BOYS...Join the Ford Good Drivers League
and Get A Free Copy of The New 64-Page Book
"HOW TO BECOME A SKILLED DRIVER"

The Ford Good Drivers Legaue is the modern fraternity for boys who want to stand out from the crowd as safe, skilled and courteous drivers. Every boy, 14 to 18 years old, who is qualified and legally authorized to drive a car in his home state, is eligible to join. There are no dues, no obligations, except the pledge you take to drive carefully and courteously at all times. The make of car you drive or that your family owns does not matter.

When you join the Ford Good Drivers League you receive a copy of the new 64-page book, "How To Become A Skilled Driver," written especially for the League by the noted driving authority, Ray W. Sherman. This book is crammed full of interesting information that can help you become a skilled driver. You will want to read it from cover to cover. The book cannot be purchased at any price and is available only to League members.
