Sunday, November 12, 1939.
9.30 a. m., Sunday School, S. Elwood Burgess, Supt.
11 a. m., Worship thru observance of our Lord's Last Supper.
No service in any church is more rewarding then this "doing in remembrance of Him" when honestly, repentently entered into. The hours at Wesley are enjoyable ones, the congregation always splendid. Share some of those hours and follow with us.
7.00 p. m., Christian Endeavor discussing that thing which Henry Ward Beecher said "is very good in maxims and sermons, but very bad in practical life," Poverty. Who are the poor? Do we have to have them? Is there a Golden Mean on basis of which the poor may be changed? Is it Communism—is it what? Around 50 fine people are enjoying these after-dinner hours at Wesley as Dr. Byrd and a selected group each evening make practical contributions in a time which demands practical living.
