SHO'MEN SPORTS

With

EDDIE OHLER

Washington College Football and Basketball Letter-Men were honored at a banquet given for him in Hodson Hall last Tuesday night. W. J. Stenger, principal of the local high school, acted as toastmaster at the annual affair. In attendance were: Coaches Kibler and Ekaitis and Graduate Manager Dumschott. Head Coach Hanna of West Notingham Academy was a guest of the Athletic Association.

At the banquet Graduate Manager Dumschott announced that seven schedules for the football team would be in vogue for the coming two years. However a little better class of ball is expected. In 1941 the Sho'men will meet Ursinus for the first time.

Five honored seniors gave short talks. They were: "Howie" Neubert, "Chuck" Collins, Harry Hoppe, "Mike" Kardash, and Bill Collins. All were unaminous in their praise of the coaching staff. "Chuck" Collins hit the keynote when he said, "In my mind, at least, I leave Washington College a better man than when I came". And his sentiments weer probably those of all the seniors, who felt that athletics at college had done a great deal for them.

Coach Kibler is worried about two things these days. The cold weather and the lack of an experienced catcher are both headaches to the dean of Maryland coaches. With the first game only three days after the return from Spring Vacation, the veteran coach is plenty worried. Bad weather has kept his boys off the diamond and everyone knows that indoor practice isn't what the players need this late in the game.

Eight letter men will be seeing acion again this year. "Lefty" Copple will see planty of action on the mound; Fetter may be shifted from first to catcher in an effort to get an experienced man behind the plate. "Mike" Kardash will stay at short, with Bremer on third and Stevens in the outfield. Auvan Smith, Mac Maquire and Harold Rayne will back up the first line pitchers, Selby and Copple.

"Pickles" Munyan, a freshman, will probably see action as catcher before the season is over. Kaylor, who has been out because of an injury, may give Munyan a race for the position behind the plate. Thawley shows promise as a pitcher, although only a Freshman.

It's a little early to make any predictions about track. The first meet is with Western Maryland at Westminster on April 12. Until after spring vacation, when something more definite can be said, we'll let the cindermen go.

The Tennis schedule gets under way on April 16 when the locals meet Loyola in Baltimore. Prospects for a good season are in evidence.

On May 4 and 16 the Sho'men meet Mt. St. Mary's traditional rivals of the Maroons. From the vantage point in Emmitsburg next week, we'll try to give you the dope on the Mount prospects. Then we'll travel over to Gettysburg and get a line on the Bullets who meet Washington on May 1 in Chestertown.

Betterton Firemen Called To Locust Grove

The Betterton Fire Company played a prominent part in preventing a field fire from causing serious damage in the town of Locust Grove Wednesday afternoon. Despite efforts of residents of that town to halt the fire, the flames had reached the back fences of the homes when the Betterton firemen arrived with their water tank equipment.
