THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

The postman's bag these days is laden with invitations to either commencements or weddings.

Two more to the latter events were received this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duncan Knotts have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Lillian to Mr. Charles Raymond Humphreys on Saturday, June 22, at seven o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Esther M. Dole has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Alice Emily to Mr. George Bennett Keester on Saturday, June 29 at three-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, at Emmanuel P. E. Church. A reception immediately following the ceremony will be held at the home of the bride in the Wickes Apartments.

And while we are on the subject of weddings, let me tell you of an interesting engagement announced last Saturday evening, when at a large buffet supper, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Kreeger, announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. J. Porter Matthews, of Easton.

Miss Kreeger is a member of the faculty of the Georgetown, Del., high school, while Mr. Matthews has a position with the Easton National Bank. The wedding will take place in the Fall.

Yesterday, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe and her little daughter, Frances Mackey left for Baltimore, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson. To-day, joined by Mr. Metcalfe, they will attend the commencement exercises at McDonough School where James G. Metcalfe, Jr., will graduate.

To-day, Mrs. William T. Dixon and her daughter, Miss Josephine Dixon will leave for Princeton, N. J. On Monday, they will attend the commencement of Mrs. Dixon's son, William T. Dixon, Jr., who will graduate from Princeton University with honors.

On Tuesday, of next week, "Our Graden Club" will hold its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell, at Worton Manor. This is to be an open meeting, so members and their friends are invited to be present at 11 A. M. At this time, the well known Dorothy Biddle will talk on Flower Arrangements with illustrations. Following the talk, Mrs. Maxwell will be hostess to all present, at luncheon.

Among the guests in town over last week-end were Mrs. Rodgers Wilson and her daughter, Mrs. Richard Kramer, of Wilmington, Del., who visited Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Whitehead, of Trenton, N. J., were week-end guests of Miss Anne Smith and her brother, Mr. Marion deK. Smith.

Miss Alice Stewart ,of New York, arrived here Tuesday to remain for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Miss Elizabeth Brown returned to her home here on Tuesday from the Garrison Forest School, where she is a member of the faculty. Miss Brown will remain here for three weeks until she goes, as a counselor, to Camp Quinibec at Ely, Vermont. She will be accompanied there by Miss Betty Beck and Anne Wilmer, who will attend the camp season.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick were guests of Dr. and Mrs. John T. Finney at their home in Ruxton, Md., this week.

Mrs. Ross Woolsey, of St. Louis, Mo., has been a guest for the past week of Mrs. Scott Beck. Mrs. Woolsey, who was much entertained during her visit here, left on Thursday for New York, where she will join her husband, Dr. Woolsey, and her son, Ross, Jr., the latter, a student at Princeton.

Mrs. Catharine Beck Jones and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., were guests this week of Mrs. Omar D. Crothers at her apartment, in Ocean City, Md. Mrs. Franklin H. Beck, who has been spending the week as Mrs. Crothers' guest is expected home to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Stone, of Marblehead, Mass., came yesterday and will remain a fortnight as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Col. and Mrs. C. Mills Bunker will leave to-morrow for Mount Kisco, N. Y., where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Bryan. En route, they will spend two days in Wilkes Barre, Pa., as guests of friends.

Mrs. Charles L. Atwater entertained informally at bridge on Wednesday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. J. Bain, of Altoona, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cooke and their two small daughters, of Elizabeth, N. J., came last Saturday to visit Mrs. A. T. H. Harper. Mr. Cooke, who remained until Wednesday, will return later to join his family during the remainder of their visit.

The Washington College commencement activities have drawn crowds of visitors to the town for the week-end. Opening with the President and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead's reception to the Visitors and Governors, faculty and Senior Class on Thursday afternoon, the Commencement Ball last evening and the Alumni banquet and dance tonight, right through till commencement on Monday, every hour is packed. We are always glad of their success, but how we hate to see the Seniors leave us.

The High School commencement on Tuesday is preceded by a round of entertainments and will conclude with the Alumni Banquet at the Fire House, followed by a dance at the Country Club.

So with sheep-skins to the right and left of us, wedding bands encircling us, and the 4th of July not far ahead of us, we may well wonder, what is next?

Yours to interrogate,

The Wanderer

It's House-cleaning Time

--for YOU--and for us!

At this time of year, you're setting your house in order, tidying up, dusting the dark corners. So are we. Our house is a pretty large one, including hundreds of taverns throughout the state. The overwhelming majority of these taverns are operated respectably by respectable men and women, who make an honest living by serving good beer to their fellow-citizens. A few—a very few—need cleaning up. Help to locate that "dusty corner" by reporting it to this organization. Thank you.
