NEWS OF SERVICES IN CHURCHES OF KENT COUNTY

RADIANT LIVING

Thank Radiantly

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth

Pastor Ridgely M. E. Church

Ridgely, Md.

After all, the realm in which one lives is the realm of the consciousness. And that realm is either a happy realm or it is a miserable realm, according to the kind of thoughts which you people it.

I shudder at the wretchedness of the though-life of some that I have met. Their minds are like dismal swamps, dark, miry, treacherous, the lurking places of the lizards of envy, the snakes of vengence, and misasmatic with the poisons of unbelief and blasphemy.

Others have I met who were radiant with joy and fragrance, whose minds were as sunny flower gardens, filled with the roses of affection, the lilies of purity, and the forget-me-nots of appreciation.

Why this difference? Here is the secret which I discovered. One group thought only of the things that are negative, miserable and depressing. While the other group keep before their minds only those things that are positive, cheerful and uplifting.

Lift your thoughts and your thoughts will lift you. Brighten your thoughts and they will brighten you. Ennoble your thoughts and they will ennoble you.

Think radiantly and you will live radiantly.

As St. Paul has written: "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are pure, whatsover things are lovely, whatsoeverthings are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think of these things."

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear son, Joseph Clifton Everett, who died ten years ago April 4, 1930.

The blow was hard, the shock severe
We never thought his death so near,
Only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.
We little thought when leaving home
That he would never return.
That he so soon in death would sleep
And leave us here to mourn.
By his mother.
