THE SIXTIETH VOLUME.

With this week's issue the SENTINEL enters upon its sixtieth volume. Such occasions are usually employed by local newspapers to some extent in self-glorification, otherwise termed "blowing your own horn." Readers of the SENTINEL will bear it witness that it has, to a great extent, refrained from that custom. Intelligent readers usually place the proper value upon that sort of thing and estimate the quality of a newspaper by its contents and not by its own self-laudation.

It has been the aim of all concerned in the publication of the SENTINEL to make it a good local family newspaper; to give place in its columns to nothing impure or unfit to be read by children and in the family circle; to give the current local news in language easy of comprehension; to make selections of the best and most entertaining and instructive matter attainable for the literary columns, and last, but not least, to maintain by argument, and by the presentation of facts, the principles and policy of the Republican party.

The measure of success attained in this endeavor must be left to the readers of the paper for judgment. Voluntary testimony of their favor and appreciation has not been wanting, and assurances to that effect are not infrequent. That it has received a due measure of public approbation may be fairly inferred from the fact that, in the face of fierce and unfriendly competition, its subscription list has steadily increased and is now larger than ever before. Its patrons are among the best and most intelligent citizens in all parts of the county, giving it a subscription list of which any local newspaper might well be proud.

No high-flown promises of future excellence need be here indulged. It is sufficient to say that every effort will be made to maintain the standard and character of the various departments of the paper and to make it a welcome visitor to the homes of the people.

President Hood's Report.

The annual report of the operations of the Western Maryland Railroad, including the main line, the Baltimore and Cumberland Valley Railroad and the Baltimore and Harrisburg railway, for the year ending September 30th, 1891, was submitted to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and the stockholders, by the President and General Manager, Col. John M. Hood, last week. It makes an exceedingly gratifying exhibit of the condition of the road and its branches. On account of the unusual press of local matter and correspondence we are unable to give the report in detail this week, but will endeavor to do so later. It shows, in brief, that the gross earnings were $904,378.03 and the operating expenses $571,168.98, leaving a net balance of $333,209.05. Of this sum $81,769.67 was expended in betterments. The increase of gross earnings over 1890 was $92,322.61, and the increase of expenses $36,984.50, showing an increase in net earnings of $55,338.11. The large increase in revenue was mainly gained, the report states, in the last four months of the year, and "was largely the result of the recently established connection through the Cumberland Valley between the Baltimore and Ohio and Philadelphia and Reading systems."

The report states that the fourteen-mile extension, known as the Potomac Valley Railroad, from Williamsport to Cherry Run on the Baltimore and Ohio, "is now nearing completion, and, as a result, a saving of forty-one miles in the through line will be effected." Other advantages, which will accrue from the completion of the line, are clearly set forth in the report.

The sum of $89,922.55 was paid for the use of the tracks of other roads in Baltimore during the year, and President Hood demonstrates very clearly the necessity of relief from this incubus by the construction of the Western Maryland Tidewater Railroad.

Altogether the report makes an exhibit which shows beyond any question the immense value of the Western Maryland as a business feeder to Baltimore and as a property intrinsically.

The future of the Western Maryland, when projected connections and extensions shall have been completed, if it shall be kept under the system of management now employed, is not problematical. Under such conditions its success is assured, and no proposition for its sale to parties or interests which would destroy it as an independent competing line to Baltimore, should be for a moment considered by the city authorities.

As the SENTINEL predicted at the outset of the conspiracy on the part of Gov. Hill and his associates in New York, to steal the Senate of that State, the plot has partially, if not wholly, succeeded. We have not space this week in which to comment on the manner and means by which this result was accomplished. It is, however, one of the most flagrant political outrages ever perpetrated in the State of New York. The Senate will stand, by the addition to the Democratic strength of two stolen seats, sixteen Democrats, fifteen Republicans and one Independent Republican.

The Frederick Examiner (weekly) began its eighty-eighth volume with its issue of this week. The Examiner has been greatly improved under its present management. Its typography is neat and clear, and its aggregation of local news very extensive. Its editorial department is admirable.

Joseph Shadle was shot and killed by officer Elmer O. Crouse at Littlestown, Pa., while resisting arrest, on Christmas eve. Frank Shadle, brother of Joseph, was wounded by a shot from Officer Crouse's pistol. A coroner's jury found that Crouse acted in self-defence, while in the discharge of his duty as an officer.

Mathias, died in this city several years ago. She leaves several daughters, among whom are Mrs. Judge Charles B. Roberts and Miss Josephine Mathias, of this city. She was a devout Catholic and a member of the Cathedral, Baltimore, at which funeral services were held on Monday morning.

He treated the scholars to confectioneries and oranges and he was kindly remembered by the school in the present of a handsome brocaded plush toilet-case and mustache cup.

A notice, posted by authority of the Mayor and Council, that Ordinance No. 11, forbidding the shooting of guns, pistols, fire crackers, &c., would be strictly enforced, had the effect of giving us a very quiet holiday season. Several arrests in the outset proved effective in the enforcement of the law. Our citizens generally spent the happy season pleasantly in the exchange of gifts and greetings and in other appropriate ways.

The friends of Mrs. Rev. George Sill, in this place, have been informed of her death, from grip, at her home in Philadelphia, on Christmas day.

Mrs. Park B. Motter died at her home in Baltimore on Saturday last. Her remains were interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery on Tuesday. Mrs. Julia M., and Chas. Motter attended the funeral.

The remains of Mr. Jeremiah Becker, who died at his home in Woodberry at the age of 57 years, were interred in the family lot here, on Tuesday, Rev. N. J. Miller officiating. He was a brother of Mrs. Isaac Brilhart and Mr. Ephraim Becker, and a native of this district.

Mr. Horatio Bardwell, grandson of Mr. Geo. Shower, is lying quite ill with pneumonia, at his home in Woodberry.

Mrs. George Warner has been informed that her father, Mr. Heindel, of Glen Rock, Pa., has been stricken with paralysis.

Many persons are ill with grip in this community.

[Our correspondent sends among his items interesting accounts of the Christmas services of the Reformed and Lutheran Sunday schools at Manchester, which we are forced to exclude for want of space in which to print.—ED.]

Mr. William Garner has just completed a very handsome stable on South New street.

A creamery company has been organized here and has selected a site for the buildings near Baltimore street, along the alley leading from said street to Fink's Agricultural shops. They have begun digging a well and the buildings will be erected at once.

Mr. James Buffington has leased the Starr building, on Baltimore street, now occupied by Mr. D. W. Garner's grocery store, and will fit it up for a hotel. Mr. Buffington has been proprietor of the Union Hotel for the last three years, and by his polite and accommodating manner has built up a large trade.

On Wednesday, December 23rd, Mr. Samuel Shriner died at the residence of his daughter, about two miles south of town, from chronic ailments complicated with grip. McSherry, received a purse containing $35.00 from the congregation.

Gamber Items.

The oyster supper given by the ladies of this vicinity for the benefit of the Brass Band was a decided success, although the weather was anything but favorable. The net proceeds are, as reported, thirty-five dollars. Had the weather been fair they would have undoubtedly been doubled, but the members say they are very well satisfied as it is. I am requested to say to the ladies and also to the gentleman who took such an active part in the matter, for the members of the Band, that they return their most sincere thanks for their faithful and energetic work during its continuance; and also to the public generally for their liberal aid and encouragement and for the excellent behaviour throughout. Everything passed of very pleasantly and satisfactorily to everyone. The music of the Band during the continuance of the supper was excellent.

Almost every family has some one ill and in some cases whole families are down with the grip in this section. It is very bad and Dr. Gorsuch is kept busy day and night. Your correspondent has been confined to his room and bed for over ten days and has just got so that he can be up again. It has now been over four weeks since his first attack.

DRESSING IN GOOD TASTE.

American ladies, especially in the larger cities and towns, are becoming noted for their good taste in dress. This is largely due to the fact that they secure the best Fashion Journals published, and by a careful study of them they get correct ideas upon the all-important subject of dress. Any lady can cultivate her taste in this direction if she will only go to the trouble of comparing the styles found in the reliable Fashion Journals published by A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th St., N. Y., with those appearing in other Fashion Magazines. Those issued by A. McDowell & Co. are produced only by the best artists, and are for the most part plain, and in every respect practical; the others are generally very loud or dowdy, and thoroughly unsuitable for the requirements of American women. The firm of A. McDowell & Co. seeks to furnish ladies with genuine French styles, such as can be used without any danger of appearing ridiculous. Hence their Fashion Journals are now the favorites with all ladies of good taste throughout the country. "La Mode de Paris" gives the latest French styles. "Album des Modes" furnishes styles which are popular in Paris. "La Mode" gives a selection of styles which are serviceable to the family. The two former are each 35 cents a copy, or $3.50 a year. The last is 15 cents a copy, or $1.50 per annum. They are supplied by newsdealers, or direct to subscribers from the house.

Best of Republican Newspapers.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

Roswell G. Horr on the Tariff

The Republican party, triumphant in 1891, wherever national issues were at stake, renews, aggressively and bravely, the fight for 1892. The New York Tribune, the ablest, most reliable, and best of Republican papers, leads the way.

During 1892, Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, the witty orator, will continue in The Tribune his remarkable articles on the Tariff, Reciprocity, Coinage, and the Currency. These topics are all understandable; the Republican policy with regard to all of them is right, patriotic and impregnable; but dust has been thrown in the people's eyes, and the air has been filled with fog, by lying and tricky Tariff-Reformers. The Tribune prints from one to five exceedingly entertaining articles every week explaining these questions.

Mr. Horr begins at the beginning of every subject, and makes it so clear that everyone can understand and no one can answer him. Ask any neighbor what he thinks of Mr. Horr's writings. He will tell you that they are genial, clear, entertaining and perfectly unanswerable. A specialty is made of answering all questions, asked in good faith, on the Tariff, Reciprocity, Coinage, the Currency, and the projects of the Farmers Alliance. The Tribune is the best national Republican paper to supplement your local paper during 1892.

How to Succeed in Life.

The Tribune will also continue the series of articles to Young Men and Women, penned by men who, beginning life themselves with few advantages, have nevertheless succeeded honorably and brilliantly. It will also reply to questions as to what young men and women should do to succeed in life, under the particular circumstances in which their lot in life is cast. The replies will be written under the direction of Roswell G. Horr, whose familiarity with American life and opportunities and whose deep and cordial sympathy with all who are struggling under adverse circumstances, promise to make the replies practical and satisfactory.

Vital Topics of the Day.

Many special contributions will be printed from men and women of distinguished reputation. Among the topics are: "Silver Coinage, the latest views;" "Proper Function of the Minority in Legislation," to include one paper each from a Democrat and a Republican, prominent in public life; "Harmful tendencies of Trusts;" "Arid Lands of the United States;" Millionaires of the United States;" Free Postal Delivery in Rural Communities;" "Better Pay for Fourth Class Postmasters;" "Importance of the Nicaragua Canal;" "Village Improvement;" "Our German Fellow Citizen in America," and many others.

Agricultural.

In addition to the regular two pages a week of how to run a farm and make it pay there will be, during 1892, special papers on "Hot House Lambs," "Model Farms," "Tobacco Raising," "Sugar Beets," "Fancy High Priced Butter Making," "Care of Bees," "Market Gardening," "Live Stock," and a variety of other equally important branches of American farming.

For Old Soldiers.

For veterans of the war, there will be a page a week of war stories, answers to questions, news and gossip. Mrs. Annie Wittenmyer will supply an interesting column of news of the W. R. C. The Tribune's War Stories of the past year have never been surpassed for thrilling interest.

For Families.

Families will value the pages devoted to "Questions and Answers," "Household Decoration," "Home Interest," "Cooking," "Knitting and Crochet," "Young Folks" and the Fashions.

A great editoral page will be printed, and fiction, foreign letters, book reviews, travels, checkers and chess and fun abundantly supplied.

Premiums.

Descriptive circular will be sent free. Over $2,000 in Cash prizes. Send for terms to agents and raise a club for The Tribune.

Subscriptions.

Weekly, $1. Semi-Weekly, $2. Free for the rest of 1891, to those subscribing now for 1892.

A GREAT MAGAZINE.

The Century's Programme in 1892-A New 'Life of Columbus"-Articles for Farmers, etc.

THAT great American periodical, THE CENTURY, is going to outdo its own unrivaled record in its programme for 1892, and as many of its new features begin with the November number, new readers should commence with that issue.

In this number are the opening chapters of a novel by Rudyard Kipling, the famous author of "Plain Tales from the Hills," written in collaboration with an American writer, Wolcott Balestier. It is the story of a young man and a young woman from a "booming" Colorado town, who go to India, he in search of a wonderful jeweled necklace, called "the Naulahka" (from which the story takes its name), and she as a physician to women. The novel describes their remarkable adventures at the court of an Indian maharajah. Besides this, THE CENTURY will print three other novels during the year, and a great number of short stories by the best American story-writers.

The well-known humorist Edgar W. Nye ("Bill Nye") is to write a series of amusing sketches which he calls his "autobiographies," the first one of which, "The Autobiography of a Justice of the Peace," is in November. This number also contains a valuable and suggestive article on "The Food-Supply of the Future," which every farmer should read, to be followed by a number of others

OF GREAT PRACTICAL VALUE TO FARMERS, treating especially of the relations of the Government to the farmer, what it is doing and what it should do. This series will include contributions from officers of the Department of Agriculture, and other well-known men will discuss "The Farmers Discontent," "Cooperation," etc., etc. A celebrated Spanish writer is to furnish a "Life of Columbus," which will be brilliantly illustrated, and the publishers of THE CENTURY have arranged with the managers of the World's Fair to print articles on the buildings, etc.

One of the novels to appear in 1892 is

by the author of "The Anglomanics," and the magazine will contain a great deal about the metropolis during the year,—among other things a series of illustrated articles on "The Jews in New York." In November is an illustrated description of "The Players' Club," founded by Edwin Booth, and one of the features of the splendidly illustrated Christmas (December) number is an article on "The Bowery."

To get THE CENTURY send the yearly subscription price ($4.00) to The Century Co., Union Square, New York, N. Y.

An Open Letter.

WESTMINSTER, April 10, 1890.

Mr. Jos. B. Boyle:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but temporary relief. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try your Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost instant relief, but a permanent cure. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am,

Truly yours,
