THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Invitations have been received to the wedding of Miss Priscilla Claggett Grainger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Brice, junior and Mr. Adair Morey McKoy junior which will take place on Saturday, April 27. The ceremony will be performed in Emmanuel Church at 8 o'clock in the evening, with a reception following the ceremony at Arcadia Farm, the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Grainger, who has been extensively entertained, will again be the guest of honor to-day at a tea and shower to be given by Miss Christine Catlin at the Sophie Fisher Inn. Miss Catlin will be one of the bridesmaids.

Up at Washington College, the week-end will be gay as the K A's are having their installation followed by a dance to-night. Miss Sara Speicher will have as her week-end guests Misses Anne and Imilda Buckingham of Baltimore, who, with Miss Speicher, will be among those attending the dance.

On Wednesday, of the coming week, the board of the Kent County branch of the Maryland Children's Aid is giving a tea at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. The public is most cordially invited, and mark my word, there will be no charge nor any contributions asked for. One of the delightful features of the occasion will be the presence of Mr. Ogden Nash, noted poet, who will read some of his poems. So simply put a circle around the 17th on your calendar, and be sure to go.

To-morrow, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whitworth, their daughter, Miss Betty Whitworth, and Miss Martha Speicher will return to their homes here after having spent the last three months in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott Robinson entertained at dinner last Saturday evening, at which time, they celebrated the 6th anniversary of their wedding.

Miss Miriam Sewell also entertained at dinner last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. James W. Sullivan, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Sullivan was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill last week.

Mr. John W. Barnes returned to his home here Sunday from the Homeopathic Hospital in Wilmington, Del., where he has been a patient for five weeks, following three operations. Mr. Barnes is greatly improved and is anticipating the celebration of his 84th birthday in July. Mrs. Harry Wilkison, of Baltimore is a guest of her father.

Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Ford have returned from a motor trip to Branford, Ontario, which they took during the recent Spring vacation at Washington College.

Mrs. Elizabeth Childs, of New York, is a guest of her mother and brother, Mrs. H. S. Brown and Col. H. S. Brown at Godlington Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Bryan of New York are week-end guests of Col. and Mrs. Mills Bunker at their home in the Wickes Apts.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa., are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Brown spent last week-end in Philadelphia as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinckley.

Mrs. J. Elliott Gilpin, of Baltimore, has returned to Chestertown for a visit with Mrs. H. Clay Brown.

Mrs. Julio Deltoro, of Ann Arbor, Mich, is a guest of her sisters, Misses Martha and Sara Skipper.

The miniature exhibit arranged by Mrs. Charles Satterfield won the first prize, when judged by Mr. Harry B. Cannon out of 42 displays. Mr. Cannon, who was the guest speaker at the April meeting of Our Garden Club held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Claude Truslow, judged the exhibits following his talk. Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell and Mrs. Clarke Grieb were awarded honorable mention respectively.

Gardens and flowers with May Day approaching, give us the urge to get out and get busy. Why put off? Righ now—

Yours digging,

The Wanderer

College Editors To Meet Here

"For the improvement and the betterment of the small college newspaper" is the theme of the Washington College Editor's Conference which will be held at Washington College, Chestertown, Maryland, on Aprli 19, 20, and 21. The Conference, which is presented under the sponsorship of the Washington Elm, the Washington College Weekly, will be the first of its type to be held in this section of the country for many years.

Under the leadership of Edwin A. Ohler, editor of the Elm, Ralph R. Thornton, steering committee chairman ,and Calvert Jones, Jr., publicity chairman, the final plans are rapidly being whipped into shape.

Delegates from the various colleges will register on Friday at one o'clock which will be followed by the opening session. Among the numerous round table discussions will be forums for feature editors, sports editors, editorial writers, and news writers. P. P. Heck, Chestertown attorney, will speak to the group on "The Law Limits Journalism." Highspots of the Conference will be a tennis match between West Chester and Washington Colleges ,a banquet on Saturday evening followed by a dance. At the closing session on Sunday Morning, plans will be made for the formation of a permanent organization.

Among the colleges who have expressed their intentions of attending are St. Joseph's College, American University, Muhlenburg College, West Chester State Teacher's College, Swarthmore, the University of Delaware, Western Maryland, Gettysburg and Mt. St. Mary's College.

Meeting of the Northern Convocation

The Northern Convocation of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Easton, which includes the Parishes and Chapels of Cecil and Kent Counties, will hold its Spring meeting next Thursday evening, April 18, at 8 p. m. in St. Clements Church, Massey. There will be a short service conducted by the Rector, The Rev. J. H. Garner, the Dean, and Bishop McClelland. The Bishop will also preach the sermon. After the Service there will be a business meeting, at which suggestions will be asked for the coming year, and matters proposed for the Diocesan Convention, on May 7th. Officers, consisting of Dean, Secretary and Treasurer, will also be nominated at this meeting. Delegates, the number of whom is not limited, are asked from all Parishes and Churches in the Convocation.
