THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Belated birthday greetings to Spring which, astronomically speaking, was ushered in at 1.24 p m. on Wednesday when Old Sol crossed the Equator on its trip north. Officially it all sounds well, but be that as it may, I would rather know it's Spring by the feel. So what? Nothing to do about it but continue to grumble along with everybody else and wait. Four months from now, we'll probably be in a state about the heat. I wonder if we are ever satisfied. Well, the Paschal moon has been shining bright all this week and tomorrow is Easter, weather cold or hot.

Coming from Hartford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Giraitis, and from Sag Harbor, L. I., Miss Harriette Welch, arrived on Thursday, to spend the holidays with Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper.

More guests in town include Miss Elizabeth Brown who will visit her mother, Mrs. H. Clay Brown. Miss Betty White, of Chicago, will come to-day to visit Miss Brown over Easter.

Miss Helen Simpers, now living in New York, where she has a position will spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers.

Mr. Lloyd Connelly, of Baltimore, will be the week-end guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stenger.

While from Thurmont, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connelly arrived on Thursday evening to spend Easter with the latter's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julian T. Power.

Mr and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer will have as their holiday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaunghessy, of Emmittsburg, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel, of Cynwyd, Pa.

Welcome home college and prep school students! Among those whom I've seen were Miss Frederica Metcalfe from Hollins College; Jack Kibler and Jimmy Metcalfe from McDonough; Tom Massey from Charlotte Hall.

Misses Mabel and Halie Toulson are spending several weeks in Florida where they motored last week with Mr. R. N. Whaley.

Mrs. Charles Perlitz returned to her home in Houston, Texas, on Wednesday after spending six weeks with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick.

Mr. Maurice Paschal, of Wilmington, Del., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eshman at the Voshell House.

Dr. G. Howard Dana attended the Dental Centenary celebration held in Balitmore this week.

Dr. and Mrs. S. Holt Wright attended the Centennial Celebration, held in Baltimore this week, making the founding of the first dental col- the Kent County Council of P. T. A.'s to help the guests and members enlege.

Mrs. Thomas Messina and Mrs. Archie Hanna, of Philadelphia, were guests last week-end of their sister, Mrs. Elmer Reed.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George W. French were hosts at a family dinner when four generations of the French famliy in Kent Co., were entertained.

Mr. L. Ricard Duyer, Jr., and Mrs. Elsie K. Thompson, both of Kennett Square, Pa., were quietly married in West Chester, Pa., Saturday, Mar., 16th.

Mr. Duyer was formerly of Chestertown, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Duyer.

Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, is at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital recovering from an operation performed on Wednesday.

But now comes the time, when we take out the new bonnet once more, for a final look of approval before it is donned on the morrow. Does yours have the novelty of resembling a hat? Will your husband ask innocently, "Is that what they are wearing?" I hope not.

Yours wishing you—
A Happy Easter,

The Wanderer

Killed Fighting With Finnish Army

James Gergely And Sister

James Gergely, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. James Toth, of Millington, was seriously wounded in January, fighting with the Finnish Army. He later died February 12th at his home Topola, Yugo-Slavakia. News of this reached here about two weeks ago. High honors at the funeral were given him by his friends which presented the Gold Bay leaves and by the boy scouts which presented the silver bay-leaves. The bearers had to carry the body 1½ miles to the cemetery in a terrible snow storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Toth adopted him and his brother. His brother is now a resident of New Brunswick, N. J. Although James was adopted in 1924 he never reached the United States. First it was immigration trouble and when Mr .and Mrs. Toth went to their former home in Topola, Yugoslavockia in 1931, he was serving his compulsary military service and could not leave the country. Before the World War Topola was part of Hungary.

Tilden Cooper Injured In Auto Accident

Mr. Tilden Coper is in the local hospital suffering from injuries received on Friday night of last week when the automobile that he was driving was in collision with a truck owned by Jewell Bros. The accident occurred at Lynch Corner where the truck was unloading tractors. It is understood that while Mr. Cooper's injuries are painful, they are not considered serious.
