Temperature Extremes.

In Werchojansk, East Siberia, the coldest place known on earth, the temperature ranges in January from 24 to 80 deg. below zero, and in July from 40 to 75 deg. above, the mean for December, January and February being 55 deg. below zero. The climatic conditions, says Dr. W. J. Van Bebber, are very high atmospheric prsssure in winter, with calm air and a clear cky—conditions which favor radiation.

A search for the hottest region shows that the belt of the highest temperature passes through Southeastern Asia, the interior of North Africa, Arizonia and the centre of Australia. The characteristic climatic feature of this tropic belt is a high and equable temperature with dense humidity of the atmosphere.

The highest annual mean temperature known is on the southern coast of the Red Sea. The range of the mean temperature at Massowah is from 78 to 97 deg. in January and February to 95 to 96 deg. in July and August, with an annual mean of 96 deg., and a daily variation of 10 to 12 deg. These figures do not appear excessive, the highest mean temperature is occasionally exceeded in other regions, but the continuous, nearly uniform, high temperature renders it almost unendurable for Europeans.

A Collection of Scalps.

The National museum has a very large collection of scalps, and it is wonderful to think what tragic tales they would have to tell if they could only speak. One of them is a crown of real golden hair with a circle of skin attached reft from the head of a little German girl at the Mountain Meadows massacre. In spots it is stained with the victim's blood—a pitiful reminder. Of the same party of honest pioneers may have been the man from whose caput a shock of black and curly locks was torn; it forms a part of the exhibit.

There are many other scalps of white people and Indians—the former mostly curly and readily distinguishable from the straight black hair of the aborigines. The long tresses of women, blond and brunette, suggest to the mind imaginings none too fearful of tragedies, with outrage and torture as a preliminary. A single warrior's trophy bears pendent twelve scalps, each representing a murder.

Japan's Volcano Made Lakes.

In July, 1888, came the terrible explosion in Japan which blew the mountain of Bandal San into the air, killing many people, while the fragments of the shattered mountain falling into the rivers dammed them so completely that three large lakes were formed. The agricultural land was ruined by the ashes and lava that covered it. The great calamity seems to be providing its own compensation, for most of the men of that district have turned their attention to fishing in the three new lakes, which are said to teem with fish of various kinds. They are thus beginning to recoup themselves in a measure for the loss they sustained by the eruption.

The Queues May Go.

Dr. Haslet, a missionary to China, writes from Shanghai under recent date that he regards a great revolution in China as inevitable. The overthrow of the reigning Mautchou dynasty is the object of the present agitations in that country, he says, and he notes the curious fact that with that dynasty are likely to go the queues that Chinaman so religiously wear. The queu dates from the accession of the Mantchous, several hundred years ago, who decreed its adoption by the people, so that, so far from its having the religions significance that most Chinamen attach to it, it is merely a badge of subjection to the reigning house in China.

For a good every day household angel give us a woman who laughs. Her biscuit may not be always just right, and she may occasionally burn her bread and forget to replace dislocated buttons, but for solid comfort all day and every day she is a paragon. Home is not a battlefield, nor life one long, unending row. The trick of always seeing the bright side, of shining up the dark one, is a very important faculty, one of the things no woman should be without. We are not all born with the sunshine in our hearts, as the Irish prettily phrase it; but we can cultivate a cheerful sense of humor if we only try.

Don't be a chronic borrower. If you haven't got tools, do without them till you can buy, and keep your self-respect and the respect of your friends.

By not pasturing the clover after the first crop is cut, either a second yield of hay, a profitable crop of seed or a good growth to plow under can be secured.

People who look down are always [trying] to pull somebody else down.

FARMERS!

Lend Us Your Ears.

It is an indisputable fact that the

HOME MANUFACTURE

of Fertilizer in this county has reduced the cost of it to the farmer from

Three to Five Dollars Per Ton

and saved to them

Thousands of Dollars,

Therefore, is it not wisdom on your part to encourage us while we are trying to save you money, and bring you nearer to the manufacturer? We desire to deal as directly with you as possible, thereby saving to you all extra commissions. We therefore invite all farmers, farmers' clubs and grange organizations to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. We manufacture all of our own brands of goods and guarantee them as represented. They are drier, have less acid and moisture than the usual city mixture and will drill perfectly. We guarantee them free from shoddy or any inactive material, and will

Guarantee them under Forfeiture of the Purchaser's Bill to produce as good results in a crop contest as any other for the same money, and challenge competition. We are having reports of from 38 to 44 bushels per acre having been raised this year, from the use of our Phosphate. Besides the above guarantee we are offering to wheat growers using our grades, as follows: $10 for the largest yield per acre on one acre or more.

$30 for the largest yield per acre on five acres or more.

$60 for the largest yield per acre on ten acres or more.

See circulars for further description.

Our premiums last year were won by David Cover, of Winfield, and R. F. Cook, of Warfieldsburg.

The Biggest Yield of Wheat in Carroll County.

The following letter from Mr. Jno. H. Stem, one of the most reputable farmers in the county, is submitted for the benefit of our patrons and all those interested:

WINFIELD, MD., JULY 23RD, 1891.

H. S. ROBERTS & Co.—SIRS:—I threshed yesterday from a scant nine acre field, sowed with 300lbs. to the acre of your "BIG GUN AND PRIDE FERTILIZERS," 380 BUSHELS OF WHEAT, averaging about 42¼ BUSHELS TO THE ACRE. I sowed 1¼ bushels of seed to the acre. These are facts that it seems to me the people ought to know. If any one doubts it, I am willing to substantiate it with my oath, and other proof if necessary.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

ILLUSTRATED.

The Magazine will celebrate the fourth Centenary of the Discovery of America by its rediscovery, through articles giving a more thorough exposition than has hitherto been made of the recent Unprecedented Development of our Country, and especially in the great West. Particular attention will also be given to Dramatic Episodes of American History.

The field of the next European War will be described in a series of Papers on the Danube "From the Black Forest to the Black Sea," by Poultney Bigelow and F. D. Millet, illustrated by Mr. Millet and Alfred Parsons. Articles also will be given on the German, Austrian, and Italian Armies, illustrated by T. de Thulstrup.

Mr. W. D. Howells will contribute a new novel, "A World of Chance," characteristically American. Especial prominence will be given to the short stories, which will be contributed by T. B. Aldrich, R. H. Davis, A. Conan Doyle, Margaret Deland, Miss Wooison, and other popular writers.

Among the literary features will be Personal Reminiscences of Nathanial Hawthorne, by his college class mate and life-long friend, Horatio Bridge, and a Personal Memoir of the Brownings, by Anne Thackeray Ritchie.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY for the coming year will contain more attractive features, more and finer illustrations, and a greater number of articles of live, intense interest than will be found in any other periodical. Among these latter will be a series of articles on the twenty five greatest cities of the world, including five hundred illustrations. The Columbian Exposition, the Army and Navy, great public events, disasters on land and sea, and the doings of the celebrated people of the day will be described and illustrated in an attractive and timely manner. The Department of Amateur Sport will continue under the direction of Casper W. Whitney. The best of modern writers will contribute short stories, and the most distinguished artists will make the illustrations. The editorial articles of Mr. George William Curtis will remain as an especial attraction.

1891.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The Tariff and the Farmer.

The Tribune will devote much space during 1891 to the Tariff as it affects the Farmer and the Mechanic.

Hon. Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, has been added to the Tribune's staff of Tariff writers for this purpose. He will, through the columns of The Tribune, devote himself to this topic, and will invite and answer questions upon points which perplex the American Farmer and Mechanic. He will also, so far as other duties will allow, attend Farmers' Institutes and agricultural gatherings the coming winter and spring, and expound the principles of the Tariff.

Those who desire the presence of Mr. Horr at Farmers' Institutes, etc., are invited to communicate promptly with The Tribune.

Young Men Who Wish to Succeed.

Many a man feels the lack of early direction of his energies and early inculcation of the maxims which promote the formation of character and success in after life. Every such man would gladly see the young men of to-day better guided in youth than he was. The Tribune has planned the following series of valuable articles, which will appear in this paper only:

"What shall I Do?" By S. S. Packard, President of Packard's Business College.

"Suggestions for the Boys on the Farm who are Ambitious." By the Hon. J. H. Brigham, of Delta, Ohio, Master of the National Grange.

"Education without the Help of a College." By President C. K. Adams, of Cornell University.

A Continuation of "How to Win Fortune." By Andrew Carnegie, whose remarkable article of last Spring was so full of encouragement to poor men.

"Multiplicity of Paying Occupations in the United States." By the Hon. Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of the Department of Labor.

"A Talk with American Boys." By P. T. Barnum, of Bridgeport, Conn., the great American showman, temperance lecturer, traveler and writer.

"Examples in the History of our own Country. By Gen. A. S. Webb, the gallant soldier of Gettysburg and Spottsylvania and College president.

"Importance of Good Manners." The views of Ward McAllister.

"A College Education good for all; what is best for those who cannot get it." By President William Pepper, University of Pennsylvania.

The Tribune will print from week to week, well-considered answers to any questions which young men or women, in any part of the country, may ask.

Vital Topics of the Day.

"Present Needs and Future Scope of American Agriculture." By the Hon. Jeremiah Rusk.

"Proper Function of the Minority in Legislation." By the Hon. Julius C. Burrows, Kalamazoo.

"Village Improvement Associations, their practicability in Rural Districts, with the story of certain Model Villages." By the Hon. B. G. Northrop, of Clinton, Conn.

"Principle in Politics and the Virtue of Courage." By the Hon. James S. Clarkson, of Iowa.

"Influences of the Labor Movement upon Human Progress." By Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor.

"America's Suburban and Rural Homes." By George Palisser, of New York.

"Warehouses for Farm Products." By L. L. Polk, President of the National Farmers' Alliance.

"Glaciers of the United States." By Professor Israel C. Russell, of the United States Geological Survey and explorer of Alaska.

Other Features.

During 1891 The Tribune will print a valuable series of articles, written by its own traveling correspondent, on the agriculture of the United States, with explanation of a large number of model farms.

A special correspondent, a practical farmer, is now in France, visiting the farms and farm-buildings of that thriftiest of the agricultural nations of the world. He will report upon the dairy, grain, stock and other branches of French farming in illustrated articles.

Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, President of the Woman's Relief Corps, will contribute a column of notes and news to The Tribune's G. A. R. page, every week.

Admirable letters of travel in the Southern States, illustrated with pictures, will be printed, describing the South as it exists to-day.

All the regular features will be continued.

The Home Circle columns will be varied by frequent illustrated articles on home decoration, fashions and other objects of intense interest to women. Written principally for people with little money.

Mrs. Bayard Taylor, the widow of Bayard Taylor, will write articles on Cookery. She is a remarkable housekeeper, with a scientific as well as practical knowledge of her subject.

Steinitz, the great chess champion of the world, will supply a column a week on the greatest and purest of all the games of the house.

Foreign letters, good stories, the news of the day, the best of market reports, book reviews and literary news, witty jokes, etc., etc.

The Tribune is printed in large type and broad columns, and is the easiest paper to read in the country.

Premiums.

Premium List for 1891, containing many new and useful articles, will be sent to any applicant, free.
