American Sentinel.

WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 7, 1893.

With this issue the SENTINEL commences its sixty-first volume. The fact is mentioned only as an incident and not for the purpose of vaunting the excellence of the paper. To say that the continued maintenance of its large subscription list, made up of substantial and reliable citizens, is indicative of their approval, cannot be deemed improper. To make it a pure and honorable journal has been and will continue to be the first desire of all connected with its publication. Sincere and earnest thanks are tendered its patrons for their steady and generous support.

Mr. Cleveland and His Party.

The relations between Mr. Cleveland and numbers of the leaders of his party are evidently very much strained. The fact is that the President-elect seems to be disposed to play the role of a dictator. He has expressed his opposition to the election of Mr. Edward Murphy, the Tammany candidate for United States Senator from New York, in a decided manner. His attitude on other questions involved in the Presidential canvass is unsatisfactory to many of those who supported him under the impression that the Chicago platform, as a declaration of principles, meant something more than subjection to the will of one man. His evident assumption that the Democratic party is nothing without him and that he is, in fact, the party in essence, is irritating and humiliating to many who hold that the voice of the people should be obeyed.

But Mr. Cleveland is nothing if not autocratic, and he is fully advertised of the power centered in him by his control of the spoils, and evidently intends to make use of that power to subdue the opposition to his plans and purposes. Mr. Crisp, who wants to be re-elected Speaker, is said to be ready to arrange the committees of the House to suit the views and wishes of Mr. Cleveland, upon the assurance that he will not be opposed in his aspirations after a second term in the Speakership by his High Mightiness.

Mr. Cleveland is setting a dangerous example and violating the spirit of the American Constitution, which contemplates the independence of the several branches—legislative, judicial and executive—of the government. He might, with as much propriety, demand of a contemplated appointee to the bench a pledge to decide certain judicial questions according to his views, as to attempt the coercion of legislation, or the election or rejection of a particular candidate for United States Senator.

If, as Mr. Cleveland has declared, "public office is a public trust"—and there is no doubt about the correctness of the principle—he is, at this very moment, violating it, in anticipation, in the most flagrant manner. His party may submit to this dictatorship; but it will be a sad day for the country when the people fail to rebuke it in the most emphatic manner.

A bloody conflict occurred at Bakersville, the county seat of Mitchell county, N. C., on Tuesday night, between the sheriff of the county, with a posse summoned by him, and a band of men, who attacked the jail for the purpose of lynching several parties therein confined on charges of murder. The sheriff had knowledge of the intention of the lynchers and summoned and armed seventy-five resolute men, with rifles, to resist the attack. The mob, numbering about four hundred, assailed the jail and was fired upon by the sheriff and his posse. The fire was returned and the lynchers pressed forward and into the jail, secured the prisoners and hanged them. But the attempt cost the lives of twenty-two of the assaulting party and the sheriff and eleven of his men were also killed in their attempt to uphold the majesty of the law. Thirty men were wounded, some of them fatally. Mitchell county lies in the mountains of Western North Carolina, and the lynchers are said to belong to the gangs of moonshiners who infest the country. Three men were lynched.

Some of the Frederick editors and publishers, it is said, are talking of forming a press club, to take in the journalists of the three newspapers in Frederick city, as well as those at Middletown, Emmittsburg, Brunswick, Liberty, Walkersville, Myersville and Mechanicstown. It is also suggested to organize a club to comprise all the journalists of Western Md., to serve the same purpose as the Peninsula Press Association, of Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Cumberland, Hagerstown, Westminster, Rockville and Ellicott City are to be included in the circuit.

The Western Maryland Railroad Company has paid into the treasury of Baltimore $56,978.16 as semi-annual interest due January 1. The interest paid was upon various obligations, as follows: First mortgage bonds, $1,305; second preferred mortgage bonds, $5,355; first and preferred second mortgage coupons held by the city, $8,948.16; improvement loan, $13,680: fifth mortgage bonds, $27,690. The payment covers the interest falling due January 1.

The Annual Meeting of the Maryland State Farmers' Association, this year, will be merely a formal one, in view of the assembling on the same day—Wednesday, January 11,—of the State Road Convention, the importance and timeliness of which are recognized on every side. The Farmers' Association will join that convention in a body, and all local organizations are asked to be represented.

The new Columbian postage stamps have made their appearance, but as yet have only been furnished the leading offices of the country. They will probably be on sale by the smaller offices in a short time.

It is feared that typhus fever has become epidemic in New York City. Many cases have occurred and the disease is spreading over the city.

The livery stable of M. C. B. Langley, in Cambridge, Mass., was destroyed, by fire on Thursday and eighteen of the nineteen horses in the building were burned to death. Louis T. Taylor, one of the employes, was kicked in the head by a horse while he was trying to get the animals out. He was dragged from the burning building, but life was extinct.

The Court house of Allegany county, at Cumberland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday. The county Records were saved. The loss is $30,000; insurance $20,000. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

The people of North Carolina, like the people of Maryland, will discuss in State convention this month plans for systematically improving their county highways.

In the report of the bureau of animal industry, Secretary Rusk says pleuro-pneumonia has been stamped out in the United States.

United States Senator Eugene Hale will succeed himself, having been unanimously nominated by the Republican legislative caucus in Maine.

Governor Brown will not consider the Stevenson Archer pardon case while the bondholders' suit for the Archer balances is pending.

The Grand Army Hall Association, of Baltimore, has tendered the use of its building to the State encampment of February.

August 10 to 24 has been fixed as the date for Emory Grove camp-meeting this year.

On Thursday three cowboys had a desperate fight in the Choctaw nation. All were killed.

Chas. H. O. Fox, a well known jeweler of Frederick, died on Thursday, of paralysis, in the 76th year of his age.

Centennial Grange, of Towson, Baltimore county, opposes a bonded indebtedness as a means for getting good roads.

Melrose Items.

We hope the year 1893 will be a happy and prosperous one to all the SENTINEL's readers.

Mr. Peter Helfrich recently went to Columbia, Pa.

The Bachman's Valley R. R. locomotive has not run for nearly 2 weeks, which is very inconvenient to our merchants who have goods in the freight-house at the intersection.

Your correspondent has a quaint old book that was printed in 1804, 89 years ago. The s's are made much like f's, making it difficult to read the volume until accustomed to this peculiarity.

We made a mistake in our items last week. Mr. Valentine Menchey's crab apple tree was not in the house but in the open air where it bore fruit.

Mr. Wm. Fuhrman contemplates erecting a barn next spring. George Zepp will be the carpenter and contractor.

Nearly all the ice-houses were filled last week with ice from 5 to 8 inches thick, and of a superior quality. We suppose ice cream will be cheap and plenty next year.

Gamber Items.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of Providence M. P. Church held its sociable at the parsonage on Tuesday evening. Music was the principal feature of the occasion and was rendered with organ, cornets, clarinets and violins. Refreshments were served at 10.30 in abundance and the affair was closed with some announcements by the president. It was a very pleasant gathering and all present seemed to enjoy the exercises very much.

At the regular Communication of Door to Virtue Lodge No. 46, A. F. and A. M., of this city, John H. Mitten was re-elected Tiler for the ensuing year. The newly elected officers of the Lodge will be installed on Thursday evening next, in presence of members and invited guests.

Snow fell here on Saturday last to the depth of several inches, but a rise in temperature caused a change to rain, which continued during Sunday. The snow soon disappeared, but cold weather set in again on Tuesday and a slight snow fell on Wednesday and Thursday. The cold weather continues.

To Our Readers.

We cannot too strongly urge upon our readers the necessity of subscribing for a family weekly paper of the first-class, such, for instance, as The Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia. Were we obliged to select one publication for the very best reading, to the exclusion of all others, we should choose The Saturday Evening Post, which undoubtedly is the best and purest periodical in America for every member of the home circle, filled weekly with the noblest thoughts of the best writers and thinkers in the world—replete with thrilling romances, fascinating adventures, and graphic sketches; overflowing with good things to suit all conditions and employments in life. No family can afford to be without it. It has been the unfailing source of happiness to great numbers of noble men and women of two generations, and is better than ever to-day. It has the most remarkable history and honorable record of any paper on the continent, and is a welcome visitor everywhere. No other paper can possibly fill its place or serve as a substitute. It affords all the pleasure of the most fascinating reading without carrying mental or moral impurity into any home. Only $2 a year, for more and better reading than through any other source. Our readers can do no less than send a postal for a free specimen copy, or for fifty cents, in cash or 2-cent postage stamps, the paper will be sent on trial to new subscribers, three months or thirteen weeks, enabling them to judge of its merits more critically.

A magnificent premium given to yearly subscribers. Address, The Saturday Evening Post, (Lock Box), Philadelphia, Pa.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, New Windsor, Md., December 31st, 1892.

At a meeting of the Directors of the First National Bank of New Windsor, held this day, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Since our last meeting our fellow-Director, ISAAC C. BAILE, has, in the Providence of God, been removed from our midst, and

WHEREAS, We desire our records to show the great esteem in which we held him; therefore

Resolved, That this Board deeply feels that in him the Bank has lost a long-tried servant, in whom the highest integrity was united with a clear and wide comprehension of his duties and responsibility as a bank officer. As citizens, in the same community in which he lived, we lament his death as a loss which must be heavily felt in a wide sphere of usefulness beyond that special field which he shared with us; and individually we remember him with affection, as a true and helpful friend.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our sympathy and condolence to his family, whose loss is so far the greatest of all.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our records, a copy be sent to the family; also a copy be sent to the county papers for publication.
