THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

June wanes, and with it the weekly weddings end with to-day that is, for a spell, at least.

Emmanuel Church will again this afternoon, at three-thirty o'clock, be the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Alice Emily Dole, daughter of Dr. Esther M. Dole, Professor of History at Washington College, and the late Arthur L. Dole becomes the bride of Mr. George Bennett Keester II, son of Commander George B. Keester (U. S. Navy Retired) and Mrs. Keester, of Annapolis. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Chas. L. Atwater.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother Mr. Charles Edward Dole, will wear a gown of white embroidered mousseline de soie with a large white picture hat, and carry an old fashioned nosegay of white flowers.

Miss Mary Ellen Keester, sister of the groom, will be Miss Dole's Maid of Honor and only attendant. She will be gowned in a dress of blue chiffon, wearing a large leghorn hat and will carry a nosegay of spring flowers.

Mr. Keester will have as his best man, Mr. Hubert Mason, of Baltimore, and the following will serve as ushers: Mr. William Atwater, Mr. Roland Morrison, Mr. Edward Kenney, and Mr. Charles Keesey, all of Baltimore.

Following a motor trip South, the bride and groom will reside in Baltimore, where they have taken a house on Bolton Street.

A luncheon at the Sophie Fisher Inn, for the immediate families and out-of-town guests will be given at noon, and a reception immediately following the ceremony will be held at the home of the bride's mother.

Among the out-of-town guests are Mr. and Mrs. James H. Keester, of Easton; Commander and Mrs. George Keester and Miss Mary Ellen Keester, Mrs. Charles Terwilleger of Annapolis; Mrs. J. Fletcher Clark of Easton; the Misses Ethel, Rosalie and Laura Dole, of Chicago; Miss Betty Dole Williams of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hurd and other guests from Baltimore; Mr. Harry Ganly, Mr. Steve Jump and Miss Kay Price, of Philadelphia; Miss Virginia Randall Worthington and Miss Margaret Muse Worthington, of Annapolis.

A wedding of much interest here, took place at high noon, last Saturday, June 22, when Miss Willa Hughes Newnam, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. William Pickering Newnam, of Chestertown, became the bride of Mr. William Welsh Garbutt, son of Mrs. Ira Garbutt and the late Mr. Garbutt, of Fredrica, Del., in St. David's P. E. Church, Roland Park. Rev. Dr. Richard T. Loring, rector of the church, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Dr. Chas. L. Atwater, rector of Emmanuel P. E. Church, here.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white silk suit, with a small hat, and wore a corsage of baby orchids.

Mrs. Donald A. Cuthbert, of Eleria, Ohio, sister of the bride, was the Matron of Honor and wore a delicate shade of pink, jacket suit, with a Dresden corsage.

Mr. Thomas Garbutt, of Wilmington, Del., brother of the groom, served as best man.

The wedding music was rendered by Mr. Robert Huey, of Chestertown and Baltimore.

Following the ceremony, a luncheon was served for the bridal party and two families at the Ambassador Apartments, the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hughes. After the luncheon, Mr. Garbutt and his bride left on a motor trip through North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee. On their return, they will be at home at 216 N. State St., Dover, Del.

The three sororities at Washington College all picked Ocean City for their annual summer house parties which were held last week.

Among the girls who attended from here were Frances Kreeger, Helen Marie Culver, Frances Harris, Dianne Hubbard, Betty Beck and Ellen Bordley, members of the Alpha Chi Omega.

Representing the Alpha Omicron Pi were Margaret Bell, Eleanor White, Helen Strong, Margaret Thornton and Helen Westcott.

The Zeta Tau Alpha was the third sorority, which made the complete representation.

Miss Harriette Welch, who teaches at Sag Harbor, L. I., has returned to Chestertown, for a short visit with her aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper. She was accompanied by Miss Hester Stevens, of South Hampton. Yesterday, Miss Welch and Miss Stevens motored to Williamsburg, Va., for the week-end. Miss Welch will then return here until after the 4th, when she will leave on a motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Giraitis, of New Haven, Conn., will come this week to remain over the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Anthony, of Columbus, Ohio, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kreeger.

Captain and Mrs. J. K. Allen and daughter, of Fort Bragg, N. C., are guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Jacobs, at their home on Philosopher's Terrace.

Rev. Dr. Charles L. Atwater and Mrs. Atwater have been attending the annual summer school at Ocean City, for the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chester Atwater have been staying at the Rectory during their absence.

Miss Garce Bennett Jones, of Washington, D. C., was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Walter T. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Seigenfuse, of Dumont, N. J., are guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Edward Robinson.

Mrs. Harry E. Jefferson, motored on Monday, to Ocean City, where she has remained throughout the week as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Omar D. Crothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stenger and family have returned from a motor trip through Western Maryland where they were guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., left yesterday, motoring ot Marblehead, Mass., where they will remain for a week, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Stone.

Mrs. J. Elliott Gilpin, of Baltimore, will come on Monday to spend two weeks as a guest of Miss Belle Emory, at Piney Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewin Wickes are established for the summer months at the Wickes Apts.

Dr. and Mrs. Barrett Catlin and little daughter, Sally, of Baltimore, were guests last week-end of Mrs. James G. Beck.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, Miss Betty Beck, and Miss Anne Wilmer left yesterday to motor to Ely, Vermont, where they will spend the camp season at Camp Quinnibec.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harry Schreiber and family, of Columbus, Ohio, are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schrieber.

Little Hurtt Deringer, son of Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Deringer, will celebrate his 5th birthday this afternoon, when he will entertain a number of his little friends at a party at the home of his parents.

With the coming week, dawns the 4th of July, with stars and stripes a-streaming. At the Country Club, the annual picnic on the lawn, for the members will be held. This merry gathering, armed with their lunches, precedes the display of fireworks, which is watched by the community on the lake shore.

There we'll be, in the rocket's red glare, with bombs bursting in air. "What so proudly we hailed, at the twilight's last gleaming, O long may it wave, o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Yours saluting,

The Wanderer

LOCAL RED CROSS TO HOLD LIFE SAVING CLASSES

To Be Conducted Three Places In County

Announcement was made yesterday by Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, Executive Secretary of the Kent County Red Cross Chapter, that arrangements have been made for life saving classes to be conducted at Chestertown, Betterton and Millington.

The classes at Chestertown will be held on Mondays and Fridays. The swimming classes will be held on the shore of the home of Mr. John C. Marscher and the life saving classes at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club.

The days for the classes at Betterton are Tuesdays and Thursdays and at Millington on Wednesdays and and Saturdays.

The hours of the classes for all three points in the county are:

Swimming—Beginners 10 to 11 A. M. Advanced 11 A. M. to 12 N.

Life Saving—Juniors 2 to 3 P. M. Seniors 3 to 4 P. M.

The classes will be started immediately and the instructor will be Mr. Donald McClelland, a student at Washington College who has just completed the aquatic school at Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curry, of Lynch, celebrated their Golden Wedding at their home last Tuesday. Quite a number of friends assembled to congratulate them on their long life together and to wish them much happiness for the coming years. One of the pleasant features of the evening was the coming of the Rev. Mr. Kay, of St. James Church, who brought his musical instrument with him and played many hymns and songs of "Auld lang Syne" in which the company joined, after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Edinburgh

Edwin is not a Scottish name but Scotland's finest city is Edwin's Burgh, or Edinburgh as it is called today. It was established in the year 617, when Edwin, king of Northumbria in England, built his fortress on the rock where Edinburgh castle now stands.

Robinson Crusoe

The little Scottish village of Largo entertains hundreds of visitors every year who come to see where Alexander Selkirk, the prototype of Defoe's Robinson Crusoe, was born. He has a statue near the harbor, and visitors may stay at the Crusoe hotel.
