The names of Messrs. Edward Koontz and H. Jefferson Krise, both of Frederick, are mentioned in connection with the deputy collectorship of internal revenue for Frederick and Carroll counties, now held by Mr. T. A. Wastler. Mr. Krise held the office for several years during Mr. Cleveland's previous administration.

The sessions of the Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church South, held at Front Royal, Va., closed on Tuesday night. The next meeting will be held at Fredericksburg, Va. Among the appointments for the Baltimore district are the following: Freedom, M. Strickler, R. L. Fultz; Linganore, J. H. Dulany, S. J. Garver; Reisterstown, J. H. Light.

At the meeting of Carroll Division No. 42, Sons of Temperance, of this city, on Monday evening last, the following were elected officers for the ensuing term: W. P., Austin H. Geiselman; W. A., Edward C. Mobley; R. S., Charles Hunter; F. S., A. W. Buckingham; T., Jesse F. Shreeve; C., George Mather; A. C., Harry A. Gorsuch; I. S., Thomas H. Bankard; O. S, Emory Buckingham.

The following gentlemen have been named, by a citizen's meeting at Union Bridge, to be voted for as Mayor and Common Councilmen of that place on Monday, 3rd inst.: For Mayor, Mr. C. F. Reck; Common Councilmen, Messrs. Joseph Wolfe, J. C. Wentz, Albert Smith, Oliver Grossnickle, David G. Ogle, Samuel Repp, Edward Young, Jasper Morningstar, Joseph I. Snader, James A. Smith.

A spark from a locomotive on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad set fire to the dry grass in a field of the Woodbine Paper Company, near Woodbine, Thursday. The flames spread to an adjoining field and to the woods of Mrs. A. Betts. The fire spread over two hundred acres of land and consumed one hundred and fifty panels of fence. A great deal of young timber was killed. The railroad men and farmers were fighting it and farmers were fighting it and got it under control at 2 o'clock. The wind was very high and the flames spread rapidly, breaking out in several places.

The funeral of Mr. Timothy Lane, who died at his home near Avondale on Friday of last week, took place at St. John's Catholic Church, this city, on Sunday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of people. Among the floral tributes was a beautiful cross of lilies and roses, while a sheaf of wheat formed an expressive emblem of the fact that the deceased had been cut down by the sickle of death in the full fruitage of a ripe old age. The remains were interred in the church cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Edward Lynch, E. O. Grimes, J. Q. Stitely, Jeremiah Yingling, Geo. W. Morningstar, F. H. Orendorff.

Rev. O. C. Roth, formerly of Taneytown, confirmed fifty persons in Grace Lutheran Church, Baltimore, of which he is pastor, on Sunday last, and on the same day, Rev. L. M. Zimmerman received fifty-one persons into membership in Christ Lutheran Church, Baltimore, making seventy-one members added to his church since January 1st. Mr. Zimmerman, as we have heretofore stated, is a son of Mr. Henry Zimmerman, of Manchester district.

Mr. Andrew Hammer, a native of Bavaria, but for many years a resident of this county, died at his home near Houcksville, of a complication of diseases, on the 22nd ult., aged 73 years, 11 months, 18 days. His wife died several years ago. He leaves an only son, a school teacher residing in Wisconsin, who arrived here on Monday, but too late to attend his father's funeral, which took place on the Friday previous.

The canning factories in this city are making preparations for doing a large business during the approaching season. Messrs. Smith, Yingling & Co. have distributed seed for nearly nine hundred acres of corn and 100 acres of peas, and Messrs. B. F. Shriver & Co. for a thousand acres of corn and two hundred acres of peas, a large increase for both. The product of the factories of these firms has a high reputation in the market and commands ready sale.

A colored woman, who for some time past has been creating considerable excitement in some parts of this county by her erratic conduct, was arrested in this city on Sunday evening last by officer R. C. Matthews. Justice G. W. Matthews committed her to the House of Correction for two months. She would give no account of herself beyond saying that her name is Anna Lee. She is probably mentally unsound. She appears to be between twenty-five and thirty years old.

Our attention has been called to the fact that in noticing the death of Mr. Alfred Zollickoffer last week we omitted to mention his connection with the Western Maryland College, for a number of years, as a member of the Board of Trustees. He was one of the charter members of the board and took an active and efficient part in its work until compelled to resign on account of failing health, only a few years ago, and was always a liberal contributor to the college and promoter of its interests in every respect.

The funeral of Miss Lydia Shaeffer, whose death was announced in the SENTINEL last week, took place at Grace Lutheran Church, this city, on Sunday morning, and was largely attended by her relatives and friends and citizens of this community. The funeral sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. P. H. Miller. The remains were interred at Benjamin's Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Jacob Bixler, Gershom Hoff, Nelson Gilbert, George W. Morningstar, J. Q. Stitely and H. B. Grammer.

H. Gilbert; Secretary, Henry I. Wilson; Collector, Amos Hahn; W. Treasurer, M. J. Lynch; Marshal, G. Pius Little; Guard, Gloyd Lynch; Trustees, N. H. Baumgartner, Dr. E. D. Wells, and Michael F. Hann; Representative to State Council, Charles E. Fink; Alternate, John M. Roberts.

Rev. Dr. Ward, the venerable president of Westminster Theological Seminary, while in Washington on Sunday last, addressed the Sunday School of the Central M. P. Church, in which he was a scholar sixty years ago. At the request of the pastor, Rev. S. Reese Murray, he also preached to the congregation, among whom he has many old friends. Dr. Ward received his license to preach from this Church in 1840, and joined the Maryland Annual Conference the next year. Twenty-five years afterwards he was appointed pastor of the church which was then known as the Ninth Street Station, of which his parents, then living, were members.

Prohibition Activity.

The following communication concerning the purposes of the Prohibition party, in the county campaign of 1893, is published by request:

CARROLL COUNTY PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Saturday, March 25th, was a red letter day for Carroll Co. Prohibitionists. In response to a call issued by Chairman Woods an enthusiastic body of Prohibitionists assembled at Carroll Hall, Westminster, for the purpose of arranging for the coming campaign, which is to be made one of the most aggressive ever known in the history of Carroll. The convention was opened with prayer by Bro. John Uhler, of Woolery's district. W. Frank Tucker, of the Baltimore bar, State organizer, made an address in his most impressive manner. Upon taking up the subject of finance seven districts subscribed $90.00 to the State fund. Other districts agreed to report in the near future. A thorough and systematic form of county organization was agreed upon.

It was unanimously voted to have a nominating convention at Carroll Hall, Tuesday, July 25th. At this convention it is proposed to make a ticket that will command the respect of all parties, and which will be an incentive for all Prohibitionists to "stand to their guns" and fight the good fight to a finish. The Prohibition party in Carroll county has become a permanent fixture, and will continue to grow and wax stronger until from the mere infant of a few years ago it will develop into a giant to hurl the saloon with its damning influence from our midst. May God hasten the day when fair Carroll shall be freed from the curse of "Alcoholism."

Gamber Items.

Mr. James Lockard and wife lost their youngest child, aged 3 years, 3 months, 2 days, last week, from pneumonia. It was buried at Sandy Mount M. P. burying ground.

Mr. Jesse M. Patterson has been elected a delegate from Providence M. P. Church to attend the Annual Conference at Laurel, Del., next week.

On Sunday next, April 2nd, Rev. G. R. McCready will preach his last sermon here before Conference. He is expected to return to us again as that is the general wish of the members of the different churches of the circuit.

Cranberry Items.

A sad accident occurred in this neighborhood a few days ago. Messrs. Elias H. Yingling and Noah Sullivan were sawing wood in the grove of Mr. J. Mathias, when a limb, which broke from a tree about forty or fifty feet from the ground, fell and struck Mr. Yingling on the head, fracturing the skull and cutting the scalp badly in several places. The injury was so severe that Mr. Yingling was unconscious for some time. He is attended by Dr. Weaver.

Miss Lizzie Wise, who for 18 years was a resident of this vicinity, and for a number of years had made her home in Baltimore, died last week of rheumatism of the heart, in the 36th year of her age. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her. Her remains were interred in Manchester on Saturday. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Daniel Reed, Charles Lippy, Wilmer Houck, George Hosfeld, Edward Bollinger, David Brillhart.

Thieves have been operating in this neighborhood recently. A new set of buggy harness was stolen from Mr. D. J. Brown, and some of our farmers say the corn has been disappearing entirely too fast from their cribs. A warm reception and a dose of cold lead may greet the perpertrators of these thefts if they continue the business.

Mrs. Amanda Gummel has at this time a tomato stalk which measures 4 feet, 5 inches.

Mr. and Mrs. Asbury W. Martin have been visiting Mr. Adolphus Ebaugh and family, and Mr. Emanuel Yingling has been a visitor to his brother, Mr. E. H. Yingling.

Mr. Jacob Stephan moved to Brummel last week and Mrs. Rhodes moved to the farm vacated by Mr. Stephan.

Mr. Powell Giggard, who has been suffering with pneumonia, and Mr. George Hunt, who has been on the sick list, are somewhat improved. Little improvement is discernible in the case of Mr. Jacob Fisher, who was recently stricken with paralysis.

Mr. Eli F. Yingling has completed his well.

Farmers are busy with their spring work.

The mud is fast drying up and the roads are improving rapidly.

Pinkney L. Davis, natural guardian of Emily F. Davis, Florence Davis and Henry Davis, settled first account.

Jacob M. Hoff, administrator of John Hoff, deceased, returned list debts.

William A. McKellip, executor of John S. Murray, deceased, reported sale of real estate and settled third and final account.

Report sale of real estate of Mary Grammer, deceased, finally ratified.

Report sale of real estate of Samuel M. Galt, deceased, finally ratified.

Pleasant Words.

Readers of the SENTINEL can bear witness that it is not given to much "blowing of its own trumpet." It is, however, pleasant to hear words of good will from its patrons, and it may be pardoned for occasionally reproducing some of them, for instance such as the following from a patron in Baltimore, in renewing subscription:

"I consider the SENTINEL a clean paper and one I like to have in my family. I never find impropor advertisements, or other objectionable matter of any kind in it."

A lady in Missouri writes: "My father was a subscriber to the SENTINEL more than forty years ago, and I cannot get along without it. I do not wish to miss a number."

A clergyman, who has received the paper for several years, writes: "It has been a welcome visitor in our home."

Expressions of this character might be multiplied, but we will not consume further space now, except to add this facetious sentence from a letter in Illinois: "I would bring you some wood, but, as the roads are very muddy, and it is so far, I sold the wood and send you a check."

Priestland Items.

Mr. Charles B. Curry, a well known young citizen of the vicinity of cKinstry's Mills, left, on the 23rd inst., for Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Charles E. Rinehart, of the same vicinity, leaves on the 31st inst., also, and will join Mr. Curry at Cincinnati. They expect to visit the World's Fair at Chicago. Mr. Curry was a member of the Linwood Orchestra, from which he will be missed. The good wishes of the organization and indeed of the whole commnnity, go with him and Mr. Rinehart, and we hope they will return.

An entertainment will be givan by the Priestland public school, on some date not yet determined, during the second week in April. The Linwood Orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

Wedding Bells.

COOKSON—DEVILBISS.

The Methodist Protestant Church, Uniontown, was the scene of a brilliant and interesting wedding at half-past seven o'clock, Wednesday evening. The bride was Miss Florence Gertrude Devilbiss, daughter of Mr. J. Thomas Devilbiss, and the groom Mr. Burrier Cookson, son of the late Dennis Cookson. The bride wore a handsome dress of myrtle green poplin, trimmed with velvet of a darker shade, with hat and gloves to match. The ushers were: Messrs. J. Howard Devilbiss, Guy Mc. Cookson, of Uniontown; Maurice Duttera, of Taneytown, and Nimrod Bennett, of Westminster. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Katie Williams. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Charlton, the pastor. The church was tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers, and was crowded with interested spectators of the happy event. After the ceremony a reception was held from 8.30 till 12 o'clock, at "Black Oak Springs," the residence of the bride's father.

Some time was spent in conversation and then the guests were invited to the dining-room, where they found a table of refreshments beautifully decorated with lilies, roses and smilax. Refreshments consisted of cakes, confectionery, fruit, lemonade, ice cream, &c.

The guests were comfortably seated and served by the ushers. After all were served they returned to the parlors and spent the remaining time in pleasant conversation.

The bride received many useful and beautiful presents, consisting of silverware, china, glass, linen, ornaments, fancy work, clocks, lamps, and money—greenbacks and gold. The kitchen was also well remembered.

At a late hour the guests departed testifying to the pleasant evening they had spent. Those present were: Mr. James Devilbiss, Mr. J. Thomas Devilbiss, Miss Mattie Devilbiss, Mr. Howard Devilbiss, Mr. Snader Devilbiss and son, Mrs. Mary C. Cookson, Mr. M. SULLIVAN—POTTS

Mr. Geo. E. Sullivan, of Baltimore, son of Mr. Jesse Sullivan, near this city, and Miss Carrie M. Potts, third daughter of Capt. Wm. W. Potts, of Pottsville, Pa., were married at noon, on Monday last, at the residence of the bride's father at his famous vineyard on the Cressona road. Mr. George E. Babylon, of Baltimore, was best man. The bride wore a handsome traveling dress of heliotrope shade. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lillie Potts, attired in green silk. Both carried Marechal Neil roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James F. Powers, of Trinity Episcopal Church, Pottsville. Relatives and friends of the parties were present from Philadelphia, Washington, and elsewhere. An elaborate wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left by an afternoon train for their future home in Baltimore. The bride received a large number of valuable presents.

Warfieldsburg Items.

I am afraid you have thought your correspondent was asleep, but he has been moving and you know that is busy work, hence his negligence.

Mr. Theo. Logue will take charge of the farm of Mr. John Beggs, who has moved to Baltimore.

There has been much sickness in our neighborhood during the winter, and at present Mr. Levi Manahan and Mr John Beaver are confined to their homes.

Notwithstanding the mud people are still traveling.

Miss Rena Buckingham is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jesse Robertson.

Mrs. John Gist and sons, of Topeka, Kansas, spent several days with their uncle, Mr. A. H. Barnes.

The school at this place is progressing nicely.

Mrs. Jesse Robertson has been quite ill for the past week; also Mr Wash. Robertson's little daughter, but both are convalescent.

Union Mills Items.

Misses Winifred and Katharine Shriver, students at Linden Hall Seminary, Lititz, Pa., returned home, on Wednesday last, for the Easter vacation.

A fire broke out on Rattlesnake Hill, last Tuesday and burned over about a hundred acres of woodland, damaging the trees considerably and destroying a large lot of old fencing.

The carpenters have commenced work on Edward Bankert's new house at the west end of the village. Several of our other residents have repainted their dwellings.

A Mason & Hamlin chapel organ has been ordered for the new church at Silver Run, and will be on hand before the day of dedication, on which occasion it is expected the choir will be strengthened by the addition of a bass violin, a flute, a cornet and a clarinet.

On Saturday night, 25th inst., the wash and smoke house of John T. Motter, residing above Silver Run, together with the pork from a butchering of four or five large hogs, was consumed by fire, which is supposed to have originated from the fire used in smoking the meat the day previous. The building was insured in the Littlestown company for $75.

The Union Mills Gun club will hold a shooting match on Easter Monday afternoon, for a fine breech loading shotgun.

Porters Items.

The 19th of April is the time that has been set for the beginning of the series of meetings to be held in Taylorsville, Woodbine and Messiah Lutheran churches, by Rev. M. E. McLinn and other ministers. There will be two services a day in each church from Wednesday until Friday of the week mentioned.

A number of the young people of this vicinity had a pound party at the residence of Mr. L. M. Bushey. About twenty-five young ladies and gentlemen were present. All expressed themselves as having had a very enjoyable evening.

On Sunday morning, March 26th, the Sunday School at Messiah Lutheran Church was re-organized. The newly elected officers who were chosen by ballot (all members of the Church and Sunday School of both sexes being allowed to vote) are as follows: Superintendent, Mr. Geo. W. Hess; Assistant Superintendent, Mr. C. F. Beck; Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. D. M. Shoemaker; Librarians, Messrs. John S. Bushey and Harry K. Letterman; Managers, Misses Carrie Shoemaker, Julia R. Ways, Messrs. Wm. Wilson, Clarence G. Wilson; Teachers of the infant class, Mrs. H. J. Bushey and C. F. Beck. Easter services next Sunday morning, April 2nd, at half-past ten o'clock.

Bankert's Mill Items.

Pursuant to announcement the Sunday School society met at Baust Church on last Sunday morning for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, with the following result: for President, Wm. H. Flickinger; Secretaries, Geo. E. and W. U. Marker; for Treasurer, Henry Sell; for Superintendents, Geo. C. Harman and Lewis Myers.

Mr. Jacob Rodkey, Jr., who was reported last week as being quite ill, is at this writing convalescent.

Mr. Edward Babylon has moved to the farm of Mr. J. Q. Senseney, at Linwood.

Mrs. Wareheim is improving from an attack of grip, under the skillful treatment of Dr. L. Kemp. May Harman is improving; she has rheumatism and is attended by Dr. Kemp also.

Harney Items.

There were three sales here last Monday, an unusual occurrence, Mrs. Eckenrode's in the forenoon and Mr. A. DeGroft's and A. Ridinger's in the afternoon. Mr. DeGroft will move to Hanover by the 1st of May.

The roads at present are good. It is seldom we have such roads at this season of the year.

Our farmers have commenced their spring work. Hauling manure appears to be the order of work. Some have commenced plowing and planting early potatoes. The ground was in excellent condition several mornings this week for sowing cloverseed.

Mr. Geo. Shriner has bought a farm from Jonas Reck for the sum of $1,300.

Mr. J. J. Hess, who has been blacksmithing here for many years, will retire this spring and Geo. Shriner will take charge of the shop.

The health of the community has been very good the past season.

Miss Bertha Bowers, of near here, is spending a week at Greenmount, Pa., visiting friends.

Shiloh Items.

We are glad to note that Mr. Andrew Shaffer is improving in health. Mr. Jehu Harris is yet confined to the house with dropsy. Andrew Hammer, a native of Bavaria, who lived near Houcksville, died on the 22nd inst.

Spring is gradually approaching and farm work, such as hauling out manure, plowing, planting potatoes, &c., are the order of the day. The growing grain presents a favorable appearance.

Many parts of the roads would certainly be benefitted by a better system of repair in order to have the roads passable for transportation.

There will not be many changes of location in this vicinity this April.

The blue-birds are prospecting for summer location already, which indicates that the cold weather is well past and spring approaching.

Mr. Peter Miller has a portable sawmill at his place sawing timber preparatory to building a new barn in the near future.

Mr. John Payne, who had a rip fractured by a fall on the 3rd ult., is mending satisfactorily.

Near noon, on Monday last, the death messenger laid his icy hand upon Prof. David Denlinger, of Irving Institute, and peacefully he passed away at the age of 69 years. It was a sad death, as none of his children were at his bedside; no one but his aged companion, who for the last five months has been very much indisposed with nervous trouble. He was ill for the last week, but it was only within the last few days that his condition became alarming, when his children were notified but did not reach home in time. His remains were taken to Mount Joy, Pa., his former home, and laid away to rest on Wednesday. Prof. Denlinger entered upon his profession as a teacher at the age of 18 years and continued in the harness up to the time of his death. Even last week he had his class come to his room for recitation. He contemplated quitting Irving Institute in the early summer and removing to Pennsylvania, to reside with his children; but it was otherwise ordered and he now sleeps within the borders of his native State.

On Sunday evening, while Mrs. Daniel Bowman was at the barn attending to her milking, Mr. Bowman, who has been an invalid for several years and also suffering with mental disorder, left his bed and went into the kitchen where, it is supposed, he was in the act of falling and grasped the stove and pulled it over on him. Fortunately Mrs. B. had a bucket of milk and some water on the stove to warm which spilled over him and on the fire and no doubt checked it, so that although his limb is badly burnt and a piece of the carpet charred, the fire did no further damage. When Mrs. B. got to the house it was filled with smoke, and she found her husband fastened down by the stove. She got him out and then gave an alarm which brought a number of persons from town to her aid.

After weeks of waiting to finally call a minister for this charge the consistory was notified that the Reformed Classis, at its adjourned meeting in Baltimore last week, had decided not to restore Bachman's congregation to the Manchester charge, but to continue it as a factor of the Carroll Charge as previously determined. But the Bachman's people, having had the promise that they would be restored, proceeded to vote for a pastor on Saturday last and elected Rev. Reoder. What will be the final outcome of this trouble seems at this time very uncertain. The Manchester charge, on Saturday next, in joint meeting, will extend their call to the Rev. Reoder.

Mr. Frank Rohrbaugh, who was helping to saw shingles at the home of Mr. William Miller, on Thursday last, accidentally got his right hand in contact with the circular saw that cut him very severely near the thumb and in the hand. He came to town and Dr. J. H. Sherman dressed the wound. At this writing he is doing quite well. Frank is well known in the neighborhood of the Tannery where he lived for several years.

The firemen have already arranged for their 5th annual jubilee on Whit Monday. The committee at their last meeting reported fine progress in arranging for new attractions, among which will be a parachute leap by a professional aeronaut, besides the band and binder contests.

Mr. Henry Deihl, of Maple Grove, sold his farming implements and stock on Saturday last at public sale, preparatory to his moving to Baltimore county, near Glyndon, where he has purchased a large tract of woodland and is engaged in clearing the same.

Mr. Ned Rohrbaugh has purchased the fixtures, route and wagons of butcher A. C. Myers and will take charge of the business next week. Mr. Myers has an engagement with a party in Chicago, whither he will go May 1st, to remain one year.

The gold watch to be drawn during the fair, under the management of a company of young ladies who are soliciting chances for it, has arrived and is quite a handsome time piece. It has the Elgin movemement and a guarantee to back it.

Workmen elevated the bell in the belfry of Trinity Reformed Church this week, so that it now swings even with the window openings, thus giving the sound a freer avenue of escape and overcoming the muffled tones it had before.

Mr. Benton Burgoon arrived at noon on Tuesday, with 6 or 8 large teams loaded to their full capacity with his household effects, and is now domiciled in his new home, the Weaver property, on N. Main street.

The Glenville Academy has started the chain plan to liquidate the balance of debt upon their buildings and has several links in the chain in our town and a number in the district.

This has been a busy week among those who are changing residences in this section, leaving about an equal number to do so next week.

The members of the Lutheran Sunday School are practising for their Easter festival, which promises to be interesting.

For several mornings Jack Frost has been getting in his best spring work, pinching the traveller's toes and wringing the schoolboy's nose.

The members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F., have decided to form their parade at 1, P. M., on Easter Monday.

Mr. Wm. Haines occupied his Maple Grove home on Tuesday.

Summary of Last Week's Manchester Items.

Following is a summary of some of the items of Manchester correspondence received too late for insertion last week:

A tramp took possession of the barn of Mr. Frank Warner, three miles east of Manchester, on Friday evening, 17th ult., and defied Mr. Warner and his employee, Charles Fuhrman, who ordered him to leave. He seized a pitch-fork and showed fight, but was finally overpowered and taken by constable Zepp to Manchester, and on Saturday morning committed to the county jail. While Mr. Warner was on his way to Manchester, on horseback, the morning after the occurrence at his barn, to appear against the tramp, his horse threw him and fell on his leg, injuring it severely. He was taken to the home of his father, Mr. Henry F. Warner, and Dr. J. H. Preston summoned to attend him. No bones were broken, but he was badly bruised and has suffered severely.
