The Baltimore Sun, of Tuesday, says: "A bill has been filed in the Equity Court asking a receiver for the Maryland Beneficial Association, of Washington county—a sick benefit concern. It alleges extravagance in the management of the association, which allegations are pronounced groundless by C. W. Sebold, the president." The association has a large membership in this city and vicinity, and many of the members have paid in considerable money. Mr. S. C. Stoner, local collector of the Association here, has received a dispatch from the home office, stating that the organization is in a sound financial condition.

The Grand Lodge Independent Order of Mechanics, of Maryland, convened at Grand Army Hall, Baltimore street, Baltimore, on Tuesday, and was in session several days. Thirty three Lodges, in all parts of the State, were represented by delegates, among whom was Mr. Chas. Stonesifer, as the representative of Westminster Lodge No. 41, of this city. Important business was transacted. Patapsco Lodge No. 56, of Patapsco, this county, was awarded the first prize, a handsome Bible, for increase in membership. The next meeting of the Grand Lodge will be held at St. Michaels Talbot county.

In the special correspondence of the Baltimore American, from Frederick, under date of the 17th inst., it is stated that the board of trustees of the Frederick Female Seminary has made a proposition to the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church, to lease to said synod, for the term of five years, the buildings and furniture of the seminary. The project involves the removal of the female department of the Mercersburg (Pa.) College to Frederick. The synod will hold a special meeting in this city, at St. Paul's Reformed Church on Thursday, April 27th, at 7.30, P. M., to consider the proposition.

A total solar eclipse is a rare occurrence, and a peculiarly important one from an astronomical standpoint. There will be an eclipse of this kind on April 16th of this year, which will be visible in South America, the greater part of Africa, Southern Europe, and the intermediate Atlantic Ocean. It is expected that this eclipse will reveal a number of valuable facts. The opportunity for discovering these, however, will be limited. Even in the most favored localities the sun will remain obscured only about four minutes at the most; so that, in spite of the elaborate preparations that have been made, the astronomers will have to hustle in a lively fashion in order to make anything like a complete observation.

Miss Nancy Johnson, who had attained the great age of 101 years, died on Sunday last at the residence of Mr. Wm. H. Heagy, in Fountain Valley. Most of her long life had been spent in the families of the late Peter Babylon and Josiah Babylon, and for a number of years she has been cared for by Messrs. F. T. and M. W. Babylon, of this city. Her death was caused by dropsy, after an illness of a week. She retained her mental faculties to the last, and in her extreme old age her eyesight was so clear that she could sew without glasses. She never rode in a railroad car. Her remains were interred in Benjamin's Cemetery, near this city, on Tuesday, Rev. S. A. Diehl conducting the funeral services.

Mrs. Sarah Weimert, one of the oldest residents of this city, died at the home of her son, Mr. Jacob Weimert, on Pennsylvania avenue, after a lingering illness, on Sunday the 19th instant. She had attained the age of 89 years, 9 months, 21 days. She lost her eyesight about 17 years ago and continued blind to the end of her life. She leaves four sons, Messrs. Jacob, William, George W. and Samuel Weimert, all well known in this community. Funeral services were held on Monday, Rev. P. H. Miller, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, officiating, and the remains were interred at Benjamin's Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Gershom Huff, Josephus Sheeler, David Lippy, Edward Baker, George W. Sherman, Jacob F. Elgen.

Death of Mr. Alfred Zollickoffer.

Mr. Alfred Zollickoffer, one of the most estimable citizens of this county, died at his home, adjacent to Uniontown, on Tuesday morning, aged 70 years, 5 months and 13 days. Mr. Zollickoffer was a son of the late Rev. Daniel Zollickoffer, a minister of the Methodist Church, and was, himself, a devoted and influential member of the same denomination. He was a man of sterling worth and exalted christian character, for whom the most profound respect was entertained in the community in which he resided and wherever he was known. For a number of years he served as a member of the Board of School Commissioners of this county, and discharged the duties of the position with the same conscientious rectitude of purpose that marked all the acts of his life. At the time of his death he was a director of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County. He leaves a widow, who is a daughter of the late Wm. Roberts and a cousin of Judge Charles B. Roberts. He also leaves three sons and one daughter, the latter being Mrs. George H. Birnie, of Taneytown.

Personal.

Mr. C. Erb, of Berryville, Va., spent a few days in this city during the past week.

Linwood Items.

Miss Minnie Garner, who has been sick in bed for three weeks, is improving slowly.

A number of families in this section will move or have moved this spring.

The roads are improving very fast. Some of the farmers have begun their spring work.

Death of Mrs. Wm. M. Gist.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Alice Fenby Gist, wife of Mr. Wm. M. Gist, of Florida, which occurred at her home in that State on Friday, 17th inst., reached her friends here the same evening by means of a telegram. The event was sudden and unexpected and brought poignant grief to her loving parents and brothers who reside in this community, and caused unfeigned sorrow to her many warm and devoted friends. Mrs. Gist was the only daughter of Mr. Wm. Fenby, one of the best known and most esteemed citizens of this vicinity. Her husband is a son of the late Mordecai Gist, and both were reared near this city. Both graduated at Western Maryland College, during the presidency of Rev. Dr. Ward. Since their marriage they have resided in Florida. Mrs. Gist possessed an exceedingly amiable and gentle disposition and was greatly endeared to all who knew her intimately. She was a sincere and earnest christian, loving, true and faithful as a disciple of the Master whom she quietly served. Her death occurred after a brief illness. She leaves her husband and three children, the youngest being a babe which was but three days old when she was called away. Her remains were interred in Florida. Among her brothers are Dr. Edw. B. Fenby, of Baltimore; Messrs. Wm. F. and Frank B. Fenby, of this vicinity, and several younger. The The sincerest sympathy is felt for all the bereaved ones, by their many friends. The following poem on the sad event, expressive of that sympathy, is from the pen of one of the most venerated and prominent residents of this city:

In Memory of Mrs. Alice A. Fenby Gist.

An only daughter of God-fearing parents,
Most precious to them in their waning years,
Called suddenly from the domestic circle,
Who can upbraid now the fast-falling tears?

A gentle sister of kind loving brothers,
Recalling fondly happy child-hood days,
Gone where they can no more on earth behold her,
Who of their sorrow can say ought but praise?

A faithful partner of devoted husband,
Reviewing years of their united love,
Thinking of her as now gone from his presence,
Who can blame tears which such dear memories move?

A God-blest mother of sweet little children,
Weeping o'er loss to them but partly known,
Withdrawn while they are yet so young and tender,
Who can but join them in the sorrow shown?

Associate friendly of survivors numerous,
Calling back scenes which they enjoyed with her,
Gone beyond hope of possible renewal,
Who can find fault if grief with them appear?

All mourn that Alice is no longer with us,
All feel the loss their stricken hearts sustain,
But there is consolation sweet in knowing,
That where she's gone, no sorrow is, nor pain,

She's gone to rest on that dear Saviour's bosom,
Whom, during life, believing in, she loved,
Showing her love by ever-active service,
By deeds unselfish her true faith she proved.

O, beauteous life of our loved-one departed,
Made beauteous by the grace of Christ the Lord;
Be it our view, like her, his steps to follow,
And mould our life according to his word!

The M. P. Conference.

A friend informs us that several of the students of Westminster Theological Seminary contemplate entering the active work of the ministry of the Methodist Protestant Church, at the approaching session of the Maryland Annual Conference, to be held in Laurel, Del., commencing April 5th. Rev. Dr. John J. Murray, of Union Bridge, will preach a sermon before the Conference, commemorative of his half-century in the ministry. Dr. Murray entered the Conference in 1842, fifty-one years ago. Rev. Dr. S. B. Southerland and Rev. Dr. J. T. Ward, the latter the beloved president of Westminster Theological Seminary, entered the Conference in 1841. Dr. Southerland delivered his semi-centennial commemorative sermon at the session of 1891, and Dr. Ward delivered his in 1892, his subject having been "Magnifying the Lord." All these sermons are published in the minutes of the Annual Conference for the corresponding years.

It is the purpose of Dr. Ward to attend the approaching meeting of the Conference, at which President Lewis, of the college, and Rev. A. D. Melvin, pastor of the M. P. Church of this city, will also be present. Dr. J. W. Hering will attend as a delegate, and the following theological students will also be present: Messrs. C. P. Nowlin, G. M. Clayton, M. C. Elliott and E. C. Makosky. The business of the Conference will be important and interesting.

Mr. Wm. Shaw, of Loudoun county, Va., and Miss Minnie Appler, of Annapolis, who have been visiting at Mr. M. G. Shaw's, returned to their respective homes on Wednesday.

Miss Mary Shaw is visiting friends in Littlestown.

Our county roads which were in bad condition from the snowdrifts and thaws, are improving fast and are in as good condition as they are generally this time of year. We live in hopes of having some improvements in the coming year, especially if road scrapers are put in use instead of hands hanging on the shovel handles and plow teams hitched to the fence posts, at regular wages, which was too much the case formerly merely to gratify political pets and pay favors by appointments as supervisors who managed business in that way and voted all right at election time.

Bankert's Mill Items.

There was a social gathering on last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. Emanuel Bollinger, near Tyrone. The guests began to arrive at 7 o'clock, and by 8 there were about 50 persons present. After social conversation, amusing games and instrumental music, the guests were invited to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was in waiting, consisting of cake, lemonade, confectioneries and tropical fruit, to which all did ample justice. After refreshments the lateness of the hour admonished all the time had arrived to take their departure, when, bidding good by to host and hostess, the company returned to their homes much gratified at the evening's entertainment. Those present were: E. Bollinger and wife, Jos. Formwalt and wife, George C. Harman and wife, Mrs. W. U. Marker; Messrs. George Bollinger, and Oscar Shipley of Taneytown; Messrs. Chas. Special Meeting of Classis.

A special meeting of Maryland Classis of the Reformed Church was held in the Third Reformed Church, in Baltimore, on Wednesday, March 22nd, at 2, P. M. There was a large attendance of ministers and elders. The first item of business was a request from the Manchester Charge and from Jerusalem congregation of Carroll Charge, to re-constitute the latter congregation a part of the Manchester Charge. After a careful consideration of the reasons presented by the petitioners and also of the condition of the Jerusalem congregation, it was decided that the best interests, both of this congregation and the Church in general, would not be promoted by granting the petition. The petition was therefore not granted. Rev. A. S. Weber was appointed to officially notify Jerusalem congregation of the action of Classis.

The next item of business which was acted upon was a call from Carroll Charge to Rev. H. J. McAllister to become its pastor. The call was confirmed, and a committee of installation, consisting of Rev. John G. Noss, Calvin S. Slagle and Mr. L. Firor, was appointed. On motion it was then decided to appropriate the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for one year in the event that this sum would be needed to assist this charge in the support of its pastor.

Died Far Away From Home.

Mrs. Mazie Louise Hood, wife of Mr. Richard H. Hood, died in St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, March 18th, of peritonitis, after an illness lasting only two days. The deceased had not yet passed her eighteenth milestone, and her death, in the very flush of womanhood, cuts short a life full of promise and usefulness. Mrs. Hood, who was a woman of remarkable beauty of person and sweetness of character, will be remembered as Miss Mazie Louise Ridgely, one of the brightest students at the Western Maryland College two years ago. Her friends in this city and elsewhere are pained at her early demise, and from sorrowing hearts extend condolences to the family of the deceased. Her funeral took place on Tuesday, from the home of her parents, near Sykesvillle, where she had passed many happy days, and her remains were laid away in the presence of her sorrowing family and friends.

On the Roll of Honor.

Postmaster General Wanamaker last July instructed the postmasters at all county seats to visit all offices in their counties, and report on their condition to the Postoffice Department. All offices were to be graded as excellent, good, fair or poor, and those rated excellent were to be reported to the President for honorable mention in some suitable way. Reports were received from 1,278 county seats, representing visits to 29,669 postoffices, mainly of the fourth class. As a consequence of these visits the offices have been generally stimulated and benefited, and hundreds of recommendations made by the visiting postmasters have been acted upon to the betterment of the service.

The list of offices graded as "excellent" by the county seat visitors has just been made public. The list for Carroll county is as follows:

Manchester, Mount Airy, New Windsor, Sykesville, Taneytown, Union Bridge, Uniontown. Postmaster at Westminster visitor.
