cincinnatti, Ohio.

Mrs. W. D. Hines, of Baltimore, who has been a guest of her son and daughter-in-law during the past week, went yesterday to The Maples, the home of the Misses Wilkins, where she will be a guest of her sisters for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, of Cynwyd, Pa, will be week-end guests in Chestertown, and be among the out-of-town guests at the Club party to-night.

Other out-of-town guests who will attend, include Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa., who wil be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown for the week-end.

Among those from here who will go to College Park where the big Home Coming celebration, will take place over the week end are Miss Helen Strong and Mr. James Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan A. Harris returned Thursday from New York, where they have been attending the World's Fair since Monday. This is probably Amen to social items of those who went to the Fair, for it's the last week and the Wanderer never was able to wander that far.

Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell will spend this week-end in Tarrytown ,N. Y., where they will attend the wedding of Miss Sara Wright and Mr. John Payne.

Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, left on Wednesday for Alexandria, Va., where she will remain several days as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellington. Mr. Usilton will join his wife over the week-end.

Mrs. Claude Truslow spent the past week in Philadelphia, where she attended the Girl Scout Convention as a delegate from this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mead, and Mrs. Eloise Shelton, of Washington, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Mead. Mr. John Mead and Mr. Gilbert W. Mead, Jr., of Baltimore, were also entertained at their parents' home, attending the football game Saturday and the Omicron Delta Kappa dance on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Davis and family, of Salisbury, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter U. Lusby.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harry Schreiber, and children, of Columbus, Ohio, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Shreiber, recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, of Washington, D. C., were week-end guests of the latter's father, Mr. Samuel E. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. George Brice at Far Hill, N. J. While there they enjoyed several hunts with the Essex Hunt Club.

Tick-Tock, says the clock, time for me to stop. If on Hallow'een witches you should meet, while boys and girls in funny clothies, prance around the street, keep your eyes open for—

Yours in disguise,

The Wanderer

Little Girl Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury

Little Ruth Evelyn Reynolds, 2 year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Paul R. Reynolds, of Chestertown, narrowly escaped serious injury on Sunday when a large door fell on her in the garage at her home on Spring Ave.

The little girl was playing in the garage with her brothers and the side of a storm door which was stored there suddenly toppled over on her pinning her to the ground. The weight of the door requirred two men to lift it up.

Her injuries consisted only of a bruised hip and no serious injury was attributed to the fact that she was crushed into the soft dirt between two board runways in the garage.
