SHO'MEN SPORTS

EDDIE OHLER

At the annual spring meeting of the Board of Managers of the W. I. A. A. held last Thursday the following girls were elected to the Honorary Basketball Varsity:

Forwards — Margaret Gardener, Peggy Quinn, Evelyn White.

Guards — Louisa Hall, Ginny Hoopes, and Catherine Newton.

Honorable mention—Betty Beck, Peggy Pitt, Priscilla Brown, and Betty Dockhorn.

New Award

At the meeting mentioned above a new award was established for a senior woman. The board selected Margaret Gardner as the most outstanding athlete in all phases of sports.

A Jinx Broken

Students and faculty were happy alike last Saturday when Washington College defeated the University of Maryland nine by a 3-1 score. Behind the five hit pitching of "Lefty" Copple, the Sho'men easily outplayed the Terps.

Wilson Scheurholz made the most beautiful catch of the game in the sixth inning when he ran back and caught a high hit ball that seemed good for a circuit hit.

Question Settled

The Easton Yankees fell before the Sho'men by a 8-6 count in an eleven inning contest played in Easton Monday afternoon. Joe Bremer was the big gun of the locals offense, getting 4 hits out of six trips to bat. Mike Kardash got two hits.

John Selby, Harold Rayne and Lefty Copple all pitched in the exhibition game.

Many people now believe that Washington College baseball is of as good a class as that played in the Eastern Shore League. It is claimed that pitching is better in college ball than in the Class D league.

Penn Relays

For the first time in quite a few years, Washington College's mile relay entered in the Mason-Dixon Mile at the Penn Relays failed to win first place. This past Saturday the Sho'men were nosed out by Catholic University and Delaware.

A Prediction

Washington College should experience one of its' most successful baseball seasons this year. With Maryland and Easton defeated, the locals should come out on top of the Maryland teams. There is even a good chance the Kiblermen may go undefeated. And here's hoping.

Two Days in Maryland

Yesterday and today (Saturday) finds the Maroons on a two day road trip in Western Maryland. Yesterday the locals met Western Maryland and today Kibler's charges meet the Mt. St. Mary's. The results of this two day jaunt will have a definite bearing on the championship of the Maryland Collegiate League for the present diamond season.

Stevens—Outfielder

Jimmy Stevens Maroon centerfielder, is the fastest man on the Sho'men baseball squad. Hit a ball within a half a mile of Jimmy and he'll get it. Jim played up at Malone, New York, last summer with "Mkie" Kardash and proved to be a valuable hitter as well as fielder. Although he has not been up to par in hitting this season, he was top man on the batting average last season. He comes by his baseball honestly for his father is a former big leaguer, performing for the Washington Senators and Philadelphia Athletics.

A Good Catcher

Coach Kibler was worried earlier in the year about getting a catcher to fill Howard "Stud" Pfund's place. In Joe Bremer Kibler has found just what he wants. Joe has a good arm to second and handles himself well behind the plate. Against Easton Monday, Joe got four hits which shows he's got plenty of hitting power.

Games to Come

Next Friday will find Hampden-Sidney visiting Kibler Field as the guests of the Washington College nine. Little is known of the strength of the Virginians, but they usually turn out creditable teams. And on the following day, the Sho'men travel to Delaware to meet the Blue Hens. Traditional rivalry in all sports will make this game a close, hard fought one.

Track Team Busy

George Ekaitis' trackmen have a busy week ahead of them. Today they meet Hopkins in a dual meet on Kibler Field. This will be the only sports event on the campus this week-end. On Wednesday Delaware's cinder men will visit Chestertown to meet the Sho'men in a dual meet. On the following Friday and Saturday, Coach Ekaitis and his squad will be in Easton, Penna., where Layfayette College will be the host to the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Association annual meet.

Tennis

Today finds Coach Winton Tolles' racqueteers up at Emmitsburg, where they will meet Mt. St. Mary's. This is the first year that the Mounts have appeared on a Sho'men schedule and little is known of their strength. On the following Saturday Western Maryland, which defeated the Sho'men 5-4 recently, will invade the local courts in an attempt to make it two wins.

Bullets vs. Maroons

Washington College won its seventh straight victory on the baseball diamond Wednesday when the locals handed Gettysburg College a 2-0 defeat. "Lefty" Copple again proved his superiority on the mound by putting the Bullets down with two hits. Gettysburg never threatened. Copple striking out about twelve men. Mike Kardash hit a homer with a man on base for the locals only runs.
