THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

With the shortest day of the year coming up next Thursday, I feel I must be in keeping, with the season. Mark this down as the shortest letter of the year. It will be just long enough to apologize and correct a very bad mistake from last week. All I said about the Christmas dance going to be such a grand and glorious one is true, but ah me, my pen slipped on the date. It is to be December 23, one week from to-night! That little old 3 was turned into a 9 for which right now on bended knee, I'm begging your forgiveness. Show me, that all is well, by having your smiling face at the Country Club that night. And don't forget the tea dance on New Year's Day afternoon.

The Christmas Dance of the Rock Hall Yacht Club will be held at the new Club House, Rock Hall, Md., on Thursday, December 22nd.

Many, many of the ladies of the town were minus friend husbands on Monday night when "Doc" Brinsfield entertained some 60 guests at a stag party held at the Corey farm near Fairlee. The occasion marked the birthday of that august gentleman, who was presented with a lovely golf bag by his numerous friends.

Another birthday party was held on Wednesday, December 13, when little Sally Moyer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Moyer, celebrated her 5th birthday with a dinner party to 20 of her little friends. Following dinner, a moving picture show was given in their home.

The marriage of Miss Mary Scott and Mr. Frank Schroder will take place on Saturday, December 23rd. Miss Scott has been a frequent visitor here at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret McIntire.

Mrs. Charles B. Whaland will entertain on Tuesday evening at her home on Water St., in honor of her brother, Mr. George Brice, his daughter, Miss Virginia Brice and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fowler of Far Hill, N. J. Mr. Brice, Miss Brice and Mr. and Mrs. Fowler are all house guests of Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper. During their visit here in addition to much hunting, they will be entertained at various informal parties.

Comes a-creeping to my ears, rumors of a wedding to take place the last of this month. A secret and yet not a secret but I can't get a confirmation of the rumor from just the right parties. But it is not in "hot water" that I wish to land, so I better sign off on the topic. See if you can get the details for me, for surely you know.

To-night, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Atwater will entertain at bridge in honor of their house guests, Mrs. Charles Doak and her daughter, Miss Beatrice Doak, of Germantown, Pa.

Mrs. Harry B. Cannon has issued cards for a luncheon bridge to be held on Wednesday, at her home on Water St.

Mrs. J. M. Hazzard, of New York City came on Thursday to remain as a guest of her sister-jn-law, Mrs. Hiriam S. Brown at Godlington Manor for several weeks. Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown will leave on Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, Jr., over Christmas and the month of January.

Mr. Duke Brown of New York, was a guest of his mother, this week.

Postmaster William B. Usilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, III, will spend Christmas in Alexandria, Va., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellington. Mrs. Usilton who has spent the past few weeks with her son-in-law and daughter will return with her husband immediately after Christmas Day.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellington will be christened William Porter Ellington, Jr., in January.

Miss Helen Simpers has accepted a secretarial position with the U. S. Steel Co. in New York and will assume her duties there, January 2.

You are busy, I am busy too. 'Tis not the season for long-time chatter. So you go your way, I'll go mine, and after the rush, we'll get together in a long session.

Yours anticipating,

The Wanderer
