Mr. Thomas Dayhoff, a former resident of this city, died at his home in Baltimore, on Tuesday, in the 50th year of his age. He leaves a widow, who is a daughter of Mr. John Hornberger, of this city.

In four days last week Mr. Isaac Smith, of New Windsor, hauled 400 tons of ice, from 6 to 13 inches thick, with a team of four horses. The feat was a remarkable one and could scarcely be surpassed.

The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church will meet at Laurel, Del., April 4th, in the church of which Rev. J. W. Kirk, who was well known in this city as a student, is pastor.

The Westminster Band will give a concert at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Monday evening, Feburary 13th, in which several accomplished Baltimore musicians, as well as local talent, will assist. The program will be varied and embrace vocal as well as instrumental music. It promises to be a decided attraction.

Rev. J. L. Killgore, D. D., who retired from the active ministry of the Methodist Protestant Church on account of impaired health, last spring, and has since then been residing in this city, has been seriously ill with erysipelas of the head and face. A number of engagements to preach for brother ministers have been deferred in consequence.

The Union Street Debating Society, of this city, was reorganized on Wednesday evening, with Wm. Lowery, president, and James S. Harden, secretary. The first debate will take place Wednesday evening, Feburary 1st. Subject "Ought Women to Vote?" Affirmative, Wm. Lowery; negative, Reuben Walker. An admission of five cents will be charged, the proceeds to be devoted to the benefit of Union street church.

Six persons were burned to death in Baltimore this week, within twenty-four hours. All are said to have been the victims of the explosion of oil in some form, except one, a little child whose clothing took fire at a stove.

Mrs. Grace Granader, a former resident of this city, died in Coldsport, Clearfield county, Pa., on Thursday, 5th inst., aged 54 years, 1 month, 23 days. Her remains were taken to Holidaysburg, Pa., and interred in the burial ground of St. Michael's Catholic Church. Mrs. John A. Arbaugh, of this city is a daughter of the deceased.

Mr. William Logue, a well known citizen and retired farmer of this county, died on Wednesday, at the residence of Mr. Samuel Gist, near this city, in the 85th year of his age. He was twice married but his second wife died several years ago, and he leaves no children. He was a member of the German Baptist Church. Funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. Gist, where he died, at 10 o'clock this morning. Elder Emanuel Babylon, of Spring Mills, will officiate. The remains will be interred in Westminster Cemetery.

The statement of the condition of the Taneytown Savings Bank, of which Mr. Henry Galt is treasurer, indicates a sound and well managed institution. In publishing the statement last week two vexatious errors in typography were overlooked in hurried proof reading, the copy having come in late. "Deposits subject to check" was made to read "Deposit subscription book," and "exchange" was converted into "expenses." The errors have been corrected and the statement will be found in our advertising columns.

Mr. Thomas Farvour, of Winfield, met with a serious accident at Woodbine, on Wednesday. He had taken a load of wheat to the station and while the wagon was on the scales the horses became frightened and, wheeling suddenly, forced or threw him against the upright portion of the scales and dislocated his shoulder. The tongue of the wagon was broken off and the scales torn down. Drs. L. A. Aldridge and Ed. Cronk attended Mr. Farvour and reduced the dislocation and he is doing well.

Mr. Jacob J. Storms, a well known citizen of Westminster, who for a number of years had a shoemaker shop in the room over Mr. Ezra Shugh's meat store, near the railroad station, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Geo. Ibex, on the New Windsor road near this city, on Monday, after a long illness, aged 76 years, 11 months, 25 days. A marked feature of his life was his great devotion to the Republican party. He leaves a son and two daughters. His remains were interred in the burial ground of Meadow Branch Church, on Thursday.

Mr. Daniel Burns, near this city, has received a letter from his niece, Mrs. James Biggs, Green Valley, Illinois, informing him of the death, on the 5th inst., of her father, Mr. David Burns, at the age of 85 years, 7 months, 5 days. The deceased was a native of this county and formerly resided here. He removed to Illinois about the close of the war. Two of his sons, Lieutenant William H. Burns and George Burns, served in Co. A, Sixth Maryland Regiment, U. S. Vols., and Lieutenant Burns was killed in the battle of Fisher's Hill, Va. He was a gallant soldier and his memory was honored by giving his name to the Post of the G. A. R. in this city. Mrs. Biggs writes that her father suffered greatly during the closing months of his life. He was a worthy man and much esteemed in the community in which he resided. His brother, Mr. Daniel Burns, is now the only survivor of a family of five brothers and three sisters. The surviving children of the deceased are: Mrs. James Biggs, Messrs. George and Harry Burns, of Illinois, and Mr. Charles Burns, of Kansas.

Coming Attractions.

TWO LECTURES. THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

We are pleased to announce that School Examiner Diffenbaugh has arranged for two platform entertainments of a character similar to those given under his management last winter, at Central Hall schoolhouse, and so much enjoyed by the audiences. The first will be a lecture, on either "The Uses of Ugliness" or "Love, Courtship and Marriage" by the prince of lecturers, Jahu DeWitt Miller, on Thursday evening, February 10th, and the second on Tuesday evening, February 28th, a rendition of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," by Chas. F. Underhill, the renowned impersonator, who rendered "The Rivals" in last year's course. These entertainments will be given at Central Hall schoolhouse, and if they prove successful, others will follow.

A few changes in the program of the Teachers' Institute to be held on Thursday and Friday of next week, have been made necessary by the inability of some of the Instructors to be present on Friday night.

The day sessions will be held at Central Hall, beginning at 9.30 and 1.30 o'clock, and the night sessions at Odd Fellows' Hall, beginning at 7.30, as heretofore announced. The public are invited to all the exercises. Those at the schoolhouse are free. It has been deemed best to charge a small fee for admission to the night sessions. Reserved seats can be secured at Boyle's and Huber's drug stores after Monday.

The first session, Thursday morning, will be opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Ward, President of the Westminster Theological Seminary. Dr. J. W. Hering will deliver the Address of Welcome, which will be responded to by Mr. Chas. W. Otto, principal of Springdale school. Following this Prof. Houck, Deputy State Supt. of Pennsylvania, will give one of his characteristic talks.

In the afternoon, Rev. Dr. Lewis, President of Western Maryland College, will deliver an address; Prof. Hamell, of the State Normal School, will instruct the teachers how to make and use inexpensive apparatus for experiments in physics, and Prof. Austin, of the same school, will show the importance of "Natural Science in the Public Schools," and how easily it can be taught by the live teacher.

At night Miss Helen M. Cole, of the Normal School, will lecture on "The Province of Elocution," and recite "Phaeton, A Mythological Tale" from Ovid. Prof. Little, of Washington, will give a Chalk-Talk, and Prof. Houck will lecture.

Friday morning the session will be opened with prayer by Rev. Father Sargent, of the Order of the Holy Cross. Prof. Little will do some more Chalk-talking, Col. Passmore, of Philadelphia, will lecture, and State Superintendent Prettyman will instruct in "Teaching the Federal and State Constitutions in the Public Schools."

In the afternoon Miss Cole will give "A Lession in Physical and Vocal Training," Prof. Samuel A. Baer, City Supt. of Reading, Pa., will lecture and Prof. Houck will talk.

At night Prof. Baer, Prof. James W. Reese, of Western Maryland College, and State Supt. Prettyman will deliver addresses. All the meetings will be enlivened with music by competent choristers and soloists. On Saturday morning the teachers will be paid their salaries for the winter term of school.

Surprises all Around.

Friday last was the nineteenth anniversary of the marriage of Deputy Clerk and Mrs. George A. Miller, of Church street, this city. Mr. Miller very cleverly surprised Mrs. Miller on the occasion by presenting her with a handsome reclining chair, and then, during the evening, both were surprised by an unannounced party of their friends, who visited their home in a body, bringing with them supplies for a sumptuous feast, and determined to have a good time. They were not disappointed, but received a cordial welcome with the freedom of the home. In the midst of the diversions that followed, the character of the occasion was made known to the visitors and it is seldom that a wedding anniversery is more merrily and happily celebrated. The succession of surprises added zest to the event and it was a happy party, some of whom glided away to the music of the "merry, merry bells," at a late hour and after all had heartily enjoyed the splendid feast prepared for the occasion. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Matthews, Mrs. George W. Miller, Miss Janie Miller, Mr. George E. Matthews, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Miller, and son, and Miss Rosie Miller, of Sandyville; Mr. and Mrs. William D. Bush, Mr. Wm. C. Benson, of Gamber.

A sleighing party from Lineboro visited Mr. Wm. Crumrine's near here, one night last week. A large crowd was present and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Last week an enjoyable party was held at Isaac Albright's near Sherman's Church. A number of our young people participated in the pleasures of the evening.

We now hear there was no truth in the assertion that the singing choir of Sherman's church was locked out—and we are also informed that no chapel will be built.

Messrs. George H. Brown and Noah L. Geiman, of near Hanover, Pa., spent Friday in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zepp, Sr., of near here, spent Saturday at Mr. Philip Yosts, of Black Rock, Pa.

Miss Laura S. Sullivan, of near Lineboro, was visiting in our town on Sunday last.

The Sunday School convention at Sherman's Church on Saturday was a complete success.

For the Sentinel.

A Large Surprise Party.

Friday evening last the home of Mr. Uriah Englar, near New Windsor, was the scene of a very enjoyable time. The occasion was a surprise party, given in honor of Mr. Englar's daughters, Miss Lydie and Miss Grace Englar, by their many friends. Guests began to come at 6 o'clock and at 8 the house was filled to overflowing. Soon parlor games were introduced and all were in a happy mood and determined to have a pleasant time, which was fully realized. At 11 o'clock refreshments were served consisting of all the delicacies of the season. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Englar, Misses Lydie and Grace Englar, Edna Rinehart, Sadie Stoner, Mollie Royer, Florence Englar, Minnie Garner, Beulah Hoffman, Florence Garner, Olive and Ida Snader, Etta Snader, May and Effie Devilbiss, Annie Cover, Mary Shaw, Gertie and Mattie Devilbiss, Annie Hoff, Mary Gardner, Grace Warner, Hannah Shunk, Effie and May Repp. Messrs. ### Manchester Items.

The temperature has risen during the last few days and the snow is disappearing under the genial rays of the sun. The drifts along many of the public roads which the driving wind has covered with earth from the fields made bare by its fury, giving them the appearance of miniature mountains, are sinking, and sleighing is a thing of the past. We have reports, from different sections, of the effect of the long-continued cold weather, terminated by the existing warm wave, which tell of streams frozen solid that were never known to be so before, in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. Apples and potatoes were nipped by the frost in cellars previously supposed to have been frost-proof.

Trinity Reformed congregation voted unanimously, at the meeting on Saturday last, in favor of extending a call to Rev. Reoder, of Elizabethtown, Pa. Forty-one votes were cast. The congregation of Lazarus Church also elected him unanimously.

Three petitions from the churches of this charge, largely signed, were forwarded to Rev. Zinkhan, Baltimore, President of the Md. Classis, praying him to call a special meeting here in two weeks to restore Jerusalem (Bachman's) Church to this charge.

Rev. C. M. Eyster, at Sunday evening's service, in a review of church work, stated that the Manchester charge of the Lutheran Church now has 1005 members in good standing; and the question of division has been quietly working its way among the authorities and gained such headway that a joint consistory meeting was held on Wednesday afternoon to consider the matter and, if possible, carry it into effect.

On Tuesday last Mr. Chester W. Stick purchased the property on the corner of Foundry avenue and Main street, from Mr. Henry F. Warner, for the sum of $3,000, and will fit it up for a first class hotel. He will take possession in the spring.

Saturday last was quite a gala day in our town and brought a large number of persons from the surrounding country, so that our streets were alive with sleighs and sleds. The firemen had their rainbow festival in full blast in the I. O. O. F. hall, which was decorated in the rainbow colors. The firemen will continue their festival on Friday and Saturday evenings, on the latter of which the raffle for the set of dinner dishes will take place. A shooting match for a gold watch attracted a large crowd to the rear of the engine-house, where the marksmen made a display of their ability in hitting the center if not missing the block entirely. Of the 150 or 160 shots two tied with center shots, the chance of Billy Wilson, shot by Mr. John Folker, and that of Mr. Christian Hunt, shot by Mr. Simon Giggard, of Cranberry. By a mutual agreement between Messrs. Hunt and Wilson, Mr. H. became the possesor of the watch.

War prices prevailed in our town in eggs last week. The hucksters and stores were paying 30 cents per dozen. Pork too is way above the price of many past years, while shoats and pigs are very scarce, and 50 to 100 per cent. higher than last year.

A number of our young folks enjoyed a delightful sleighing party to Hampstead on Wednesday of last week and spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mrs. Watson Turner, nee Miss Emma Berwager, of York street. While in Hampstead some of the party witnessed a sleighing accident. A young man driving rapidly ran the breast of his horse against the shaft of a sleigh going in the opposite direction. The shaft entered the breast of the animal to the depth of eight or ten inches and broke off. The young man unconscious of the injury to his horse, sped onward some distance along the street before discovering the fact. The piece of shaft was removed with difficulty, and the wounded animal only lived a short time. He was said to have been valued at $250.

Social Near Freedom.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mrs. John Bennett, near Freedom, on Wednesday, 25th inst. Miss Bessie Davis, Mr. E. Lauterbach and Mrs. F. Harris were the committee. With a few exceptions all the invitations were accepted, all having been certain of a hospitable welcome and a good time. There was great good fellowship and pleasant experiences in playing shadowgraph, conversation consequences, charades and other games, until all were invited to the dining room, where there was an abundance of good things to satisfy the inner man, which were fully discussed, after which the "feast of reason and flow of soul" was resumed until all were reluctantly compelled, by the lateness of the hour, to take their departure. One of the leaders of the social affairs will leave the state of single blessedness very shortly and took all the pleasure possible from this, his last "fling" as a single man. It is with sorrow we lose him, but hope it will be for his gain. Great praise is due the committee for their wise selection of guests, as they were congenial and anxious to make everyone have a good time. Following is a list of those present: Misses Grace Conrey, L. Kelly, Ida Conrey, Lulu Baker, of Baltimore county; L. Ridgely, Sadie Reed, Ethel Selby, Bessie Davis, A. Shipley, Amanda Buckingham, Edna Gaither, Grace Scrivnor, of Carroll county; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Selby, Mrs. L. Barnes, Miss B. Barnett, Miss Carrie Dennis, of Baltimore; Messrs. William Melville, Shriver Brandenburg, Wm. Gaither, J. W. Gates, Arthur Odell, E. L. Lauterbach, H. N. Devries, Wm. Diggs, D. Foutz, R. Diggs, J. Reynolds, H. Reed, A. Barnett, W. Ruby, Vernon Ridgely, R. H. H. Shipley, R. Bennett, Clinton Brandenburg, Albert Selby and others.

Bird Hill Items.

During the two weeks preceding Monday last the young folks of this section enjoyed the fine sleighing to the full, but on the day named old Sol rose in his strength and put an end to the pleasant diversion for the present.

Mr. Laban Ogg, who was confined to the house with rheumatism, is able to walk about again.

The winter term of school, taught by Mrs. Nutting, will close on Friday. The average attendance of pupils is fifty-five and the school has been conducted in a very efficient manner.

Under the influence of the more moderate temperature that has prevailed this week the snow has been gradually disappearing and the surface of the ice on streams and ponds melting.

Union Mills Items.

Work on the Reformed Church, at Silver Run, which was stopped on account of the extreme cold weather, will be resumed again next week.

The flour mill of B. F. Shriver & Co., which has been literally frozen up for the past couple weeks, during which time not a barrel of flour was made, is just beginning to thaw out.

A gun club is about being organized in our village, and a spring trap and a barrel of clay pigeons have already been ordered. G. W. Yeiser, John Warehime, Edward Stonesifer and "Shorty" Groft are some of the men that will belong to the club.

A revival has been in progress at Moorhead Methodist Episcopal Church the past week or more. Thus far one convert has been obtained.

Mr. Wm. H. Bankert was attacked with catarrh of the hand before the holidays and has since suffered most severely with the same. His attending physician is Dr. J. J. Stewart, who had in consultation with him, Dr. Zeigler, of Melrose, last Sunday. Mr. Bankert's hand is yet in a rather serious condition, but the opinion of the doctors is that it will ultimately heal and become sound again.

A Pleasant Party.

An exceedingly pleasant sleighing party gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Steele, near this city, on Tuesday evening. The guests were cordially welcomed and entertained with generous hospitality. The evening was spent in dancing and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Elegant refreshments were served Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Steele, Mrs. Wm. Steele, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown, Misses L. Royer, M. Miller, M. Wickert, C. Albaugh, M. Royer, M. Sullivan, G. Steele, F. Albaugh, M. Orndorff, E. Bankard, M. Bish, E. M. Palmer, C. Schaeffer, C. Kerchner, C. Bankard, Tillie Baer, E. Steele, C. Barnhardt, A. Hunt, I. Gillmer, Messrs. W. Ebaugh, R. Hoppe, C. Lockard, J. H. Cassell, J. Myers, L. Ebaugh, W. Baer, D. Geiman, L. Barnes, J. P. Royer, H. M. Schaeffer, H. Hesson, W. N. Keefer, W. Orndorff, C. Stephan, W. C. Wickert, J. T. Derr, H. Albaugh, John Stonesifer, A. C. Bell, J. Wampler, F. Orndorff, T. I. Derr, J. L. Schaeffer, A. L. Hosfeld, Chas. Hosfeld, G. T. Hosfeld, H. Warehime, W. Webster, D. Barnhardt.

Shipley Items.

After a long siege of cold weather, we are having a more moderate spell. The ice bound streams and snow covered hills have each yielded to the warm rays of the sun during the last few days. Sleighing was a thing of great pleasure and was much enjoyed by all who could procure teams.

The severe cold found its way into many of our underground cellars and nipped the jarred fruit and potatoes. Those who did not have tight stabling for their stock found it very difficult to keep them warm, during the long period of cold weather.

The measles, which were so prevalent here for the past few weeks, have made a clean sweep and passed on.

We are informed that Mr. Joseph H. Shipley, of Caledonia, has purchased the farm of Mr. Lloyd B. Shipley, near Morgan Run, on the Washington road, for $3,500.

Mrs. Joseph Wilson is lying very critically ill with pneumonia.

A Surprise Pound Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Beggs, of Warfieldsburg, was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party, Thursday evening, 19th inst. The evening was spent in social conversation, games, vocal and instrumental music, &c. At 11 o'clock all were invited to the dining room to partake of refreshments, consisting of cake, lemonade, confectionery, fruits and nuts. At a late hour all departed for their homes having spent a very pleasant evening. Among those present were. Mr. and Mrs. John Beggs, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Duvall, Misses Ella, Carrie, Gertie, and Effie Beggs, Mr. Clayton Beggs, Misses Minnie Summers, Clara Lantz, Madie Foutz, Carrie Myerly, Mollie Sauble, Blanche Stoner, Maggie Colliflower, Sally Danner, Annie and Sally Koontz, Wivie Stitley, Mattie Hull, Dr. Gardner, Messrs. Reported for the Sentinel.

A Surprise Party.

A pleasant party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Myerly, Spring Mills, on the 24th inst. Quite a pleasant time was enjoyed by all, listening to select music and engaging in parlor games and social conversation, until 11.30 o'clock, when all repaired to the dining room, where refreshments were served in abundance. All regretted when the hour for parting came. The departing guests bade adieu to Mr. and Mrs Myerly with many thanks for the pleasant time they had spent. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Myerly, Misses Levia Cook, Birdie Little, Wivie Stitley, Ella Beggs, Clara Lantz, Madie Foutz, Minnie Summers, Sallie Danner, Carrie Myerly, Mattie Hull, Annie Koontz; Helen Dudley, Fannie Beckenbaugh, Hanover, Pa.; Messrs.
