Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Devilbiss, of this city, returned from their bridal trip on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Charles H. Baughman, of the Baltimore Custom House, spent several days in this city, this week.

Mr. Harry H. Baughman, of Baltimore, spent Sunday last with his mother, Mrs. M. Baughman, of this city.

The Westminster Band was warmly complimented for its fine playing at the inauguration of President Cleveland.

Prescott Hill, colored, who is employed as a waiter in Baltimore, was sent to jail for disturbing the funeral services of his sister, in this city, on Tuesday.

The Frederick accommodation train going west, on Wednesday evening, ran over and killed a valuable setter dog belonging to State Senator Bennett, of this city.

Mr. F. H. Orndorff, of this city, who was appointed one of the Road Commissioners for Westminster district, has declined to serve, thus leaving a vacancy to be filled by the County Commissioners.

The sale of the house and lot at the West End of this city, and of personal property belonging to the estate of the late David Zepp, announced by his executor, W. H. H. Zepp, to take place on Saturday last, was, on account of the snow storm that prevailed on that day, postponed until this afternoon at 1 o'clk.

An old New Windsor subscriber, into whose family the SENTINEL has gone for thirty-five years, in renewing the subscription for another year, a few days ago, spoke of the great pleasure it has afforded in all the years referred to and of the high appreciation in which it has always been held as a local family newspaper, by the members of the household.

It transpires that the fireman who was fatally injured by the explosion of Western Maryland freight engine No. 48, at Hagerstown, on Sunday night, was Mr. Hezekiah H. Hawk, of Taneytown. Mr. Hawk died from the injuries sustained and his remains were sent to Taneytown for interment. He was an unmarried man and had been in the employ of the Western Maryland Railroad Company about 10 months.

At the union sale of stock held on the farm of Mr. J. C. Buckey, near New Windsor, on the 1st inst., 31 horses were brought together, of which 26 were offered and 12 were sold; 11 bulls were offered and eight of them sold, and 6 cows were offered of which 2 were sold. The stock offered but not sold was bid in by the owners. Twenty-six farmers from different parts of the county were interested in the sale.

Mr. Emanuel Stoner, of Sedgwick, Kansas, is expected to arrive here to-day, and will, with his family, make this city his future home.

Rumors have been in circulation in this city for several days that Dr. H. C. Nelson, who has been very ill at Concord, N. H., is dead.

The manuscript of an account of a social party in Wakefield Valley, left at this office by a gentleman of that locality, was accidentally mislaid and cannot be found. The writer of the account would confer a favor by sending us a duplicate for publication next week.

William Spencer was before Justice William Moore, on Wednesday, on the charge of having made a felonious assault on Mrs. Cora Frank, near Sandyville, sometime in February. He was released on bail in the sum of $300, for a further hearing on Thursday, 16th inst.

The wedding of Miss Annie G. Cassell, of this city, and Mr. Edward V. Clarke, of Boston, Mass., announced to take place at Grace Lutheran Church, at 5 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, has been postponed on account of the severe indisposition of the prospective groom. Mr. Clarke is very ill with a fever and pending his sickness no date can as yet be named for the marriage.

Miss Sallie Yingling, a well known maiden lady of Pleasant Valley, while walking in her yard, on Tuesday, slipped on a piece of ice and fell to the ground with her weight on her left hand, and with such force that the lower extremity of the left arm was fractured and the wrist joint dislocated. Dr. M. L. Bott, of this city, was summoned and adjusted the fracture and reduced the dislocation, and Miss Yingling is doing very well.

Snow commenced falling in this county about two o'clock last Saturday morning and continued until noon. The wind blew a gale and many of the roads, which were being opened to travel from the previous snow blockade, were again drifted full and the passage of vehicles entirely obstructed. The star-route mails were delayed and the carriers were only able to make their trips by taking to the fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stoner, who celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, at their home near Warfieldsburg, on Wednesday evening, remembered the printer on the festive occasion and complimented the SENTINEL office with a generous box of cake as a testimonial of their regard, for which they will please accept thanks. A full account of their "golden wedding" will be found in another column.

The funeral of Mr. Samuel V. Bankert, of this city, whose death was announced in last week's SENTINEL, took place at St. John's Catholic Church on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends, including the members of St. John's Catholic Benevolent Association, of which he was a member. The remains were interred in St. John's Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Jos. B. Boyle, Amos W. Hahn, Edward Cress, John Daly, J. Pius Little and C Herbert Fowler.

The SENTINEL last week inadvertently stated, in its report of the proceedings of the Circuit Court, that the verdict of the jury in the breach of promise case of Celia Harner, by her mother and next friend, Amelia Harner, against Harvey Shorb, was for the defendant. It should have said for the plaintiff, and that damages were assessed at $2,000. The indisposition of the editor must plead in excuse of this and other inaccuracies, if any, in last week's issue.

The Baltimore Sunday Herald, of the 5th inst., published reports of interviews with a number of prominent clergymen, giving their methods of preparing their sermons. Among them was Rev. L. M. Zimmerman, the well known pastor of Christ English Lutheran Church, in South Baltimore, whom the Herald denominates "one of the brightest young divines of the city," and "known as one of the most eloquent ministers who have charges" there. Mr. Zimmerman is a native of this county, and a son of Mr. Henry Zimmerman, a prominent farmer of Manchester district.

Mr. R. Wyndham Walden has greatly enlarged his racing and training stock farm, "Bolingbroke," at Middleburg, by purchasing and adding thereto a number of adjacent and contiguous properties. Among these is the Clabaugh farm, "Cloverbrook," formerly belonging to and kept by the late E. A. Clabaugh as a breeding and training farm for racing stock, and afterwards the property of his son, Upshur Clabaugh, now deceased. This farm contains 400 acres, and the price paid for it by Mr. Walden was $40,000. The other properties purchased are: The farm of Mr. Ephraim Buffington, about 160 acres, with improvements, $5,000; the farm of Mr. John W. Angel, about 160 acres, with improvements, $5,000, and a lot of 2 acres from Chas. Devilbiss, for $700. By these purchases the "Bolingbroke" farm is enlarged to nearly 1,100 acres.

Death of Mrs. Geo. H. Mitten.

Mrs. Mary L. Mitten, wife of Mr. Geo. H. Mitten, of Union Bridge, died on Monday evening at John's Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, where an operation had been performed upon her last week for intestinal adhesion. Mrs. Mitten had suffered intensely from the effects of the disease, and the only hope of relief was in the result of the operation. The prospect of her recovery subsequently was cheerful, but delusive, and a fatal termination ensued as stated. Mrs. Mitten was a daughter of the late George Null, of Liberty, Frederick county, Md., and was in the 28th year of her age. She leaves her husband, who is a son of Mr. John H. Mitten, manager of the SENTINEL, but no children. Her remains were removed to Union Bridge, where funeral services were held Thursday morning, in St. Paul's Reformed Church, Rev. M. L. Firor, the pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. J. J. Murray, D. D., and Elder Ephraim W. Stoner. A large concourse of relatives and friends was in attendance. The floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful. After the church services the remains were taken to Liberty and interred in the cemetery at that place. A large number of persons had assembled to witness the last sad rites at the grave, where Rev. M. L. Firor was assisted by Rev. J. M. Gill in the performance of the burial services, and a choir of young ladies and gentlemen sang two select funeral anthems. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. H. C. Dern, Charles Little, Theo. Wolfe, Jos. Baker, W. C. Gilbert, Chas. Hiltabridle.

Meeting of the County Commissioners—District Road Commissioners Appointed.

The County Commissioners were in session on Monday and Tuesday, all the members present. The important duty of naming the district Boards of Road Commissioners was taken up and performed during the meeting, and full Boards were appointed for all the districts except Freedom, No. 5. Commissioners for this district were agreed upon, but notified the County Board that they would not accept the appointment, which was, therefore, held in abeyance. The appointments announced are as follows:

Taneytown District No. 1.—George W. Frame, Verley J. Clousher, Wm. Keiser.

Uniontown District No. 2.—Emanuel Fisher, Samuel Wentz, Davis Myers.

Myers' District No. 3.—Wm. P. Halter, Wm. G. Warehime, Levi J. Motter.

Woolery's District No. 4.—Hanson T. Bartholow, Jabez A. Bush, Lewis H. Knox.

Charles F. Myers, administrator of Jesse Myers, deceased, settled first and final account.

A Pleasant Birthday Surprise Party.

On Wednesday evening, March 1st, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Smith, in Middletown, was the scene of a most delightful party given by the ladies and gentlemen of the town and community to Mr. and Mrs. Smith's son, Ira. The guests were cordially welcomed. Games of various kinds were introduced and soon the house was filled with glad and merry voices. At eleven o'clock elegant refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rowe, Mrs. Ida Rowe, Misses Effie Harris, Rosa Rowe, Nora Winters, Mary Catsendafner, Nettie and Minnie Routson, Florence Smith, Rhoda and Mellie Smith, Bessie Rowe, Messrs. Ira Smith, Harry Eckard, Jesse and Charlie Catsendafner, Edgar and Frank Rowe, Bernie Wilson, George Rowe, Charlie and Willie Smith, Calvin Hann, Eddie Englar, Maurice Smith, Frank and Murray Smith and others. At one o'clock the guests departed wishing many more such happy birthdays to the recipient of the surprise.

Gamber Items.

Mrs. Charlotte A. Jordan, who had been visiting her three daughters at Woodbery, Baltimore, has returned home.

Miss Lida Wilson has bought a house and lot from Mr. Lewis Shipley, in this place, and contemplates locating here and opening a dress-making establishment.

Jonn E. Jordan, whose foot was cut very badly, is able to get about the house on a crutch, but as yet cannot bear any weight on the foot.

Our fur-trappers are still busy. Mr. F. Stubbins caught a ground hog a few days ago and Harry Arnold last night caught a coon and a couple of ground hogs.

Mr. Wm. D. Bush has moved on the old homestead farm of the late Wm. H. Lamotte. Mr. Wm. F. Barnes has moved to the property he recently purchased at mortgagees' sale in this place.

Dancing and other social parties are all the features of the day at present, although the roads are in a bad condition.

Our Cornet Band boys are still practicing every week.

Melrose Items.

The Busy Bee Society of Wentz's school met on Friday of last week, with the following officers: Andrew J. Wilson, Pres.; Tilden James, Sec.; Sarah V. James, Critic. An enjoyable time was spent and at a late hour all departed for their homes, no doubt to dream of the pleasant evening they had spent.

Mr. Cornelius Shaffer, of Omaha, Nebraska, is visiting his old home here. He has travelled through many of the Western states.

The report is that a new store will be opened here in the spring.

Mr. Chas. Sullivan of the vicinity of Uniontown, spent Saturday and Sunday last with his mother in our town.

Mr. John Sharp, formerly of this neighborhood, passed through our town last week.

Porters Items.

The sociable at Messiah Church, held March 1st, was very well attended considering the almost impassable condition of the roads. The collection also was good. Many of those who were to have assisted in entertaining the audience were kept at home through sickness. The program as rendered was as follows: Chorus, "All people that on earth do dwell;" prayer, by Rev. H. A Letterman; chorus, "Bear the joyful tidings;" recitation, "The Kind of little girl the people like to see," C. Rawlings; chorus, "Bury thy sorrow;" reading, "The Church Spider," by Miss Lilly Rawlings; duet, "Gentle Smiles," by Misses Dora and Annie Hess; dialogue, "How three new members were won," by four young ladies; Remarks by Mr. G. W. Hess, "Woman's influence in the temperance cause," impromptu; recitation, "Lips that touch liquor shall never touch mine," Minnie McKinney; chorus, the Gospel Banner; instrumental music, Harry Letterman; reading, Mrs. "Bunker's City shopping," J. R. Ways; chorus, Lulu May. Mr. Harry Letterman presided at the organ.

Our neighborhood was greatly shocked to learn of the sudden death of Mr. James Grimes, son of Mr. David Grimes, near Porters. Mr. Grimes had but recently moved his family here from Baltimore, and had intended to make his home with his father.

Mrs. Sarah A. Barnes died at the home of her son, Mr. W. F. Barnes, in Porters, after a short illness, of pneumonia.

The wife and five children of Mr. Jacob Jenkins are all very sick at this time

Shipley Items.

Every thing seems quiet with us, and our folks are in brighter spirits since so much sickness has ceased and the long, cold winter is nearing its end.

Our public roads are very muddy and in many places in bad condition, but we hope the future administration of public roads will pan out a success to the traveling public, and that school teachers and other county officials will not have to pay for opening up public roads after snow storms, for the mere sake of getting to their schools and official duties.

Grain is wintering well, considering so much snow and so many hard freezes.

Mr. Levi Frizzell has rented E. G. Shipley's tenant house for another year. Mr. Jesse Little, Jr., has rented Emanuel Bowers' house, near Shipley P. O., and moved thereto.

Mr. John Schneider has a young cow which dropped a pair of twin calves last week. It is difficult to decide which is the proudest of the calves; the mother or the owner.

Daniel Items.

Mr. Will Criswell, of Illinois, formerly of Carroll county, is visiting his parents, near here.

The many friends of Miss Nannie Stem, who has been very ill with pneumonia, are glad to know that she is convalescent. Dr. Ed. Cronk, is the physician in attendance.

Mrs. Wolbert, of this county, died suddenly in Baltimore, recently. Her remains were interred at Morgan's Chapel, Rev. H. L. Shipley officiating.

Reported for the SENTINEL.

50th Anniversary—Golden Wedding.

On Wednesday, March 8th, quite a pleasant and unusual event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stoner, near Warfieldsburg, the occasion having been the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. At the hour of 1 o'clock quite a crowd had assembled, of relatives and friends. A very earnest prayer was offered by Mr. Isaac C. Forrest, after which the spacious dining room was thrown open and a sumptuously prepared dinner met the gaze and to which the inner man was ready to do ample justice. Oysters, steaming hot, were first served, after which came the ever welcome turkey, with its accompaniments, followed by ice cream, cakes, and fruits of the season. After all had partaken bountifully of the dinner, which was served in old Maryland style, they retired to the drawing room, which was appropriately decorated with flowers. The evening was spent in social conversation, interspersed with music, &c. Mr. and Mrs. Stoner were the recipients of quite a number of handsome presents, over thirty dollars of which were in gold coins. Mr. Stoner is seventy-three years old and Mrs. Stoner sixty-eight. They are enjoying good health and were very happy and cheerful. They have great reason to be thankful for the goodness and mercy which has been extended to them, through life, by the Supreme Being who rules all things. They are the parents of seven children, Mrs. John K. Diehl, Mrs. Peter H. Cover, Mrs. John T. Beggs, Mrs. Wm. Hemmings, the latter now of Philadelphia; Messrs. Dora, Edwin and Horatio Stoner. All are living, and all married except Horatio. Those present on the interesting anniversary were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Cover, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Beggs, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hemmings, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Stoner, Mr. Horatio Stoner, Mr. Jacob Stoner, the latter of Union Bridge; Mrs. Lydia Little, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Owings, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shuey, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Manahan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Englar, the latter of near New Windsor; Mrs. E. J. Manahan, Mrs. E. J. Sellman, Mrs. T. Summers, Mrs. David Owings, Mr. and Mrs. J. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gist, Mrs. Margaret Burns; Mr. Geo. W. Morningstar, of Westminster; Mr. Wm. Du Pree, of Philadelphia; Mr. Lewis M. Sellman, Mr. Clayton Beggs, Misses Ella, Carrie and Lottie Beggs, Minnie Summers, Mollie Burns, May Stoner, Mr. Harry Owings, Master Roy Cover, Mr. Joe Burns. After wishing the much respected couple many returns of the day the company dispersed, having been much pleased to be present on such an occasion.

Pleasant Valley Items.

There are 37 sale bills posted at the stores here and quite a number for our neighborhood. The sale of Mr. John T. Lawyer was largely attended and everything brought fair prices. The traction engine, separator and clover huller sold for two thousand dollars to Mr. Edward Baile. Mr. Lawyer is building in our village and will move in as soon as his house is completed.

Mr. Charles Wantz has sold off and will move with his family to Quincy, Ohio.

Mr. A. P. Helwig has sold off and will move to Baltimore.

Our young photographer, Mr. Edward Miller, has left for South Carolina to commence business there.

Mr. Edward Humpert is building a fine shop on the lot bought of Mr. L. D. Wantz and will fit it up with all the latest improved machinery.

Miss Sallie Yingling fell on the ice and broke her arm. Dr. M. L. Bott, of Westminster, rendered surgical aid. This is the second time she met with an accident of this character.

Mr. Freddie G. Yingling is improving rapidly from the dislocation of his arm at the Shade sale. Mr. George Bowers is at present very ill with grip. Mr. Isaac Sullivan has been housed this winter with phthisic.

The snow storm on Saturday shut up the roads again.

Taneytown Items.

Mr. Thomas Reindollar, who has been at Harrisburg for the past four months, learning short hand writing, returned home last Thursday, 2nd inst., and expects to remain until April, when he will go to Baltimore to take a further course of instruction.

Mr. Chas. Mayers and Mr. Harry Arthur, of York, Pa., spent a few days at this place the first of the week, visiting friends.

The expected change of ticket agents, along the line of the P. R. R., heretofore mentioned in the SENTINEL, was made on Monday, 6th inst., and Mr. Geo. W. Fox, of this place, was assigned to Littlestown, Pa., and Mr. Keer, of Hanover, Pa., was assigned to this place. Mr. Fox expects to leave on Monday, 12th inst.

Mr. Hezekiah Hawk, of near this place, but who had been working on the W. M. R. R. as fireman, met with an accident at Hagerstown, on Sunday night, which terminated in death on Tuesday evening. The crown sheet of the engine blew out while he was in the act of shoveling coal into the furnace and threw him 30 feet upon the roof of a shed, also scalding him severely. Mr. Hawk was a member of the P. O. S. of A., at this place, and also a member of the Brotherhood of Firemen. His remains were brought here on Wednesday evening to his home. Funeral services were held at the Lutheran Church on Thursday afternoon, the orders to which he belonged taking part in the exercises. Rev. G. W. McSherry preached the funeral sermon.

Proceedings of the Circuit Court.

The Circuit Court has been engaged during the week in the trial of the following cases:

Wm. B. Thomas vs. Levi D. Maus. Assumpsit. Tried before the court; judgment for plaintiff for $189.44. Clabaugh & Roberts for plaintiff, Fink and Bond for defendant.

Jacob C. Hull vs. Commercial Union Assurance Company. Action to recover $1,339.05 on plaintiff's stock of goods, destroyed and damaged by fire, February 17, 1892. Fink and Clabaugh & Roberts for plaintiff, Bond for defendant.

The case was given to the jury Friday noon, who rendered a verdict of $300 for plaintiff.

Manchester Items.

The storm of Saturday last again blockaded the roads and made travelling very difficult. The snow was 3 to 5 inches or more in depth and drifted badly. Mr. John Burns who was on his gathering trip had quite a time to get through a mile on the turnpike just after he crossed Mason and Dixon's line. His six horses could hardly cope with the drifting snow and he reached home again with difficulty. The subsequent moderate weather has told effectively on the snow and now travelers are enjoying the mud, the delightful mud.

A surprise party given to Mrs. Daniel L. Dubbs, on Monday evening, the anniversary of her 50th birthday, was a complete success. She was at her home on North Main street quite unconcerned about her domestic affairs, when a sudden opening of the door was an evidence that the house was being taken posession of and a company of her friends unceremoniously entered and captured their hostess, extending their good wishes and congratulations. They were fully equipped for the occasion, so that after several hours spent in social chat and merriment a large table was spread and filled to its full capacity with cakes, confectionery, oranges, and wines, to which was added hot coffee and tea. All having regaled themselves to their satisfaction the good nights were said and all repaired to their homes. Those present were: Mrs. Charles Grove and daughter Alice, Mr. Cornelius Miller, wife and son, Mr. William H. Shower and wife, Mr. William N. Gettier, wife and daughters Norma and Ethel, Mrs. Geo. A. Shower and daughter Mira, Mrs. Edward W. Fuhrman and daughter Maggie, Miss Fannie Ross, Miss Maggie Crouse, Mrs. M. L. Morelock, Mrs. Chas. F. Everhart, Mr. G. W. J. Everhart and wife; Mrs. Otto, of Baltimore; Mrs. Chas Brilhart, Messrs. Chas. W. Grove and George Motter.

While these festivities were being held on North Main Street the residence of Mr. Henry Reagle on South Main street was alive with music and merriment in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Forrester, who had returned from their trip on Saturday evening and were honored with a serenade by our Band, in full uniform. The members were kindly received and after extending their congratulations and the rendition of some choice music, they were taken to the dining room and royally entertained. The boys were on their best behavior and did full honor to the occasion.

Definite action was not taken in relation to the restoration of the Bachman's Valley congregation to the Manchester charge of the Reformed Church, at the special meeting of Classis on Tuesday. These repeated failures to adjust this matter are very annoying to the church here and have given rise to a good deal of feeling, as they have caused delay in extending the call to Rev. Mr. Reoder who has been elected pastor of the charge.

Rev. Kohr, the U. B. minister for this circuit, preached at his appointments on Sunday last and was well received. He will reside in Hanover.

The remains of Mr. William Rinaman were brought here on Friday and laid away to rest, Rev. C. M. Eyster officiating in the Lutheran Church. On Tuesday Mr. Rinaman was as well as usual and was with his team hauling wood to Hampstead. About midnight he was taken ill with heart trouble to which he was subject and by 2 A. M. he was a corpse. He was 72 years old.

Mr. Richard Oursler, of Marysville, and Mr. Theodore Hively, of Cleveland, Ohio, spent several days last week with friends here.

The members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F., voted to hold a fair and festival during the Easter holidays, to continue one week. They will arrange for a parade on Easter Monday, in which they expect other organizations to participate.

The Misses Wareheim, on South Main street, gave quite a select party on Wednesday evening last at which euchre was a very prominent factor in the evening's amusements.

Proceedings of the School Board.

At the meeting of the School Board on Monday, all the members were in attendance except Dr. Reindollar and Mr. Prugh, who were unable to come on account of the state of the roads.

Appropriations were made for school libraries at Pipe Creek and Mexico, the patrons of those schools having complied with the law by raising among themselves the sum required to get the appropriation.

The following were unanimously passed:

Ordered, That the spring term of school close on Friday, 14 April, and that the Board meet on Tuesday, 18, to audit the teachers reports for the term, which must be sent to the Examiner by Saturday night following the close of the term.

Ordered, That the annual examination of public school teachers and other persons who desire to secure certificates of qualification as such, and applicants for scholarships at the State Normal School, be held at Central Hall Schoolhouse, in Westminster, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 19, 20 and 21 April, under such regulations as the Examiner may adopt in conformity with law; and that all applicants for teachers' certificates or scholarships at the State Normal School, and all teachers whose certificates expire within the next school year, be required to attend said examination; and that no other or special examination be held within the year except for such cause as the Board shall deem sufficient.

The Board adjourned to Tuesday, 18 April, unless sooner convened by order.

Sleighing Party at Dennings.

The hospitable home of Horatio Zile, near Dennings, was the scene of one of the most enjoyable social parties of the season, on Saturday evening, 25th ult. The evening was passed in music, and social games. At about midnight all repaired to the dining-room where refreshments were served in the most lavish manner and all did ample justice to the noted housewife's delicious viands. Among those present were: Mr. N. Zile, wife and daughter, Miss Linnie; Miss Leister, Misses Jessie Albert, Sallie Danner, Annie Koontz and sister, Florence, and Gertie Harman, Messrs. Brown, Cooke, Danner, Duval, Lantz, Summers, Zile, Myerly and Barnes. All too soon the time passed away and in the "wee sma" hours all bade their kind hostess and her fair young daughter adieu, but the memory of that pleasant company will linger for many days.

Roseville Items.

The snow of Saturday last drifted into our roads again so that in places they were impassable and had to be shoveled clear to admit of travel.

Mrs. Thomsie, of Emmittsburg, and Mrs. Mary, wife of the late Jesse Robinson, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson over Sunday last. Mrs. Wm. Walker visited her parents and other friends about two weeks in Woodberry, Baltimore.

Three of Mr. Abraham N. Leister's children have been sick with scarletina for about two weeks, but at this writing two of them have improved; the other one is still complaining a little yet. Mrs. Leister was also on the sick list for a few days. Dr. J. S. Mathias was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson have been sick for about three weeks, but at this writing they are improving. Dr. Sherman, of Manchester, attends them. Mrs. N. J. Leister has been sick for about three weeks. Through the medical attention of Dr. Sherman she is up and about again.

Mr. Franklin J. Abbott and family intend moving to Woodberry, Baltimore, the last of this month or the first of April. Rumor has it that Mr. Adam Wink and family intend moving to Baltimore about the first of April.

Mrs. Ellen Yingling spent a few weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Margaret Beard, of Waynesboro, Pa. Mrs. D. H. Leister spent a few days visiting her brother, Mr. Geo. Danner, and other friends in Baltimore. Miss Jennie Leister spent about two weeks visiting her uncle, Mr. Abraham Danner, and family, of Avondale, and returned home on Monday last.

Mr. James A. Leister has erected a new smoke house on his property, which makes it quite convenient. Mr. Frederick Hoffman is preparing to put up about fifty pannels of post fence which will be quite an improvement.

Personal.

Mrs. Duncan Ensor, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie R. Mitten, of this city.

Mr. Chas. K. Demmitt, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his parents at Marston, this county.

Mr. Joseph H. Yingling, of Jacksonville, Ills., is visiting his father, Mr. Jesse Yingling, of this city.

Mr. Oliver P. Crouse, of Chester, Pa., spent Sunday last with his brother, County Clerk, B. F. Crouse, West Main street, this city.

FROM PEOPLE YOU KNOW,

ARE OFFERED BELOW.

A problem solved by Carroll countians. Dr. G. D. Johnson's is cheaper than any Condition Powder or Special Food, and possesses the quality to make it the standard.

An Appeal to your Intelligence.

Johnson's Powder retails at 25 cts. for 32 oz. package. Dose—tablespoonful, all medicine, 64 doses in package, at a cost of less than half a cent.

PRATT'S FOOD costs 75 cts. for 12 lb. bag, or 6¼ cts. per lb. Dose—quarter pound, or about 8 tablespoonfuls, containing probably one tablespoonful of medicine, 7 do. of bran; cost per dose 1½ cts. The farmer thus pays at the rate of between $40 and $50 per ton for bran, whose market value is about $18.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.—Among many prominent dairymen and farmers who have used the powder with good results, and who speak very highly of their merits, we may mention:

LEGORE'S IMPROVED COMBINATION OF LIME

Is Superior to all Common Grades of Lime.

By this system and process, a full combination of the salts of lime are furnished, and as a cheap and powerful agent it beats bone. It has no equal. The choicest carbonates of lime exist here, perhaps, as no where else. We use from three different strata or deposits, burn in separate furnaces, and then mix and proportion it so as to act on all kinds of soil and crops. This has never been attempted by any other manufacturer. Our rock and improved facilities exceed any in the State. Farmers will not need a pound of bone where this lime is used. Don't be deceived or imposed upon any longer. Be sure you are right and get Legore's combination, and be convinced how easy, quick and cheap land can be improved and full crops grown. Furnished in car load lots to suit. Farmers can order their own lime. Guarantee a genuine article or no pay. Send for testimonials, prices, etc. Address

J. W. LEGORE,
Woodsboro, Frederick county, Md.

Sole and exclusive manufacturer of this lime. Be sure and get Legore's combination.

CAUTION.—Do not be deceived by agents representing other grades claiming as good. No other manufactured like it. Order your own lime and save all commissions. I ship on all Railroads. oc-29-6m*

—FOR—

Spring Crops!

Farmers will soon be breaking ground preparatory to putting in their Spring Crops, and one of the first items to be considered is shall I use to give me the best results? The fertilizer that we have been manufacturing for many years has few equals and with a fair season a crop is assured, when it is used, and since the late reduction in price it is extremely low. Farmers who have used our on Potatoes have had extraordinary results, as it is a potato fertilizer, and for OATS and CORN it will be difficult for any dealer to duplicate it at the same money.

Farmers please remember that we are headquarters for fertilizer for all Spring Crops and at prices at which we defy competition.

Give us a call.

Very Respectfully,
