Maroons Trim Terrors

Scoring runs in every inning except the fifth, Washington College easily defeated Western Maryland 13-4 last Wednesday on Kibler Field. Washington scored almost at will and were never in danger after the first new frames.

The game was the most loosely played of the year and six errors marred the play. The locals collected 17 hits with Western Maryland smashing out 7. John Selby pitched for the Sho'men until the closing innings when Henry Maquire took over the mound.

Hits were as follows: Bremer, 3; Selby, 3; Stevens, 2; Everett, 2; Copple, 2; Scheurholz, 2; Bush, 2; Fetter, 1.

Running score:

Washington	2	2	1	2	0	4	1	1		—13
West. Md.	1	1	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	— 4

Fetter—First Sacker

Outstanding this year has been the work of Charlie Fetter on first base. Fetter has made as many impossible catches on the first sack as you'll see any big leaguer make. Tosses to Charlie come at all angles and heights and yet they always seem to find there way into his glove. Fetter's hitting is much improved over last year for he is now batting .311 in 11 games. A great player Charlie has had a big part in the Maroons wins this year.

Bremer A. A. President

At the general student elections last Thursday, Joe Bremer was elected the new president of the Athletic Association to succeed "Howie" Neubert. Joe collected 133 votes to defeat Charlie Fetter who had 72. Joe is a three letter man and is now doing a bang-up job as catcher for Tom Kibler.

M. A. S. C. A. A. Meet

Ed McCalley, Bill Ford and Ed Buck traveled up to Easton, Penna., last Friday to compete in the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Association Annual Meet at Lafayette College. Rutgers, defending champion, again took first place. Ed Buck got a second in the 440, running a 51.8 quarter.

Mason-Dixon Meet

Coach George Ekaitis will take his trackmen to Homewood in Baltimore this Saturday to compete in the Mason-Dixon Meet. Catholic University, defending champions, are again favored. Washington held the title for three consecutive years, until Catholic U. grabbed the title last year.

Hope for winning the meet this year are negligible. Ed Buck, Omar Jackson and a few others will be called on the uphold the Maroon and Black. Buck should take the 440 and 220, if not the 100.

Peppermint Farm

There is a peppermint plantation of 150 acres at Mitcham, in Surrey, England, and cultivation is also carried on in Lincolnshire and Hertfordshire.
