SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1891.

FOR 25 CENTS.

In reply to numerous inquiries it is hereby announced that the SENTINEL will be sent to campaign subscribers, from date until the last week in November, for the sum of 25 cents. The importance of having sound and reliable information concerning the issues involved in the November election should cause a large subscription of this character. The people, who were so grossly misinformed last year concerning the nature and effect of the McKinley tariff law, should pay little heed to alleged information coming from Democratic sources by which they were then misled. The SENTINEL has exposed many of the erroneous declarations then put forth by Democratic authority, and will still continue to do so. Let its circulation be widely extended.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Baltimore Sun says: "A clergyman writes to the Sun that a man calling himself Shafer, and representing himself as a Methodist Protestant, from Finksburg, Md., and a Johnstown survivor, has been successful in getting sums of money for the ostensible purpose of having an expensive operation performed on an eye said to have been hurt in the Johnstown flood. The minister says the man stopped all night with a member of his flock and led the family devotions. He claimed that his pastor was the Rev. G. R. McCready, of Finksburg, but a letter from Mr. McCready said the man had been there as a stranger, and had also got money for his eye in that place."

The dividend of four per cent. on capital stock and two and a half per cent. on weekly and monthly deposits, clear of all taxes, declared by the president and directors of the Westminster Savings Institution, as announced in our advertising columns, furnishes abundant evidence of its continued able management. This dividend, taken in connection with the statement of the condition of the institution for the year ending September 30th, 1891, marks it as one of the most substantial savings institutions in the country. It would certainly be difficult to find one more ably conducted. Mr. Wm. H. Starr is the treasurer.

Mr. O. D. Gilbert, President of the Westminster Fire Department, has received from Mr. Jackson C. Gott, architect, of Baltimore, a drawing showing the plan of a proposed improvement to the firemen's building, which will be commenced shortly and pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. The plan represents a very handsome front, raised to a level with the adjoining Wantz buildings and presenting the appearance of three stories surmounted by a graceful belfry and spire. The improvement will cost between $1,500 and $2,000, and when completed will give the firemen a structure of which they may justly feel proud.

In the fall of 1890 Mr. Milton Chew, of Carrollton, presented the SENTINEL with a pumpkin of large size, which he stated possessed within itself some peculiar quality that rendered the use of eggs unnecessary in making it into pies. It was kept in the office during the winter and was thoroughly sound in the spring. Several persons obtained seeds from it, among whom was Mr. Amos Wampler, of Medford, who has left with us a sample of its product in the shape of a pumpkin weighing seventy-two pounds and measuring four feet ten and a-half inches in circumference. He has a still larger one not quite so well shaped. On four vines he has eighteen of the pumpkins, many of which weighed from fifty to sixty pounds.

The engineers who have partially surveyed lines for the railroad from Green Spring Junction to this city have been temporarily called to Caroline county for the purpose of surveying a route from Greensborough to Federalsburg. Some county assistance has been tendered this line conditioned upon its acceptance by November 1st, causing an emergency that made prompt action necessary; hence the temporary suspension of the work on the lines to this city. It is understood that the work in Caroline county will not occupy more than two or three weeks, and upon its completion the engineers will return and finish the interrupted survey. They have already located three lines to the Patapsco, two from Green Spring Junction and one from a point lower down the Green Spring Valley. The latter and one of the other lines run to the mouth of Beaver run. The last line from the Junction runs to the mouth of Morgan's Run and is the most eligible of the three. It will be continued up Morgan's Run, which is known to be a practical and easy route.

Relics of Early Methodism.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Ward, D. D., F. S. Sc., President of the Westminster Theological Seminary of the M. P. Church, has in his possession a number of interesting and valuable relics of early Methodism both in England and America, which he exhibited and explained on Sunday morning last, at the request of the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. L. Mills, in his Church here, and also in the afternoon at the request of the pastor, Rev. W. H. Lane, at Deer Park, in connection with the laying of the corner-stone of the new M. P. Church to be erected there. We learn from Dr. Ward that it is his intention to place these relics with others that are to be exhibited in Washington city, during the great Ecumenical Conference of Methodists now in session; but they will afterwards be returned to him, and form part of the treasures of the Seminary under his charge.

Among the relics are Autographs of Rev. John Wesley, the founder of Methodism; Rev. Thomas Coke, promoter of Wesleyan Missions; Bishop Francis Asbury, the indefatigable leader of Methodism in America; Rev. Nicholas Snethen, Asbury's travelling companion for a time, whom he called his "Silver Trumpet" on account of his wonderful eloquence; Rev. Alexander McKain, with whom Coke and Asbury corresponded freely; Mr. William S. Stockton, who was the originaton of the "Wesleyan Repository" and published the earliest articles on the subject of lay-representation in the Methodist Church, which led to the organization of the Methodist Protestant branch of the Church; Bishops Enoch George and William McKendree; Rev. Thomas McCormick, who was one of the pall-bearers at the funeral of Bishop Asbury, and lived to the advanced age of 92 years; Rev. Eli Henkle, Rev. Isaac Webster and Rev. Dr. John S. Reese, who were Presidents of the Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church in its earliest years; Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, who was the most eminent pulpit orator of his time; and other ministers of note in the history of Methodism.

A relic of peculiar interest is the veritable Hymn Book which was used by Jonathan Forrest, who was the last survivor of the Christmas Conference of 1784 in Baltimore, at which the Methodist Episcopal Church was founded. This Hymn Book was carried by Mr. Forrest in his saddle-bags from circuit to circuit during his extensive travels, and the hymns he gave out when he preached are indicated by marks made by himself. He was intimate with Rev. Robert Strawbridge and all the early Methodists of Maryland. Dr. Ward while traveling his first circuit in 1841 visited Mr. Forrest at his home near the Strawbridge Stone Chapel in this county, and heard him relate many incidents of his itinerant career. He was then in the 89th year of his age, and had spent over 60 years in the ministry. The Hymn Book was presented to Dr. Ward by Mr. Forrest's eldest daughter, Mrs. Charity Whittle, in 1857. She died in July, 1869. Mr. Francis Shriver, of this city, we are informed saw the Hymn Book at the residence of a relative of Mr. Forrest years before it came into Dr. Ward's possession.

Other interesting relics are portraits in bronze of Rev. John Wesley, Rev. George Whitfield and Bishop Asbury. These were owned by Rev. Alexander McKain, who died in the South in 1856; and were sent to Dr. Ward in May, 1886, by Mr. McKain's grand-daughter, Mary M. Brett, then residing at Meridian, Mississippi, as a contribution to Westminster Theological Seminary.

Corner-Stone Laying.

SOME FACTS ABOUT DEER PARK CHAPEL.

The corner-stone of the new church edifice to take the place of Deer Park Chapel, which was recently torn down, was laid on Sunday afternoon, 4th inst. The services connected with the event were held at three o'clock, and were opened by the pastor, Rev. Wm. H. Lane, who announced hymn 400, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," after the singing of which he offered a fervent prayer for the blessing of God on the work and for the success of the Church. Led by Miss Fannie Buckingham, the organist, the congregation then sang hymn 658, "Work, for the Night is Coming," after which an appropriate and interesting discourse was delivered by Rev. J. T. Ward, D. D., President of Westminster Theological Seminary, from 1 Peter, 2 ch., 4-10 verses.

Following his discourse Dr. Ward exhibited some interesting relics of early Methodism, after which a collection was taken up, and the congregation sang hymn 457, "Rock of Ages." The formal ceremony of laying the corner-stone was conducted by Dr. Ward. In a cavity in the stone a tin box was placed, which contained copies of the Methodist Protestant, the church paper; the AMERICAN SENTINEL, Democratic Advocate, a Prohibition paper, the Teachers' Journal, of the M. P. Church, a number of coins and other articles. The interesting services were closed with the doxology and benediction.

The new church edifice will be built of brick, of which about 35,000 will be from the old chapel. It will be 36x48 feet and 16 feet high to the square. The seating capacity will be about three hundred. The entire cost will be about $3,000. The building committee is composed of Rev. Wm. H. Lane, the pastor, chairman; Mr. Howard T. Smith, secretary; Messrs. John W. Barber, Wm. M. Shilling, Elias N. Davis. Mr. A. W. Davis is treasurer.

Through the kindness of Mr. Howard T. Smith we were afforded an opportunity to examine the contents of the box placed in the corner-stone of the original chapel, some of which are well preserved but others mildewed and defaced. Among these contents were copies of the CARROLLTONIAN (now AMERICAN SENTINEL) of September 8th and October 27th, 1854, the Weekly Baltimore Clipper of October 14th, 1854, the Methodist Protestant, of September —, 1854, and a copy of the Holy Scriptures. There was also a silver three cent piece, deposited by Benjamin Miles, a colored man. A manuscript, containing the current facts of the period, the names of the ministers in charge, trustees, building committee, list of members, &c., was defaced and partially destroyed, so that it could be only partly deciphered. We are enabled from it, and by the aid of Mr. Howard T. Smith, to ascertain that at the corner-stone laying Rev. Wm. Reineck, superintendent of the West Baltimore Circuit, was pastor, and Rev. John M. Graybill, assistant. The trustees of the church were Messrs. Burgess Nelson, John Davis, Nicholas Dorsey, John Buckingham, George Barber, Nimrod Burgett and Rev. Wm. Reineck. The building committee was composed of George Barber, John Davis, Nimrod Burgett, John Buckingham, Rev. Wm. Reineck. The list of the membership contains the names of George Barber, Mary Barber, Sarah Caple, Margaret Caple, Ann Smith, George Smith, Rachel Chapman, Eliza Edmondson, George Blizzard, Wealthy Ann Shriner, John Buckingham, Eliza Buckingham, How. T. Smith, Jesse J. Smith, John W. Barber, Elizabeth Barber and others that cannot be deciphered. The congregation has been served since its organization by Rev. Eli Henkle, who was the first pastor; Revs. Daniel W. Bates, D. D., Wm. Reinick, R. Scott Norris, Jos. A. McFadden, Nevell S. Greenaway, John Elderdice, Abraham S. Eversoie, M. D., James Francis Whiteside, Thomas M. Bryan, Charles H. Littleton, J. H. Ellegood, Wm. T. Dumm, G. D. Edmondson, Samuel T. Ferguson, John W. Charlton, W. D. Litsinger, George R. McCready, S. N. Cassan, E. A. Warfield, J. D. Corbin, Wm. A. Crouse and Wm. H. Lane, the present pastor, beside a number of assistants. The congregation was first connected with West Baltimore Circuit, then with Finksburg, and finally Deer Park. The late Jacob Holmes was a member of the congregation and a licensed local preacher. At the time of the dedication of the chapel, in September 1855, Rev. R. Scott Norris was pastor. Revs. Josiah Varden and E. Yeates Reese participated in the dedicatory exercises and preached on the occasion.

Released and Rearrested.

John Hartman, or Frank Croger, or Frank Crogan, or whatever his name may be, who stole a sum of money from the till of Hall Brown, at Frizellburg, confessed to the larceny at the November term of court last year, and was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment in the Maryland Penitentiary, was released on Tuesday, his term, with the usual allowance for good behavior, having expired. He will be remembered as the man who, in an attempt to escape, fell from the top of the jail wall and was severely injured, and who subsequently made another attempt to break jail by by digging through the wall. He was charged with horse-stealing in Pennsylania, and detectives traced him to the jail here and anxiously desired his return to that State, but he was held until his crime in this county was expiated. The Baltimore Morning Herald says that as he stepped outside the gate of the Penitentiary "on Madison street, he was waited upon by a deputation consisting of Detective Todd Hall, and Sheriff William Gallagher, of Chester county, Pa." The Sheriff held requisition papers charging Crogan with horse-stealing, and he was promptly taken to Chester county for trial.

The teacher of the colored school at Pool's Church having reported that there were only eight pupils enrolled there and the average attendance was only four, it was ordered that the school be closed until the beginning of the next term.

Mr. Nicholas Steele, through Chas. E. Fink, his counsel, presented a petition for a school at Oakland Mills, about two miles from Oakland school, in Freedom district, representing that there are now 15 pupils at that place of the legal age but too small to travel the bad and lonely road to the Oakland school, and that there will be several more ready to attend a little later. He offered to provide a room and the necessary fuel for the school free of charge if the board would provide the desks and teacher. The request was fortified by Mr. E. Shipley, one of the trustees of Oakland school.

Jacob H. Routson, who lives in Mayberry school district, and Samuel K. Crouse, who lives in Oregon district, requested permission to send their children to Oak Grove school, which is a very small school and is nearer and more accessible to them than their own schools. The request was granted.

The following was unanimously passed:

Ordered, That the fall term of school close on Friday, November 13, and that the board meet on Tuesday, November 17, to audit the teachers' reports for the term, which must be sent to the examiner by Saturday night following the close of the term; and that the County Teachers' Association meet at the usual place and hour on Friday, November 20.

The examiner submitted his annual report for the year which ended July 31, 1891, which with his accounts for the year was referred to a special committee for examination. The report shows that during the year there were in operation 114 white and 12 colored schools, occupying 153 rooms, employing 90 male and 63 female teachers, with an enrollment of 6661 white and 464 colored pupils, of whom 3869 were boys and 3256 were girls, at a cost of $47,195.30, averaging $374.57 for each school and $6.67 for each pupil. During the preceding year there were 125 schools, occupying 150 rooms, employing 90 male and 62 female teachers, with an enrollment of 6386 white and 450 colored pupils, of whom 3584 were boys and 3252 were girls, at a cost $46,479.80, averaging $371.84 for each school and $6.80 for each pupil.

Adjourned to 17th of November next.

Our expert marksman, Mr. Clinton N. Myers, shot three sparrows at one shot last week.

Last week as Mr. John Grave, working for L. B. Hoff, was about to adjust something at the clover huller, his coat was caught by a belt and his arm was broken.

The celebration of the Sunday School held at Wentz's Schoolhouse, on Saturday last, was a very pleasant and successful affair. About 9 o'clock the school, headed by the Carroll County Reed Band, marched to the grove under the marshalship of Mr. G. H. Brown and his assistant. On the way to the grove two countermarches were made and as the school marched to their seats in the grove, the choir sang "Marching Along." The program was a lengthy one but all the pieces were well selected and executed to the credit of the performers and of Mr. H. B. Burgoon, superintendent. Thanks are due to Mr. Geo. H. Brown for the kind aid which he bestowed in calling out the program. The Carroll County Reed Band rendered excellent music. The organ, played by Misses Denny and Burgoon, also gave forth very good music. The grove was tastefully decorated by the ladies with wreaths and crosses of evergreen and beautiful flowers. A large number of small girls wore beautiful garlands on their heads. In the afternoon the school was photographed by Mr. G. Everhart, of Manchester. In the evening a festival was held for the benefit of the school. The stand took in more than $60.00. The Sunday School has nearly $20.00 in the treasury now, and all expenses paid.

Elder Samuel Utz preached an eloquent sermon at Morgan Chapel on the 4th inst.

The annual Sunday School treat at Morgan Chapel will come off on the 17th inst. Bro Lamar, the minister, and Messrs. Lewis and Shipley, superintendents, will make out the program and between the trio a good one is expected. All are invited.

Mr. Robert Barnes, teacher of the public school at Day, is getting along quite nicely with his pupils. In the start some young ladies made slight objections because "a horrid man" was to be their teacher.

While some persons are being interested in the rain theory, there are many who hardly think enough on the subject to know when to come in out of the rain. The Good Book says: "There went up a mist from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground." This was the original and only way of irrigating the soil, when Adam was "monarch of all he surveyed." To some this may look like a slow way to water the earth, but when we consider the fact that forty or fifty tons of aqueous vapor will pass out of an acre of land in one day, to be given back from the atmosphere by condensation, it does not seem so slow. The humidity of the atmosphere is not always the same; it is much greater at some times than at others. On the 21st ult. it was so great that in two hours, with a vapor condenser, a spot of land in our purched field was made too wet to cultivate. We have an improvised machine that will tell precisely the amount of water condensed in a given time. The above gives an idea of how the antediluvian world was watered. We have little doubt that the day is rapidly approaching when men will pass over the growing corn, condensing aqueous vapor on the field in rain, while hay is being cured in the field alongside.

Last Sunday was a big day at the Church of God, this place. Harvest Home services were held in the morning. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and fruit, vegetables of all kinds, and a barrel of flour were arranged about the altar. Rev. Thomas Still, of Uniontown, delivered the sermon. His text was Exodus 25th chapter, 16th verse. After the sermon Rev. Seilhamer dedicated the bell in a very appropriate style, and the services closed for the morning. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the children's meeting began, which was quite interesting. Recitations, speeches and singing constituted the program. In the meantime addresses were delivered by Messrs. Wesley Rodkey, Jesse Eckard, and Rev. Thomas Still. Another service was held at night, Rev. Thomas Still preaching from 1st Peter, 5th chapter, 4th verse. The Mite Society then directed Mr. Still to present Mr. Seilhamer, the pastor in charge, all the vegetables and the flour. The pastor responded very feelingly and thanked the Society very much for the same. There was a large attendance at each service.

David Shorb, near this place, raised an apple which weighs 1 pound and 3 ounces. He also raised a stalk of corn measuring 15 feet.

A number of members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge, I. O. O. F., met in Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday evening to form a society for the furtherance of sociability among the families and friends of the order and also to add to it a literary feature. Despite the inclement weather the attendance was good and lively interest was manifested. The committee on By-Laws, &c., made their report, which was favorably received and the constitution adopted. The lateness of the hour caused the postponement of the election of officers until Tuesday evening next, when it is expected a final organization will be effected to be known as the "Annex of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F." Provision has been made for the admission of persons not connected with the order. This is a move in the right direction and should receive the support, not only of members of the order, but of all right-thinking citizens, who would have the young ladies and gentlemen and boys and girls interest themselves in pursuits tending to promote their general advancement in education and culture.

Sunday School Celebration.

Mount Zion Union Sunday School celebration, which was held last Saturday week, was a grand success. The day was beautiful and pleasant and by 9 o'clock the school, headed by the Carroll county Reed Band, started for the grove which was about a-half mile distant. Upon reaching the grove the school occupied the seats erected for the occasion, where the general exercises of the day were held. The audience was treated to some fine music and addresses were delivered by Rev. J. A. Metzger and Rev. J. E. Kleffman, of Hanover, Pa., who used as the basis of their remarks the word "watch." Watch your words, actions, thoughts, company, and heart. The afternoon exercises consisted of choice music and addresses by A. Garrett, P. Wantz, chief Marshal; and A. Wantz, superintendent. The singing, under the leadership of Pro. T. H. Frock, was excellent, with A. Wantz organist, and Prof. E. L. Frock cornetist. The Carroll County Reed Band received much praise by everybody for the exceedingly fine marching and music, under the leadership of Capt. J. F. Shade and Prof. E. L. Frock. The people all admit they were treated to the finest music, vocal and instrumental, that they had ever heard. The number of people on the ground is estimated at about six hundred and the best order prevailed throughout.
