Raised the Church Debt.

"Talk of raising the church debts," the man who had been everywhere said, "I cleared up a debt for a church in Deadwood once in spite of myself."

"Yes?"

"It happened this way: I had been playing poker the night before in great luck. Came out a cool $10,000 winner. Then a kind of remorse came over me, and I made up my mind it would be a good time to reform. I resolved to quit poker and be respectable, and I thought a good way to begin would be by going to church. So I fixed myself up and walked into the biggest church in the place. My intentions were really good, but I hadn't slept any that night.

"The sermon was rather prosy, and I went to sleep. After the sermon the parson explained that the church was a little in debt, and he thought this would be a good time to pay it off. I woke up just in time to hear him say: 'We must raise $5,000.'

"Well, you see, I was half asleep, thought I was still playing poker, an' hearin' that put me on my nerve. The deacon, with the plate, was right beside me in the aisle. I pulled out my roll and yelled out: 'I'll see that $5,000, and go $5,000 better.' With that I put my whole $10,000 on the plate."

"They were used to such talk out there. They thought I was a gambler who had got religion, and before I was well enough awake to know where I was the whole congregation was singing and the minister was praying for me. I wasn't going to back w[illegible] so I let the money go. G[illegible]mentary notice in the D[illegible]adwood papers, posed as a philanthropist, and all that. Good joke on me, wasn't it?"

"First rate; and did you really quit gambling?"

"Yes, sir; quit for good and all," he said. And then he added: "By the way, have you got any tips on to-day's races?"

The Cheerful Voice.

The comfort and happiness of home and home intercourse depend very much on the kindly and affectionate training of the voice. Trouble and care come, but let them not creep into our voices. Let only our kindly and happier feelings be vocal in our homes. Let them be so, if for no other reason, for the little children's sake. The sensitive little beings are exceedingly susceptible to the tones. They hear so much that we have forgotten to hear, for as we advance in years our lives become more interior. We are abstracted from outward scenes and sounds. We think, we reflect, we begin gradually to deal with the past as we have formerly vividly lived in the present. Our ears grow dull to external sounds; they are turned inward, and listen chiefly to the echoes of the past voices.

We catch no more the merry laughter of children. We hear no more the note of the morning bird. The brook that used to prattle so gaily to us, rushes by unheeded; we have forgotten to hear such things. But little children, remember, sensitively hear them all. Mark how, at every sound, the young child starts and listens. And thus, with equal sensitiveness, does it catch the tones of the human voice. How were it possible that the sharp and hasty word, the fretful and complaining tone, should not startle and pain, even depress the sensitive little being, whose harp of life is so newly and delicately strung, vibrating even to the gentle breeze, and ever thrilling, sensitive to the tones of such voices as sweep across it. Let us, then, be kind and cheerful in our homes.

The process of whitening sugar was never known until a hen walked through [illegible] puddle and then strayed [illegible] sugar house. Her tracks, [illegible] course, left in the piles of sugar, and when it was noticed that the spots where she had stepped were whiter than the rest, the process of bleaching sugar with clay was adopted.

Mr. Barret, a Darjeeling, India, tea planter, is opening up some large plantations in Fiji, and is also introducing the requisite machinery. He is confident that he can make it pay well, and asserts that the tea grown in Fiji is much finer than any he has ever seen in the Darjeeling district.

The manufacture of the little Swedish matches which are sold everywhere so cheaply forms one of the great industries of Sweden. Some idea of the extent to which these matches are sent abroad may be inferred from the fact that 6,404 tons were exported during the first six months of this year.

Recent observations throw doubt on the existence of the so-called fatigue of metals. Two large iron links, one used for forty years in a suspension bridge at Kieff, and the [illegible] kept in store since the building [illegible] bridge, were tested together, [illegible] found to be of practically [illegible]trength.

FARMERS!

Lend Us Your Ears.

It is an indisputable fact that the

HOME MANUFACTURE

of Fertilizer in this county has reduced the cost of it to the farmer from

Three to Five Dollars Per Ton

and saved to them

Thousands of Dollars,

Therefore, is it not wisdom on your part to encourage us while we are trying to save you money, and bring you nearer to the manufacturer? We desire to deal as directly with you as possible, thereby saving to you all extra commissions. We therefore invite all farmers, farmers' clubs and grange organizations to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. We manufacture all of our own brands of goods and guarantee them as represented. They are drier, have less acid and moisture than the usual city mixture and will drill perfectly. We guarantee them free from shoddy or any inactive material, and will

Guarantee them under Forfeiture of the Purchaser's Bill

to produce as good results in a crop contest as any other for the same money, and challenge competition. We are having reports of from 38 to 44 bushels per acre having been raised this year, from the use of our Phosphate. Besides the above guarantee we are offering to wheat growers using our grades, as follows: $10 for the largest yield per acre on one acre or more.

$30 for the largest yield per acre on five acres or more.

$60 for the largest yield per acre on ten acres or more.

See circulars for further description.

Our premiums last year were won by David Cover, of Winfield, and R. F. Cook, of Warfieldsburg.

The Biggest Yield of Wheat in Carroll County.

The following letter from Mr. Jno. H. Stem, one of the most reputable farmers in the county, is submitted for the benefit of our patrons and all those interested:

WINFIELD, MD., JULY 23RD, 1891.

H. S. ROBERTS & CO.—SIRS:—I threshed yesterday from a scant nine acre field, sowed with 300lbs. to the acre of your "BIG GUN AND PRIDE FERTILIZERS," 380 BUSHELS OF WHEAT, averaging about 42½ BUSHELS TO THE ACRE. I sowed 1½ bushels of seed to the acre. These are facts that it seems to me the people ought to know. If any one doubts it, I am willing to substantiate it with my oath, and other proof if necessary.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

ILLUSTRATED.

The Magazine will celebrate the fourth Centenary of the Discovery of America by its rediscovery, through articles giving a more thorough exposition than has hitherto been made of the recent Unprecedented Development of our Country, and especially in the great West. Particular attention will also be given to Dramatic Episodes of American History.

The field of the next European War will be described in a series of Papers on the Danube "From the Black Forest to the Black Sea," by Poultney Bigelow and F. D. Millet, illustrated by Mr. Millet and Alfred Parsons. Articles also will be given on the German, Austrian, and Italian Armies, illustrated by T. de Thulstrup.

Mr. W. D. Howells will contribute a new novel, "A World of Chance," characteristically American. Especial prominence will be given to the short stories, which will be contributed by T. B. Aldrich, R. H. Davis, A. Conan Doyle, Margaret Deland, Miss Woolson, and other popular writers.

Among the literary features will be Personal Reminiscences of Nathanial Hawthorne, by his [redacted] s mate and life-long friend, Horatio Bridge, and a Personal Memoir of the Brownings, by Anne Thackeray Ritchie.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY for the coming year will contain more attractive features, more and finer illustrations, and a greater number of articles of live, interest than will be found in any other periodical. Among these latter will be a series of articles on the twenty five greatest cities of the world, including five hundred illustrations. The Columbian Exposition, the Army and Navy, great public events, disasters on land and sea, and the doings of the celebrated people of the day will be described and illustrated in an attractive and timely manner. The Department of Amateur Sport will continue under the direction of Casper W. Whitney. The best of modern writers will contribute short stories, and the most distinguished artists will make the illustrations. The editorial articles of Mr. George William Curtis will remain as an especial attraction.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is a journal for the home. It gives the latest information with regard to the Fashions, and its numerous illustrations, Paris designs, and pattern-sheet supplements are indespensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modiste. No expense is spared to make its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its bright stories, amusing comedies, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. The Serials for 1892 will be written by Walter Besant and William Black. Mrs. Oliphant will become a contributor. Marion Harland's Timely Talks, "Day In and Day Out," are intended for matrons, and Helen Marshall North will specially address girls. T. W. Higginson, in "Women and Men," will please a cultivated audience.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The Tariff and the Farmer.

The Tribune will devote much space during 1891 to the Tariff as it affects the Farmer and the Mechanic.

Hon. Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, has been added to the Tribune's staff of Tariff writers for this purpose. He will, through the columns of The Tribune, devote himself to this topic, and will invite and answer questions upon points which perplex the American Farmer and Mechanic. He will also, so far as other duties will allow, attend Farmers' Institutes and agricultural gatherings the coming winter and spring, and expound the principles of the Tariff.

Those who desire the presence of Mr. Horr at Farmers' Institutes, etc., are invited to communicate promptly with The Tribune.

Young Men Who Wish to Succeed.

Many a man feels the lack of early direction of his energies and early inculcation of the maxims which promote the formation of character and success in after life. Every such man would gladly see the young men of to-day better guided in youth than he was. The Tribune has planned the following series of valuable articles, which will appear in this paper only:

"What shall I Do?" By S. S. Packard, President of Packard's Business College.

"Suggestions for the Boys on the Farm who are Ambitious." By the Hon. J. H. Brigham, of Delta, Ohio, Master of the National Grange.

"Education without the Help of a College." By President C. K. Adams, of Cornell University.

A Continuation of "How to Win Fortune." By Andrew Carnegie, whose remarkable article of last Spring was so full of encouragement to poor men.

"Multiplicity of Paying Occupations in the United States." By the Hon. Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of the Department of Labor.

"A Talk with American Boys." By P. T. Barnum, of Bridgeport, Conn., the great American showman, temperance lecturer, traveler and writer.

"Examples in the History of our own Country. By Gen. A. S. Webb, the gallant soldier of Gettysburg and Spottsylvania and College president.

"Importance of Good Manners." The views of Ward McAllister.

"A College Education good for all; what is best for those who cannot get it." By President William Pepper, University of Pennsylvania.

The Tribune will print from week to week, well-considered answers to any questions which young men or women, in any part of the country, may ask.

Vital Topics of the Day.

"Present Needs and Future Scope of American Agriculture." By the Hon. Jeremiah Rusk.

"Proper Function of the Minority in Legislation." By the Hon. Julius C. Burrows, Kalamazoo.

"Village Improvement Associations, their practicability in Rural Districts, with the story of certain Model Villages." By the Hon. B. G. Northrop, of Clinton, Conn.

"Principle in Politics and the Virtue of Courage." By the Hon. James S. Clarkson, of Iowa.

"Influences of the Labor Movement upon Human Progress." By Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor.

"America's Suburban and Rural Homes." By George Palisser, of New York.

"Warehouses for Farm Products." By L. L. Polk, President of the National Farmers' Alliance.

"Glaciers of the United States." By Professor Israel C. Russell, of the United States Geological Survey and explorer of Alaska.

Other Features.

During 1891 The Tribune will print a valuable series of articles, written by its own traveling correspondent, on the agriculture of the United States, with explanation of a large number of model farms.

A special correspondent, a practical farmer, is now in France, visiting the farms and farm-buildings of that thriftiest of the agricultural nations of the world. He will report upon the dairy, grain, stock and other branches of French farming in illustrated articles.

Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, President of the Woman's Relief Corps, will contribute a column of notes and news to The Tribune's G. A. R. page, every week.

Admirable letters of travel in the Southern States, illustrated with pictures, will be printed, describing the South as it exists to-day.

All the regular features will be continued.

The Home Circle columns will be varied by frequent illustrated articles on home decoration, fashions and other objects of intense interest to women. Written principally for people with little money.

Mrs. Bayard Taylor, the widow of Bayard Taylor, will write articles on Cookery. She is a remarkable housekeeper, with a scientific as well as practical knowledge of her subject.

Steinitz, the great chess champion of the world, will supply a column a week on the greatest and purest of all the games of the home.

Foreign letters, good stories, the news of the day, the best of market reports, book reviews and literary news, witty jokes, etc., etc.

The Tribune is printed in large type and broad columns, and is the easiest paper to read in the country.

Premiums.

Premium List for 1891, containing many new and useful articles, will be sent to any applicant, free.

Prizes for Large Clubs.

Club raisers are invited to write to this office for The Tribune's new Terms to agents.

Subscriptions.

The Weekly, $1.00 a year; free for the rest of 1890. Semi-Weekly, $2.00; free for the rest of 1890. Daily, $10.00. Sunday Tribune, $2.00. Tribune Monthly, $2.00. Sample copies free.
