While the dead grass was being burned from a meadow on the farm of Mr. Wm. H. Bachman, Bachman's Valley, on Wednesday, the fire got beyond control and burned over a large space. A high wind was blowing and considerable excitement was created by the occurrence, but fortunately no serious loss was incurred.

The Easter services in the several churches of this city were of a deeply impressive and interesting character. In nearly all the Holy Communion was celebrated. The floral decorations were profuse and beautiful, and the music exceptionally fine. Interesting children's services were held in the Methodist Episcopal, Lutheran and Reformed Churches at night.

Several officers of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, I. O. O. F., attended the session of Salem Lodge, this city, on Monday evening last, and assisted in conferring the initiatory degree on a number of applicants for membership. Visitors were present from Lodges at New Windsor and other points in the county, and the members of Salem Lodge were out in full force. It was a very interesting occasion and the session continued until a late hour.

Rev. Wm. L. Seabrook, wife and son Willie, formerly of this city, after nearly three months spent at Daytona, Florida, returned to Abilene, Kansas, last week. It will be remembered that Mr. Seabrook was ordered to Florida, by his physicians, to recuperate his health after the amputation of his hand at Jefferson Medical Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa., early in January. His friends and acquaintances in this community will be pleased to learn that he has been restored and returns to his ministerial duties with the prospect of usefulness and success.

Mr. Elmer Wampler, residing near this city, made a narrow escape from a dreadful death while engaged sawing logs with a portable saw-mill, in Baltimore county, on Saturday last. He was sharpening the saw when, through a misunderstanding, the engineer started the engine. Mr. Wampler's coat was caught in the saw, but he was fortunately hurled away from the machine by its motion, and, though badly bruised and severely cut on one hand and leg, was not dangerously injured. It is almost a miracle that his body was not sawn asunder.

Easter Monday was not observed as a holiday in this city, to any very considerable extent. During the afternoon the Westminster Band, in the handsome new uniform recently adopted, gave a parade concert and attracted much attention not only by the handsome appearance made, but by the admirable music rendered. At night the Republican Drum Corps paraded and brought out large crowds on the streets by its stirring music. An Easter dance given at Wantz's Hall, by a number of young ladies and gentleman, was largely attended.

Our Gamber correspondent writes that the building owned and occupied by Mr. Stephen Kratchkoe, as a small store and shoe shop, at Louisville, in this county, was destroyed by fire on Monday night. The building was formerly a public school house. The fire, it is supposed, originated from a defective flue or by sparks falling on the roof, which was in a blaze when the fire was first discovered. Most of the contents were saved. Mr. Kratchkoe has a policy of $400 in the Northern Assurance Company of London, which will nearly cover his loss.

Rev. A. D. Melvin, pastor of the M. P. Church, this city, and Dr. J. W. Hering, lay delegate, are attending the M. P. Conference at Laurel, Del. The Conference is perhaps the most important in the church and embraces all of Maryland and Delaware, the District of Columbia and a portion of Virginia. There are a few appointments in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. There were, at the beginning of conference year, 268 appointments, parsonages and churches, valued at $1,055,330, and with an indebtedness of $94,554. There were nearly 20,000 members, 254 Sunday-schools, 3,348 officers and teachers, 21,000, scholars.

Shreeve.; J. M., Evan T. Haines; Pre., Rev. J. R. Williams; Con., Frank Smith; Secretary, D. A. C. Webster; Treasurer, J. Hamilton Singer; F. Secretary, Jesse F. Billmyer; I. S., J. W. Rodkey; O. S., Wm. Lightner. These officers will be installed by officers of the Grand Lodge, from Baltimore, on Tuesday evening next. A number of the members of Westminster Lodge No. 41, will be present on the occasion.

Considerable damage has been done in the neighborhood of Carrollton and Patapsco by fires on wood and farm lands. Ten acres of woodland belonging to Mr. John E. Houck, near Carrollton, and fifteen acres on the farm of Mr. Elijah Leppo were burned over on Saturday. Mr. Leppo's house was saved with difficulty. On Tuesday several hundred acres of wood and farm lands belonging to Messrs. Jabez A. Bush, John Davidson, Jesse Taylor and others, between Patapsco and Carrollton, were burned over. A large number of men turned out and fought the fire. The damage to timber and fences was quite considerable.

The County Commissioners were in session on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and among the business transacted appointed Messrs John E. Gaither, Michael Glennan and Luther M. Bushey road commissioners for Freedom district. Messrs. J. Hamilton Singer, Lewis J. Hemler and Isaac Trimmer were appointed examiners on the road petitioned for by Messrs. John Galt and others in district No. 1. Special pensions were granted as follows: Grafton Brooks, of district No. 8, $5.00; Wm. H. Wagner, district No. 7, $5.00; Jos. A. Linton, district No. 5, $10.00. Most of the time of the Board was employed in making transfers and abatements.

Charles M. Ditman, formerly of this city, and a brother of Messrs. Joshua and Lewis Ditman, well known citizens, was murdered in the postoffice at Crystal Creek, Colorado, on the 10th ult., by a man with whom he was in partnership in a mining claim. They had had some misunderstanding and Mr. Ditman was driven off the claim at the muzzle of a gun by his partner. Several days afterwards they met in the postoffice, and Mr. Ditman was attacked by the desperado, without provocation, no altercation having occurred. The wretch plunged a knife into the body of his unfortunate victim thirteen times, and then, to make sure his bloody work, cut Mr. Ditman's throat. The murderer was arrested. Mr. Ditman was 34 years old and unmarried. He left this county and went West about 18 years age.

Mrs. Anna A. Crouse, wife of Mr. George. A. Crouse, died at Front Royal, Va., on Friday of last week, of pneumonia, in the seventieth year of her age. She was a daughter of the late William Oursler. Messrs. William Oursler, of this city; Edward Oursler, of Manchester, and Elias Oursler, of Philadelphia, are her brothers, and Mrs. Maggie Kendall, of Baltimore; Mrs. Peter Baile, and Mrs. Jacob Leppo, of New Windsor, her sisters. She formerly resided in this city and was highly esteemed for her many virtues and her many acts of kindness and charity. Her remains were brought here and taken to the residence of her brother, East Main street, where funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, after which the body was interrrd in Westminster Cemetery. Rev. Dr. Ward and Rev. A. D. Melvin officiated. A large number of relatives and friends attended the obsequies.

The remains of Dr. H. C. Nelson, U. S. N., who died several weeks ago at Concord, N. H., arrived in this city by the 9.47 A. M. train from Baltimore, on Wednesday, and were received by Burns Post, G. A. R., of which he was a member. The Post, under command of Col. Wm. A. McKellip, formed an escort and guard of honor to the body, which was removed directly from the railroad station to Ascension Episcopal Church. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, the rector, Rev. C. N. Morris, officiating. The remains were then taken to the burial ground of Deer Park Chapel, four miles from this city, and interred in the family lot by the side of Dr. Nelson's father, the late Burgess Nelson. The pall-bearers were: Drs. J. W. Hering, J. H. Billingslea, Charles Billingslea, Messrs. Charles T. Reifsnider, F. H. Orendorff, Wm. H. Vanderford.

Lecture on Thackeray.

Thackeray, the great English novelist, is to be portrayed by one of the most studious and scholarly men on the lecture platform, at Central Hall, next Tuesday night, April 11th. The lecturer is Mr. Leon H. Vincent, who lectured in the course of last winter on Dickens, and who won unqualified praise from all who heard him then. One more lecture, to be given by Mrs. M. A. Newell, on Poe, Friday evening, April 21st, will complete the course for this season. Both of these entertainments will be of the highest order, and worthy of the generous approval of our people. We hope they will be patronized as they deserve.

Wedding Bells.

CLARKE-CASSELL.

A pretty little romance had its culmination in a wedding at Grace Lutheran Church, this city, at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The contracting parties were Mr. Edward Vernon Clarke, of Boston, Mass., and Miss Annie Gilbert Cassell, of this city.

Mr. Clarke is connected with the church organ building establishment of George S. Hutchings, of Boston, and came here last May to introduce and test instruments of this character in the Lutheran and Methodist Protestant churches. He then, for the first time, met Miss Cassell, and it proved a case of love at first sight.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Cassell and the late Reuben Cassell. Since her childhood she has been the the special care and protege of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gilbert, who are childless, and their home has been hers also. They issued the invitations to her wedding, which was first set for Wednesday, March 15th, but was interrupted by the serious illness of the groom, who came here to fulfill the engagement, and was stricken down with a violent fever.

All the circumstances have conspired to make the event unusually interesting, and the church was filled with friends of the parties to witness the nuptials. The altar was very tastefully decorated with potted flowers and ferns. The ushers were Messrs. Charles E. Hering, George E. Matthews, James H. Cassell and Frank V. Cassell, of this city, the last two being brothers of the bride.

The bride, who is petite and pretty, was charming in a dress of white India silk, trimmed with point de chene lace. She carried a boquet of bride roses. The bridal party approached and retired from the altar to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Annie E. Shriver, an intimate friend of the bride. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. P. H. Miller, pastor of the church, with the ring ceremony.

Among those present were: Messrs. John Clayton Cassell, O. W. McAulliffe, H. Ross Black, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Frank W. Mitten, of Gettysburg, Pa.; Miss Nettie Byers, of Emmitsburg; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Connor, Misses Sadie Kneller, Maggie Gilbert, Lillie Shafer, Lillie Van Meter, Mr. Amos Harriman, Mr. Frank Callahan, of Baltimore; Mrs. Geyer Black, of Mechanicstown; Miss Julia Yingling, of Bendersville, Pa.; Mrs. E. A. Capper, of Chicago, Ills. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke left by the 5.57 train, and after a time spent in Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York, will go to Boston, where they will reside. The bride received many elegant and valuable presents.

SHIPLEY-HUGHES.

Blue Lake Mills, the residence of Mr. William Hughes, was the scene of a very pretty home wedding, on Thursday, March the 30th. The bride was Mr. Hughes' youngest daughter, Miss Ella, and the groom Mr. William Shipley, of Baltimore. Miss Effie Franklin was bridesmaid, and Mr. William Cook, best man. Promptly at 5 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, which was rendered by Miss Lula Brandenburg, the bridal party entered the parlor which was very tastefully decorated with evergreens, from the four corners to the center of the room, where a large bell hung, beneath which the solemn vows were spoken that made them man and wife. Rev. Wm. H. Lane performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner. The serene, silvery brightness of the evening brought together a large company of the immediate relatives and friends of the parties, whose presence and interest enlivened the occasion with mirth and social joy. The bride, who is quite a favorite in society, was most becomingly attired in a handsome tan-colored silk empire cloth, with slippers to match, and carried a bouquet of lilies and La France roses. The bridesmaid was similarly attired. The happy groom, looking his best, wore the conventional black. The bride received many tokens of good will from her friends, in the way of wedding presents, consisting of silverware, tableware and articles of toilet, designed for use and decoration in house-keeping. After receiving the congratulations of their friends, the dining-room doors were thrown open and all invited to partake of a sumptuous wedding supper, consisting of all the substantials and delicacies of the season. About 9 o'clock the jingle of bells, and tooting of horns, announced the approach of an old-fashioned serenading party "forty strong" in number. Among those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Shipley, Mr. Ezra Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brandenburg, Mrs. E. Franklin, Mr. Robert Hughes, Mrs. Rachel Clark, Misses Julia Shipley, Lona Gorsuch, Effie Franklin, Dena Shipley, Lula Brandenburg, Messrs. Harry Shipley, George Brown, Luther Fowble, Willard Gosnell, Frank Brandenburg, William Cook.

Social in Wakefield Valley.

The hospitable residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, in Wakefield Valley, was the scene of a very pleasant event on Tuesday evening, 28th ult., the occasion having been a party given by Mrs. Smith to a number of young folks of the vicinity. The evening was spent in social conversation, games, vocal and instrumental music. Some very fine music was rendered by Professor Smith on the harp. At eleven o'clock all were invited to the dining-room to partake of refreshments, to which all did ample justice. At a late hour all departed for their homes, bidding their host and hostess good night after having spent a very pleasant evening. Among those present were: Mr. Clarence Snider, of Baltimore; Mr. Babylon, Union Mills; Miss Maggie Babylon, Mr. Rinehart Zile, Uniontown; the Misses Zahn, Messrs. Charles Royer, Paul Royer, Mr Sullivan, Frizellburg; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A Narrow Escape.

The following from the Baltimore American tells how a young lady student of Western Maryland College narrowly escaped a fatal accident on Saturday morning last: "What might have resulted in the death of one of the young lady students of the Western Maryland College, at Westminster, was averted through the presence of mind of Mr. W. M. Steffey, a passenger brakeman on the Western Maryland Railroad, yesterday morning. When the train, which reaches Hillen Station at 10.30 o'clock, arrived at Westminster, the young lady was standing with a party of friends on the depot platform chatting. Although, 'All aboard!' had been called several times, the young lady made no move to get on the train until it began to pull out of the station. She then ran and tried to jump on the step, but slipped between the cars and would undoubtedly have been mangled to death, had not Mr. Steffey seized her around the waist and held her until the train was again stopped. She was then placed safely on board and brought to Baltimore. The lady was profuse in her expression of thanks to Mr. Steffey, but declined to give her name. Beyond being considerably frightened, she was in no wise injured."

A Great Age.

Brief mention was made last week of the death of a colored man familiarly known as "Boss" Hammond, who had attained to an age exceeding 100 years. A Taylorsville correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing under date of the 2nd inst., gives the following particulars concerning him:

"Sebastain Hammond, a worthy colored man, of Frederick county, near the Carroll county line, died on Thursday morning last, at the age of one hundred and nine years. Many years ago he purchased his freedom from the late Col. Thomas Hammond, of Frederick county, Md., for seven hundred dollars, and after paying for himself he bought his wife and four children for a like sum.

"He learned to cut letters on tombstones, and although he did not know one letter from another he could cut all kinds of fancy work from a copy correctly. Many graveyards in Frederick and Carroll counties bear evidence of his skill as a workman, some of his lettering having been done over seventy-five years ago. He at one time was well off, but lost his property and died poor. His age seems to be well established, and it is generally believed that it is correct as given above."

A Shooting Match.

A shooting tournament took place on the grounds of the Westminster Gun Club, this city, on Friday afternoon of last week, between the Standards, of Baltimore, the New Windsor and Westminster Clubs. The contest was for clay targets and live birds. The team race was won by the Standards, the prize being a $2.50 gold piece.

The teams and scores were, at 20 birds each, as follows: Standard No. 1.—Franklin, 19; Bond, 18; Lupin, 18; Evans, 19; Buckler, 17; Ducker, 18; total 109. Standard No. 2—Bondy, 17; Hunt, 19; Clements, 17; Johnson, 7; Cox, 7; Williams, 10; total, 77. New Windsor—Lindsay, 17: Vance, 13; Marshall, 11; Dielman, 10; Crabs, 14, and J. Roop, 13. Westminster, Team No. 1—Smith, 13; Roop, 13; C. Heim, 16; Reid, 17; Hering, 17, and Baughman, 16; total, 92. Westminster No. 2—Roberts, 13; Bennett, 14; Thomas, 8; Frizzell, 13; Starr, 14, and Rippard, 13; total, 75. Pool shooting occupied the marksmen during the time not spent in the team shoot.

A Soldier's Testament.

Mrs. Albert Fowler, of this city, has placed in the hands of Col. Wm. A. McKellip, a copy of the New Testament in the back of which is the following entry:

"BIBLE HOUSE, BALTIMORE.
From the Maryland State Bible Society
To Matthew Platter, soldier in Co. C, 50th Regiment N. Y. S. Vols.
Should I die on the battlefield, or in hospital, for the sake of humanity acquaint Matthew Platter Lee, residing at Center, Oneida Co., N. Y., of the fact, and where my remains may be found."

The little volume was evidently lost by the soldier on his march through this city on the way to the battle of Gettysburg, about the 1st of July, 1863. We are not informed as to when or by whom it was found. Col. McKellip has written to the postmaster at Center, N. Y., requesting him to assist in finding the soldier to whom the Testament belonged, or his representatives or friends.

Garden-making and work of kindred character is engaging the attention of householders in this city and throughout the county generally.

A Very Enjoyable Time.

One of the most pleasant events of this season was the moving of Mr. John Snader, which took place Thursday last. Mr. Snader has been living on Sam's Creek for many years and his many neighbors and friends regretted very much to see him and his family leave them. Notwithstanding the sadness of parting, however, they all met together and assisted in his moving, making a large company. Ninety-four took dinner. Ten large 6-horse wagons, 15 buggies and carriages, and three spring wagons were in the flitting procession. When they arrived at their new home they were met by many kind neighbors, who gave them a hearty welcome. Among those present were: Mr. John Snader and family, Mrs. Horrice, Mr. W. Little and wife, Mr. White and Mr. M. Clemson, of Union Bridge; Mrs. E. B. Garner, of Linwood; Miss Florence Englar, Mr. Edgar Nusbaum and sister, Mr. P. Snader, wife and son, of New Windsor; Mr. Howard Devilbiss and wife, Mr. E. F. Snader and family, Mr. G. Devilbiss and family, Mr. Addie Lindsay, Messrs. Willard and Carville Nicodemus, Mr. Beals and brother, Mrs. Pearre and mother, Mr. M. Devilbiss, Mr. M. Lindsay, and wife, Mr. E. Ensor and sister, Miss Laura Ensor, Miss May Nicodemus, Mr. Will Englar and family, Mr. David Baile and wife, Mr. B. Nicodemus, Miss Linnie Lipe, Mrs. H. S. Roberts and daughters, Miss Ida Englar and sister, Mrs. Laura Sellman, Mrs. John Baile, Miss Lucy Garner, Mr. Arthur Englar and family, Mr. D. Englar and wife and many others. Mr. Snader moved to the farm of Miss May Nicodemus.

Porters Items.

Easter morning dawned bright and beautiful and the happy Easter service prepared by the Sabbath School of Messiah Church seemed most appropriate to the day. A large congregation was present. The program was as follows: Easter Anthem, "Christ is Risen," by the choir; responsive reading, Supt. and school; Gloria Patria, choir; prayer, by Mr. G. W. Hess; hymn, "What equal honors shall we bring;" responsive reading, Easter Blessings; recitation, "Magdalena," by Miss Edna Wilson; chorus, "Hear the News;" responsive reading, Easter Triumphs; chorus "Luther's Easter Carol;" Exercise, "Our Risen King," by the Infant Class; chorus, Glory to Our Risen King; responsive reading, "Easter Life;" chorus, "I am the Resurrection;" responsive reading, "The Easter Gate;" recitation, Easter Flower, Miss Florence Clark; chorus, "The Easter Gate of Life;" recitation, The Invitation, by Miss Carrie Shoemaker; responsive reading, "Easter Hopes;" chorus, "They all shall rise again;" responsive reading, "Easter Duties;" address on Church Extension, by G. W. Hess; chorus, "Go forth, extend the Church of God." The church was tastefully decorated with potted plants. A collection was taken up for the board of church extension. Rev. H. A. Letterman, who has been ill, is improving slowly, but was not able to attend the Easter service.

The Y. P. M. S. met at Messiah Church on Sunday afternoon. The opening service from the manual was led by Miss Annie Hess. After the reading of the minutes and roll call the hymn, "Where two or three with sweet accord," was sung. Next followed the scripture lesson. After a brief service of sentence prayers, the hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," was rendered. Miss Mattie Shoemaker then read a selection entitled the "Matsayuma Mirror." After the collection, delegates to the Conference to be held here June 7th, were elected

Mrs. Maria Bankert has a tomato stalk that is 3½ feet in height and is bearing tomatoes of which some are ripe.

Mr. Ivan L. S. Hoff spent Easter at home. This is his fourth year as a student at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg.

Last week E. P. Robosson, of Grave Run Mills, was in this vicinity selling patent medicines.

Arbor day will be the 14th of April this year—the last day of school. We think every school should plant trees, as a large number of trees is annually destroyed.

Mr. James C. Myers spent a day last week at Union Mills.

Messrs. Geo. Zepp, Sr., and John Horich spent a day the former part of the week in Hanover, Pa.

Dr. J. S. Zeigler is erecting outbuildings and otherwise improving his property.

Some of our people made garden and planted potatoes last week. Rather early, isn't it?

The season of changing homes is now in progress. Mr. H. B. Burgoon has moved from Bachman's Valley to Manchester, Mr. Louis Leese to Mr. Jeremiah Leese's house recently owned by Mr. H. B. Burgoon, and Mr. Andrew Sullivan to Mr. Oliver Hoover's tenant house. No changes have yet been made in our town.

Misses Birdie and Laura S. Sullivan, of near Lineboro, spent Easter with their mother, Mrs. Kate Sullivan, who resides in our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli A. Shanabrough, of Hanover, Pa., spent Easter with Mrs. Kate Sullivan.

Pleasant Valley Items.

On last Monday morning our quiet little village was shocked to hear that Mrs. N. H. Kester was at the point of death. She lingered until 12 o'clock, when death put an end to her sufferings. She leaves a husband and four children, one an infant four days old. She was the only daughter of Mr. Wm. Myers, near our village. Her funeral took place Wednesday morning and was attended by a large number of sympathising friends and relatives. Interment at Pleasant Valley cemetery this place, Rev. Mr. Fultz officiating. Universal sympathy is felt for her bereaved family. She was a kind and amiable lady and enjoyed the respect of all. Her age was 31 years, 7 months.

At an election on Good Friday held at St. Matthews Church, this place, the following officers were elected: Reformed—Elder, Jno. F. Shade; deacon, Ed. M. Hahn; Lutheran—Elder, Joseph Helwig; deacon, Levi H. Myers.

The band of this place, which had united with the Mount Pleasant Band, has organized independently again and for the first time appeared on our street on Good Friday.

Manchester Items.

As announced, the members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge opened their fair and festival on Friday evening of last week, with a good attendance and a liberal patronage. The day was pretty generally observed as a holiday and brought a goodly number of persons from the country. The attendance on Saturday night was better still and the supper department did a flourishing business. On Easter Monday the parade was formed at the hall at 1, P. M., headed by the band in full uniform and in the use of their new instruments which give good satisfaction. The engine drawn by two horses was next in procession, and then followed the laddies with the truck. They had quite a full number and are entitled to much credit for their display. Next in line was Trenton Lodge, I. O. M., followed immediately by the officers and members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge, I. O. O. F. After a parade of the town the procession returned to the hall and disbanded. By that time there was quite a large crowd around the hall and on Main street who enjoyed the general good time such occasions bring, many remaining until after night. The fair room had an overflow and business was at his height. It will be reopened on Saturday evening, after a balloon ascension about 5.30, by which time the ladies, who are chancing the gold watch, expect to have a full return of their books now among friends and, if so, the drawing will be made and here these lines will be quite apropos:

Turn on the gas to prevent any bumps,
While behind the curtain eating stumps,
For though it happened, in the evening later,
One on either side of the dumb waiter.

The Easter services at Emmanuel Lutheran Church of this place on Sunday evening were of an interesting character and brought out a large congregation. The church was tastefully decorated with lilies and evergreens on pulpit and altar, amid which was a large cross on the right and an anchor on the left, all brilliantly lighted, which added much to the effect. The school marched from their room to the church to organ music by Mrs. Wyant, and took an active part in the program, in singing solos and recitations. The solos of Mrs. Eyster and Miss Kate Wareheim bear special mention, while little Annie Fuhrman cannot be passed by. The recitation of Miss Neta Oursler was given in her usual happy manner. A collection for church extension was taken and well responded to.

The tearing up and putting down and moving to and fro season still continues. This week finds C. W. Stick in his new home on the corner of Main street and Foundry avenue with a corps of workmen making changes and building additions, so that when complete it will rank among the best. Landlord Fredericks moved into the Washington House on Thursday and is entertaining his friends and patrons in first class style. Mr. Chas. W. Motter is in his new house and Mr. Bahn, of Pennsylvania, is now occupying the house vacated by Mr. M., where he is fitting up a fine jewelry store.

Miss Maggie Crouse, Miss Carrie and Mr. Harry Lamotte spent several of the holidays with Mr. Breck Shaw and family and other friends in Frederick. Messrs. Jesse and Elijah Taylor, two of our most esteemed citizens, are confined to their beds by sickness.

Mr. Jabez A. Bush, who resided at Sandyville during the last three years, has moved to his farm at this place. He was gladly welcomed by his many friends here. Mr. Edward Taylor has occupied Mr. Bush's tenant house and will take charge of the farm.

The members of the Church of God at Warfieldsburg have given their pastor, Rev. J. A. Staub, a donation amounting to $29 for which they received his heartfelt thanks. Friends in Westminster also presented him with a very nice plush lap robe, costing six dollars, for which he feels very grateful, and especially to Mr. Calvin Myerly, who was the prime mover in the matter.

Mr. Thomas F. Snider and Miss Eliza E. Davidson, both of near Carrollton Station, were married March 5th, Elder J. A. Staub performing the ceremony.

Bethel Sunday School was reorganized on Sunday afternoon and the following officers elected: Superintendents, John Uhler, James Evans; Secretaries, Jacob Arbaugh, Nimrod Green; Librarians, Andrew J. Ebaugh, Miss Eda Taylor; Treasurer, Wm. A. Allgire. The school is in a very promising condition.

Several large fires, started by sparks from railroad engines, recently, have been quite destructive, particularly on timber land. The largest occurred on Monday, when about 100 acres, chiefly woodland, was burned over. The owners of the property affected are: Messrs. Jno. E. Houck, Elijah Leppo, Jesse Taylor, of T., and Jabez A. Bush. About 100 people engaged in suppressing this fire. The fire also burned a lot of cordwood and damaged a fine piece of chestnut timber for Mr. Wm. L. Richards.

Sam's Creek Items.

At Fairview, on last Sunday, the funeral of "Boss" Hammond was very largely attended by both white and colored. It was said on the funeral occasion that the deceased was one hundred years old. Rev. Sawyer officiated.

On last Wednesday the remains of Mrs. Lucretia, the beloved wife of Mr. Nathan Bair were interred in the burying ground of the M. E. Church South, at St. James. Rev. Mr. Cross, of New Windsor, officiated. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. W. W. Naill, Thomas Jones, John Sellman, Solomon Foutz, John T. Haines and Isaac Kiler; Mr. James Stoner, of Westminster, undertaker. The funeral assembly was a very large one.
