The remains of Ulysses A. Ebaugh, only son of Mr. Frank A. Ebaugh, of Baltimore, were interred in Hampstead on Tuesday last. We have learned no particulars in regard to his death. He was in the twenty-eighth year of his age, and an excellent young man.

Several days ago Mr. David Geiman, son of Mr. Jeremiah Geiman, of Cranberry Valley, cut a severe gash in the side of his left knee with an axe with which he was trimming a slab. Dr. E. D. Wells, of this city, sewed up the wound.

A car freighted with turkeys passed over the Western Maryland Railroad to Baltimore on Monday last. There were eleven hundred of the fowls, which were under the charge of a keeper who occupied the car with them and supplied them with food and water. They were from Southwestern Virginia.

The author of the original essay on "Our Country," published on the first page of the SENTINEL this week, is a son of Mr. George M. Prugh, of Freedom. He is now a student at the Maryland Agricultural College. The essay is remarkably well written, considering that its author is yet in his teens,

We are indebted to Mr. J. Grattan Doyle, florist, East Green street, this city, for specimens of three varieties of celery grown by him, which deserve special commendation. They are new varieties produced by H. A. Dreer, of Philadelphia, namely, Dreer's Golden Standard, Joint Percale and Heartwell. They are all excellent and the Golden Standard is fit for use in about two months after planting.

For several weeks past a magnificent white chrysantheum, in one of the parlor windows at the residence of State Senator Bennett, in this city, has attracted much attention for its symmetry and the beauty and profusiou of its flowers. More than a hundred people have called at the Senator's to see it. It was exhibited at the recent chrysanthemum show in Baltimore, and received the first premium over the many handsome flowers in competition with it. It was presented to Mrs. Bennett by Mr. David Cowen, of Baltimore.

The annual meeting of the Association of Maryland School Examiners was held at the State Normal School in Baltimore this week. Among the business transacted was the appointment of a committee to lay before the Legislature a suggestion that the direct tax of $371,000 levied on this State by the General Government in 1861, to be refunded under the act of 1891, be applied to the establishment and support of public school libraries. Prof. James A. Diffenbaugh, of this city, is chairman of the legislative committee.

Meagre reports from the terrible earthquake at Nagoya, Japan, have caused great anxitety concerning the Methodist Protestant Mission in that city. Rev. E. H. Van Dyke and wife were either killed or seriously injured and one, or more, of the buildings connected with the Mission School was wrecked. Rev. F. C. Klein and wife, Rev. L. L. Albright and wife and Miss Tsune Hirata, who graduated at Western Maryland College last year, are connected with the Mission. No letter has been received from any of the missionaries.

Mr. L. M. Gorsuch, a wealthy and prominent citizen of Frostburg, was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday last, and when last heard from was in a precarious condition. Mr. Gorsuch is a native of this county and a brother of Mr. N. I. Gorsuch, of this city, who was promptly called to his bedside. Mrs. N. I. Gorsuch and Mrs. Col. S. K. Herr are also with him. Mr. Gorsuch has many friends in this community who deeply regret his serious illness.

Mr. C. M. Hess left at this office, a few days ago, a specimen of the molasses manufactured at his factory, near Sterner's Mill, in Taneytown district, which we find to be an excellent article, either for table use or baking. In color it is much like New Orleans molasses, but we consider it decidedly superior in flavor and quality to that product. We trust Mr. Hess' experiment will prove a marked success and that his enterprise may be the means of introducing a new and profitable industry among the farmers of this county. The entire product of his factory this season was 1251 gallons.

We regret to learn, through the medium of a letter from Washington, that our old friend Mr. W. O. Shaw, formerly of Uniontown, master pattern maker in the Navy yard, was seriously injured during the storm of Monday last. He was struck by a flying window, in his shop, and in attempting to ward off the blow had his left wrist terribly lacerated, almost cutting off the hand. He was attended at the dispensatory of the Navy Yard by Dr. Frank Wood and it is hoped the injuries sustained may not leave any permanent effect. The writer of the letter from which this information is obtained is the clerk in Mr. Shaw's office. He adds that much damage was done by the storm to buildings in the Navy Yard.

On Saturday last Mr. Robert Garrett, Judge Hugh L. Bond, Judge J. Upshur Dennis, Ex-Judge Pere L. Wickes and Dr. H. B. Ex-Judge Wm. P. Maulsby and State's Attorney D. N. Henning were also of the party at dinner. The visitors remained in this city during Saturday night, occupying the car, which was attached to the fast mail train on Sunday morning and taken to Hagerstown. Judge James A. C. Bond accompanied his visitors on the trip, and went with them to the battlefield of Gettysburg on Monday. The party returned to Baltimore Monday afternoon. Mr. Garrett and Judge Dennis were classmates of Judge Bond at Princeton College.

For the SENTINEL.

A Social Gathering.

A delightful evening was spent by a company of our young friends at the residence of Mr. O. T. Snader, of Sams Creek, Wednesday evening, 18th inst. Much credit is due to Misses Ida and Olive for their hospitality, and their taste in preparing for the occasion. About 11 o'clock refreshments were served to which each did ample justice, especially to Miss Olive's peanut crop.

Those present were: Misses Annie Chick, of Baltimore County; Florence Barnes, and Florence Englar, of New Windsor; Leah Ensor, Oak Orchard; Mollie Lindsay, Anna Cover, Etta Snader and Effie Devilbiss, of Sams Creek; Messrs Clarence Ensor, Carville Nicodemus, Grant Devilbiss, Addie Lindsay, John Cover and Ellsworth Englar.

Thanksgiving at New Windsor.

President Jelly, who presided, made an address, as did also Professors E. H. Moyer and P. C. Mensch and Messrs. George H. Broening, Loyal Y. Graham, Wm. M. Schall, of Philadelphia; John A. Brown, of Iowa; Hugh H. Owen, Maryland; H. A. Hanrahan, of Viginia, H. B. Blackford, of Washington city. Dr. J. F. Buffington dropped in at the close of the dinner and upon being loudl y called for made a very humorous speech. The company then rose and joined in singing the long metre doxology, led by Miss Mabel Roberts, the college organist, and the benediction was pronounced by President Jelly.

The ladies of the church are holding a festival, which will continue to-night.

Starr-Grimes Telescope.

An interesting ceremony occurred on the grounds of Western Maryland College on Friday afternoon last, after last week's addition of the SENTINEL had been put to press. The event referred to was the dedication of a building erected for the present uses of the new telescope, of the reception of which mention was made in "College Notes," published in these columns several weeks ago. The location of the building is admirably adapted to the purpose for which it was designed, and the telescope, which is a magnificent instrument, the objective being five inches in diameter, the size generally employed in college observatories, has a full sweep of the heavens. It is "mounted equatorially and is supplied with a driving clock of the latest pattern." As heretofore stated it was the gift of Messrs. Wm. H. Starr and E. O. Grimes, of this city, who must be sincerely gratified with the consummation of their generosity. The building in which it is mounted lies north of Smith Hall in the direction of the Seminary. At its dedication short speeches were made by Dr. J. W. Hering, Dr. J. W. Reese, Acting President of the College; Mr. T. M. Johnson, of the senior class, and Prof. W. R. McDaniel. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Ward, President of the Seminary, and a hymn was sung by the Glee Club.

Almost a Hurricane.

About 1 o'clock Monday afternoon a storm of unusual violence passed over this county. It was of short duration, but did considerable damage, the wind reaching almost the velocity of a hurricane. Rain poured in torrents and there were some electrical manifestations, giving it the character of a thunder storm. A southerly wind had been blowing and the temperature was almost summerlike. The storm, passing in a northeasterly direction, struck the creamery at Wakefield and gave it a wrench, moving it a foot or more. The upper portion of the creamery is used as a dwelling and the occupants were naturally greatly alarmed by the danger of its collapse.

At Uniontown the smokestack of Messrs. G. & L. Hoffman's tannery was blown down to within four or five feet of the top of the building. It fell on the tannery scales, demolishing them. A locust tree in front of the parsonage of the M. P. Church, in the same place, was blown down. All along the course of the storm fencing, trees, hay and grain stacks were blown down and in some instances buildings unroofed.

At Tannery a wind pump was blown down and in the same vicinity, part of the roof of Mr. Lewis Green's barn was blown off. Mr. Green's fences suffered severely. Portions of the barns of Mr. Elias Reed, at Carrollton, and of Mr. Neudecker, near Carrollton Station, were unroofed, and the roof of the dwelling of a Mr. Brown, near the village of Mexico, was blown off. The hay and grain stacks of Mr. Jehu Royer, of Meadow Branch, were generally prostrated.

The public schoolhouse at Mayberry was so much damaged that the school had to be closed until repairs are made. The top of Mr. Israel Derr's wagon was broken while he was driving from Westminster to Frizellburg.

In this city some windows were broken and limbs torn from trees but no serious damage inflicted.

Four large apple trees were blown down in the orchard of Mrs. Knight, near Warfieldsburg.

The storm seems to have been widespread, extending west to the Alleganies and from the Virginias to New England. Great damage was inflicted upon property at Cumberland. At Hanover, Pa., a large wagon factory was blown down, killing Howard D. Carbaugh, and injuring seven or eight other persons, some of them severely. The loss occasioned by the accident was $25,000 to $30,000. The works were owned by Mr. Charles P. Ketterer, of New York, who was not insured against damage by storm.

Much damage was done to property in Baltimore, and in fact wherever the storm extended.

The County Commissioners were in session on Monday and Tuesday last. Among their proceedings was the appointment of Hon. James A. C. Bond as counsel to the Board for the ensuing year. Jefferson Ryne, of district No. 9, was granted a special pension of $5. The report of the examiners in the case of the road petitioned for by Messrs. Noah C. Wentz and others, in Westminster district, was ratified and confirmed.

Wedding Bells.

RING—DENLINGER.

A quiet and simple but very interesting home wedding occurred at the residence of Prof. David Denlinger, principal of Irving Institute, Manchester, on Thursday—Thanksgiving Day—at 10 o'clock, A. M. Only the members of the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. The bride was Prof. Denlinger's daughter, Miss A. Irene Delinger, and the groom Mr. R. H. Ring, son of Mr. Dennis Ring, of St. Denis, Baltimore county. The bride's wedding dress was gray chevron stripe, tastefully made, with neck decoration of chiffon, and she carried Marechal Neil roses. Her traveling dress was dark green broadcloth, with hat to match and tan suede gloves. The happy pair were unattended as they stood before the man of God to pledge their nuptial vows. The marriage ceremony was performed, according to the beautiful Methodist Episcopal service, by Rev. Osborne Belt, of the Hampsted M. E. Church. The bridal presents were various and handsome.

SHAW—LA MOTTE.

Probably the most brilliant and beautiful public wedding ever witnessed in Manchester occurred at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, in that place, at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day, 26th inst. The church was profusely and beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers—chrysanthemums—for the occasion and in honor of the bride. A special and conspicuous feature of the decorations was a large arch, trimmed with laurel, to which were attached gates, covered with white chrysanthemums. From the centre of the arch the initials of the groom and bride, wrought with pink flowers, were suspended. The bride was Miss Jennie La Motte, daughter of Mr. John H. La Motte, of Manchester, and the groom Mr. Breck Shaw, of Frederick, son of Mr. George M. Shaw, of Frederick county. The bride's dress was fawn colored Bedford cord, with feather trimmings, and hat and gloves to match. She carried a boquet of Marechal Neil roses. The ushers were: Messrs. John C. B. La Motte, Harry T. J. La Motte, brothers of the bride; Harry M. Smith, Lawrence Benford, of Manchester; Charles Duvall, of Frederick, and Albert Menges, of Spring Grove. Miss Grace Stonesifer, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and Master Erie La Motte, nephew of the bride, page. The bridal party entered the church and advanced to the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered on the organ by Mrs. Jeannette M. Wyand. The floral gates stood open to admit the happy pair to the paradise of married life, and there they met God's minister, in the person of Rev. Charles M. Eyster, pastor of the church, who performed the marriage ceremony and spoke the fateful words that made them one. It was a beautiful scene and the church was filled with deeply interested spectators of the pleasant event. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home until 5 o'clock and at 5.35 Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left for a bridal trip to Washington and points in the South. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable.

STANSBURY—HANLEY.

Miss Maggie R. Hanley, of Emmittsburg, and Mr. George W. Stansbury, of this city, were married at 4.30, P. M., Thanksgiving day, at the parsonage of St. John's Catholic Church, in this city. Miss Blanche Whitmore, of this city, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Wm. Eckert, of this city, groomsman. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Theodore D. Meade, of Taneytown. The bridal party went to the church from the residence of Mrs. Jane R. Butler, West Main street. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stansbury took the 5.39 train west for a bridal trip to Hagerstown and elsewhere.

Judge Roberts Sworn In—Other Commissions Received.

At 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon last Hon. Charles B. Roberts took the oath of office and became Associate Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Maryland. The oath was administered by Mr. B. F. Crouse, Clerk of the Circuit Court. A number of gentlemen, who were present accidentally, witnessed the event with interest and heartily congratulated the new judge upon his induction into the important office. Judge Roberts' first judicial act was the appending of his signature to an order, presented by Harry M. Clabaugh, Esq., for the ratification of a sale.

Commissions have been received for the other officers eject for Carroll county, as follows: Clerk of the Circuit Court—Benjamin F. Crouse; Register of Wills—George M. Parke; Judges of the Orphans' Court—David H. Hoffacker, Lewis Cash, Albert Schaeffer; County Commissioners—David Stoner, Hezekiah Hahn, Joshua F. Caltrider; Sheriff—Albert A. Dorsey; County Treasurer—Charles Brilhart; County Surveyor—M. Theodore Yeiser.

It is understood that Mr. Crouse and Mr. Dorsey will qualify as clerk and sheriff, respectively, December 1st. The County Commissioners elect will not qualify until about December 9th. The old Board will meet on Monday, December 7th, and continue in session until Wednesday, when an inventory of county property will be taken and its custody formally transferred to the new Board. County Treasurer Brilhart will enter upon the duties of his new term at the same time. It is supposed the Judges elect of the Orphans' Court will not qualify until the opening of the December term, which will commence on the 14th. Register of Wills elect Parke will probably take the oath of office for his second term on the 7th of December. The State's Attorney is an officer of the court and does not receive a commission from the Governor. Charles E. Fink, Esq., who has been elected to that office in this county, will assume its duties about January 1st, 1892. We presume the Surveyor elect will take the oath of office at his convenience.

The union thanksgiving service at St. Paul's Reformed Church, on Thursday morning, was largely attended. The sermon on the occasion was delivered by Rev. G. W. Cooper, of Centenary M. E. Church. The other ministers present and participating in the service were: Rev. Dr. J. T. Ward, President of Westminster Theological Seminary; Rev. Dr. J. L. Mills, of the Methodist Protestant Church; Rev. P. H. Miller, of Grace Lutheran Church; Rev. C. S. Slagle, of St. Paul's Reformed Church, and Rev. J. U. Asper.

The Westminster Dramatic Club in Frederick.

The Frederick Daily News, of Saturday last, gave quite a lengthy account of the dramatic performance of the Westminster Amateur Club in that city, the previous evening, for the benefit of the Francis Scott Key Monument Fund. Following is an extract from the News' article: "The Dramatic Club, which is under the management of Mr. C. V. Dugan, with Mr. W. R. C. Neale as stage manager, opened their program with Mr. J. M. Morton's amusing English farce "Betsey Baker," in which a wife, who complains that her husband is "too attentive by half," is cured of the idea by the effort of her cousin to arouse her jealously. Mr. W. R. C. Neale appeared as "Marmaduke Mouser," Mr. Arthur F. Smith, as "Mr. Crummy," Miss Pauline Trumbo, as "Mrs. Mouser," and Miss Elizabeth Key Irwin as "Betsey Baker, laundress." The regular scenery of the Opera House was used and the young ladies and gentlemen were appropriately costumed. The quiet humor of the peace was skilfully brought out by the performers and the audience greatly enjoyed the meritorious manner in which the performers acquitted themselves. In presenting another English play, H. T. Craven's popular comedy-drama--"Meg's Diversion"—the characters were cast as follows: Jeremiah Crow, a Devonshire farmer, Mr. B. Frank Crouse; Ashley Merton, Esq., of the Hall, Mr. W. Reynolds C. Neale; Jasper Pidgeon, a village carpenter, Mr. C. Vincent Dugan; Roland Pidgeon, his brother, Mr. Arthur F. Smith; Eytem, an Exeter lawyer, Mr. R. Abner Parke; Cornelia, Margaret or Meg, Daughters of Crow, Misses Pauline Trumbo and Margaret Baumgartner; Mrs. Netwell, of the Grange, a widow, Miss Elizabeth Key Irwin. The two acts of the play were laid, respectively, in the parlor of Jeremy Crow's house and in a garden on his farm, in the latter scene being realized Calderon's famous picture "Broken Vows." Meg's diversion was to make love to Jasper Pidgeon in order that her sister's and father's scheme of obtaining money from him could be carried out, but she finds that making love is a very serious matter and playing a hypocritical part another serious matter. She repents of the latter, falls in love in earnest, first with Jasper, then with Jasper's brother, then with Jasper again, until finally her own and her sister's love affairs are straightened out and all the broken hearts are made whole. It is an old fashioned, well written play, full of fine humor and apt morals and the young ladies and gentleman last night displayed great skill in unraveling the intricacies of the sometimes amusing and sometimes pathetic plot. The young ladies and gentlemen of the club are members of society circles in Westminster and while here some of them were guests of friends, while others registered at the City Hotel. Mrs Wm. Vanderford accompanied the party as chaperone and others who came from Westminster were, Miss Mamie Irwin, Miss Nancy Roberts, Misses Gussie and Bettie Shriver, Messrs. Percy Shriver, James M. Shellman and Thos. B. Miller. A number of them returned to Westminster this morning, others remained in order to attend the pantomime to be given at the home of Miss Grace Ely this evening. Upon the whole, the entertainment was a pleasant and memorable social, musical and dramatic treat and the gross sum realized for the monument was $116.85."

The program for the entertainment was in quarto form, handsomely embellished and neatly printed. On the second page appeared the names of the officers of the Monument Association, as follows: Col. Charles E. Trail, President; Dr. Fairfax Schley, Vice-President; Gen. John A. Steiner, Secretary; Lewis A. Rice, Corresponding Secretary, and Col. John B. Thomas, Treasurer. The music for the occasion was by the Estey Philharmonic Orchestra, of Frederick, under the conduct of Prof. Bion Firestone.

On Sunday last Miss Lizzie Deinst died at the home of her parents, a mile east of town, at the age of 16 years. She was of delicate constitution and for the last year had been in ill health. A few weeks ago she contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia and baffled all medical skill. She was a gentle, unassuming young lady and was endeared to a large circle of friends. Her remains were interred in the U. B. Cemetery on Tuesday morning, Rev. J. P. Anthony officiating. The U. B. Sunday School attended the funeral in a body.

On Wednesday the friends of Mrs. Savilla Krantz here were notified of her death, which occurred at half-past seven on the morning of that day at her home on George street, Baltimore. She had reached the age of 81 years. Mrs. Krantz was born in this district on the old Everhart homestead, now belonging to the Chestnut Hill Iron Ore Co., and was a resident of our town for many years. She was the mother of eleven children, all of whom are living but one son, Ashton A. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world several years ago. Her death leaves but two of the Everhart family, Mrs. Rachel Shower and Mr. John Everhart, both of our town. She was buried on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. John H. Lamotte had several falls last week, brought about by vertigo, in one of which he bruised his head and face.

The "Annex" will give their entertainment on this, Thursday, and on Saturday evenings.

Mr. Wm. F. Lucabaugh is again confined to his home by sicknesss.

Lebanon Lodge No. 175, A. F. & A. M., intend holding an oyster supper on Friday evening, December 4th.

A few days ago Theodore, the seven-year-old son of Mr. George W. Miller, had his leg caught in the wheel of a wagon, which was in motion, and broken just below the knee. The little fellow was attended by Dr. Jacob Rinehart, of Frizellburg, who adjusted the fracture. No permanent injury is apprehended.

The communion service held here by Rev. Jno. G. Noss, pastor of the Silver Run charge of the Reformed Church, on the 15th inst., was more largely attended than on any previous similar occasion.

The storm on Monday last was pretty severe here, but did no serious damage to property, beyond blowing down fences.

Mr. J. J. Baumgartner, of this city, has been reappointed Auditor of the Court by Judge Roberts.

Carroll County Teachers' Association.

The Carroll County Teachers' Association convened in Central Hall Schoolhouse on Friday, 20th inst., and was called to order by President Shipley at 10.30, A. M. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. Tolly Marsh. Singing, "God save our native land," by the Association was followed by roll-call. Never, we venture to say, has the attendance been larger, the weather and roads having been propitious.

The minutes of last meeting of the Association were read and adopted.

The program prepared and most enjoyably rendered was as follows: Essay, "The mind," J. Albert Angell; vocal solo, "Madeleine," Miss Grace Hockensmith; essay, Digressions on the agency of water," written by Miss Minta Shipley, read by Miss Margaret A. Lockard; remarks, with illustrations, "How to employ primary pupils, "Miss Mattie Gilliss; vocal duet, "Listen, 'tis the woodbirds' song," Misses Josephine and Hilda Crass; essay, "Every cloud has a silver lining," Miss Nettie Lambert; vocal solo, "Happy Birds," Miss Grace Hockensmith. A mathematical problem, submitted at last meeting of the Association, was demonstrated by A. S. Morelock and remarks on same made by Messrs. Morelock, Williams and Hess.

The annual examination for promotion of pupils gave rise to considerable discussion which was participated in by Messrs. Tipton, Ebaugh, Hess, Switzer and Mrs. M. R. Forney. The Examiner, Prof. James A. Diffenbaugh, spoke at some length on various topics and paid a touching tribute to the memory of Mr. John C. Nutting, the announcement of whose death converted a day of enjoyment into one of great sadness. Mr. A. H. Diffenbaugh also spoke with deep feeling relative to the loss sustained by the Association by Mr. Nutting's death. A committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions which were adopted. The amendment to the resolutions was due to the suggestion of Mr. A. H. Diffenbaugh, it not being customary for the Association to assume a badge of mourning for deceased members.

The session closed with the hymn, "Work for the night is coming," by the As ociation, Miss Ida Lockard presiding at the organ.

Following are the resolutions adopted by the Association on the death of John C. Nutting:

WHEREAS, In the good providence of God, our venerable and beloved fellow-worker, John C. Nutting, after nearly forty year's active service as a teacher, has been called from labor to rest:

Resolved, That in his death this Association has lost one of its most valued and useful members, and the public school system one of its most faithful and devoted servants.

Resolved, That we commend as worthy of all imitation his studious habits, his modest and manly demeanor, the gentleness and purity of his life, and the conscientious earnestness with which he discharged every duty.

Resolved, That this expression of our regard be published with our proceedings and a copy be sent to his family.

Amended, The members of this Association wear the usual badge of mourning for a period of ten days.

CHAS. W. OTTO,

For the SENTINEL.

District Lodge No. 1 I. O. G. T.

Saturday, November 21, was "Red Letter" day for the Temperance people of Carroll county. According to previous announcement, District Lodge No. 1, comprising the Lodges of Montgomery, Frederick and Carroll counties, met in the Hall of Enterpise Lodge, at Daniel, Carroll county. The delegates began to arrive very early in the morning, and by noon nearly every Lodge in the District was represented. Dinner was served in the lower room of the Odd Fellows. The following District Officers were present: D. C. T., David S. Rice; D. V. T., Cora Wolfe; District Secretary, Ida Shipley; Assistant Secretary, F. I. Lewis; D. Marshal, M. Reddick; D. Sentinel, J. Fowler; P. D. T., C. J. Burdette. Nineteen candidates received the District degree. Besides delegates present, were: G. V. T., Miss Mima Hobbs; G. S. J. T., Miss Alice E. Walker; G. C., T. Maxwell; G. T., E. K. Brown; G. Chap., J. L. Eames; also Prof. G. W. Walker, D. C. T., of District Lodge No. 3 and Bro. Galther, visitors from Ellicott City and Poplar Springs Lodges. The great interest taken was shown by the distances driven by some of the delegates. Rockville, Browningsville and Olney were represented; also Claggettsville, Purity of Frederick, Gaithersburg, Freedom, Woodbine and many others. The Lodge held two sessions during the day, adjourning at 5, P. M. We echo the words of our grand officers: "It was the most pleasant District meeting we ever attended."

At night the regular meeting of Enterprise Lodge No. 275, I. O. G. T., was held, with D. C. T., D. S. Rice, presiding. In addition to the usual program, addresses were made by Bros. Maxwell, Eames, Brown, M. U. Penn and sisters Cora Wolfe, Brooks, Magruder and others. Miss Emma Woodward sang a beautiful solo entitled "The Drunkard's Doom." J. C. L. Storm, of Frederick, read an intensely interesting comical piece. Near the close of the meeting D. C. T., D. S. Rice, presented a gold pin—the gift of G. C. T., Frank L. Morling—to Miss Lucy Davis, for her earnest efforts in securing the largest number of members last term. The prize is a handsome Good Templar pin. Visitors were present during the evening from Baltimore, Frederick, Olney, and Poplar Springs. This meeting was one of the never to be forgotten events in the minds of all who were present.

Each Good Templar present was encouraged to keep on in the good way. With the singing of "God be with you till we meet again," closed the grandest meeting since the existence of Enterprize Lodge.

The threatening weather of Sunday and Monday cleared up at noon on Monday with one of the most severe rain and wind storms that some of us ever witnessed. The wind just swept trees, fences, both worm and post and rail, in places, blew off stack tops, razed open sheds, &c. It was terrific for a few minutes. The course of the storm here was northwest.

Corn husking and fall plowing are still the busy work of the farmers.

Mrs. Francis Shipley, who has been so seriously ill, is now convalescing under the skillful treatment of Dr. D. F. Shipley, of Westminster.

Miss Minnie Easton is nearly well again.

Mr. Peter Hamilton has bought of Mrs. Lizzie Johnston a building lot on Church street for $100.

Rev. H. Ditzler, pastor of Grace Reformed Church, having recently received a call from a charge in Pennsylvania, placed his resignation in the hands of the Consistory. The Consistory unanimously opposed its acceptance and he has decided to withdraw it and remain here. His action is very gratifying to the congregation.

It is a custom of the Protestant congregations here to hold a union service in one of their churches, in rotation, every four weeks. The last meeting was held on Sunday evening last in the Reformed Church. The subject was the "Ten Virgins," which was disscussed by Revs. G. W. McSherry, P. Rioseco, H. Ditzler and Dr. C. Birnie.

A Literary Society has been organized here which meets at the homes of the members. Last Monday evening they enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. H. D. Mehring. Woman Suffrage was the subject of the evening's discussion. After it had been carefully considered and discussed, pro and con, a vote was taken which gave a majority of one in favor of the affirmative.

Robbers entered the store and postoffice at Piney Creek Station, conducted by the Misses Schue, on Tuesday night last, and took the entire supply of postage stamps on hand and all the letters in the office, besides five dollars in money and some tobacco. Thomas Harrison and Charles Gray have been arrested at Frederick and committed for the action of the Carroll county authorities, on suspicion of being the burglars.

Washington Camp, P. O. S. of A., proposes to give a series of entertainments this winter for the amusement and pleasure of the public. The first will be a humorous lecture to be delivered by Rev. J. D. Peters, of Hanover, Pa., on the evening of December 10th. The subject will be, "Witty, Wise and Otherwise." It is unnecessary to comment upon the ability af the lecturer, as the favorable impression he made upon the community by the memorial address, which he delivered here on the 30th of May last, is sufficient to insure him a large and intelligent audience. The lecture will be in Eckenrode's Hall. A small admission will be charged. Reserved seat tickets can be secured at the postoffice.

A portion of the old plank road west of town, near the Frederick county line, was in such bad condition that the farmers could not haul a full load over it. The supervisor having it in charge said there was no money in hand to spend on it. So some fifteen or twenty farmers from the Frederick county side, who haul their produce over the road to market, came over with their teams and hauled stones and gravel and repaired and put it in first-class condition. Now, while Carroll county can boast of the lowest tax rate in the State, Taneytown district can boast a good road made by Frederick county farmers.

Harney Items.

A very terrific thunder storm passed over this section last Monday about noon. The wind blew with great violence and a regular cyclone passed near this place, nearly on the track of the one which passed here in August of 1890. A barn was unroofed for Wm. Snider; Spangler's school house, in Pa., near here, was unroofed and part of the wall blown down, the brick and ceiling all falling on the floor. Fortunately there was no school at the time, the County Institute having been in session, and the schools through the county were closed. Harry Shriver's brick house, situated between here and Gettysburg, was partly blown down. A great many trees and fences were blown down.

A fine pavement has been laid in front of the Lutheran Church, and a board walk down through the town.
