THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Hail December! To-day marks the official closing of foot-ball in the East, ending in a blaze of glory with the ever glamorous Army-Navy game in Philadelphia this afternoon. Among those from here who will attend include: Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines and Commander and Mrs. Hugh Sease, the latter having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong.

Monday night, is the first Bachelors' Cotillion, at which, Miss Josephine Dixon, daughter of Mrs. William T. Dixon, of Green Point Farm will make her debut. Miss Dixon who left for Baltimore Friday will be chaperoned by her mother and will have as her partners Dr. John Dorsey, of Baltimore and Mr. E. Ridgely Simpson. Her gown will be of white silk net adorned in silver sequins.

Another debutante, who is a frequent visitor here, and who will be presented Monday evening is Miss Betty Drayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drayton, of Washington and niece, of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eliason, of Chestertown.

Among those from here who will go to Baltimore to attend the Cotillion will be: Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll of Byford Court and Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard.

Invitations were issued this week to a luncheon-bridge to be given by Mrs. Anderson Whitsitt at her home on Friday, December 8th. Nice to have something to look forward to other than Christmas shopping.

The wild duck season, being at its height, has given cause for almost daily dinner parties, those delightfully informal kind of six or eight guests when devoted lovers of the fowl forget formality and when the meal is ended, little remains but the bones. Oh, yummy-yum, never was anything so good.

Mr. and Mrs. James Woodall, of Georgetown, spent last week-end in Southern Maryland where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Woodall's niece, the former Miss Helen Parsons Peverly, daughter of Mr. George C. Peverley and the late State Senator Peverley, who became the bride on Saturday afternoon of Mr. Robert King Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Maddox, of Rockville, Md.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother at Mechanicsville, with only members of the immediate families attending, by the Rev. Dr. Joseph Greenwell, S. J. of the Wayside Roman Catholic Church, of Chaptico. A large reception followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Maddox will make their home at Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong spent last week-end in Lansdowne, Pa., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinckley. Mrs. James G. Beck, was a guest over that period of Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull in Cynwyd, Pa.

Miss Harriette Welch of Sag Harbor, L. I., was a guest of her aunts, Mrs. E. Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper during the recent holiday.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, who spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. H. Clay Brown, was accompanied on her return to Baltimore by her. Mrs. Brown, will go to Philadelphia next week, accompaneid by Mrs. Leonard DeMerritt, of Baltimore, to be guests for a few days, of Mrs. Walter Norris at the Acorn Club.

Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiller, of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived on Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines, at Riverside, where they will remain over the week-end.

Among those who spent the week-end with Miss Marian Decker at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Decker, at Elkton, were the Misses Betty Beck and Dian Hubbard, of Chestertown.

Miss Caroline Stump, of Perryville, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. Benge Simmons, over the week-end. Miss Stump is the niece of the late Judge Frederick Stump.

Mr. Calvin Copper, of New York City, was the week-end guest of his mother, Mr. Whittier C. Copper. here.

Congratulations are due each week it seems. Here are two more future beaux for some of the little girls born recently.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellington, of Alexandria, Va., are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son last Saturday. Mrs. Ellington was the former Miss Nancy Jean Usilton. Mrs. William B. Usilton, Jr., her mother, is spending some time with them in the Virginia city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias W. Nuttle, of Denton, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of son, at the Mercy Hospital, Batlimore, on Wednesday. Mrs. Nuttle was the former Miss Mary E. Simpers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers.

Wedding bells, baby bells, jingle bells, chiming all around. What next?

Hark, I hear my door bell!

Yours answering,

The Wanderer

Origin in Bible

The expression, "Eat, drink and be merry," comes from the Bible. Ecclesiastes 8:15, reads: "Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry; for that shall abide with him of his labor the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun." Luke 12:19, says: "And I will say to my soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry."

NO COMPLAINTS HERE!

• I'm like a hundred million other Americans—I loved Will Rogers. But there was one thing about Will I never understood. He is supposed to have said, "I never met a man I didn't like," and those words are on the statue of Will in his home town.

Now Will got around a lot, and he met a lot of people, and some of them must have been awful heels. There are mean people, just like there are mean dogs. Maybe it is because they weren't brought up right or something, but they are still mean, and I would rather not have anything to do with them. I guess Will was big enough, and big-hearted enough, to see the good in even the meanest.

I don't have any complaints, though. My business is selling Ford cars and trucks, and somehow it seems that most of the people I come in contact with are fine and decent and good people. I like to think that's because I'm selling a mighty good product at a mighty fair price—and it's easy to get along with anybody under those circumstances.

But look at the people who own Ford products in this community. You'll notice they are fine people, the kind it's a pleasure to know and to do business with, and I count most of them among my friends. If they like me as much as they like their Ford cars, I'm more than satisfied!
