Dear Roamer

When Summer meets mid-August you may well know that Horse Show season is at hand. Dates are ringed on the calendar for at least three or four weeks in the offing, which, after all, is about the only semblance of amusement. Lack of parties and the usual round of summer-time gaiety has been most definitely noted, of late. It's the same cry everywhere you turn. Well, after all, heat such as we've recently experienced, is certainly not very conducive to entertaining formally, informally or at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown (Bus) Roe are entertaining a house party this week-end at their cottage in Rehoboth Beach. Among those from here who will attend include Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, and Mr. William S. Collins.

Of course the ocean fronts are in their prime, at the moment, and many from here are seeking the salt air breezes at Ocean City, Md.

Miss Alice R. Smith and Mrs. Don Falls are there now, while next week a goodly crowd will trek to that resort for a vacation. Among those who will go include: Miss Harriett Skirven, Mrs. Richard Hall and Mrs. Enna B. Lewis, in one party; Mrs. Edward Robinson, Mrs. Garret Chairs, Mrs. Clifton Rollison and Miss Frances Hodgson in another party; Miss Phoebe Pyle; Mrs. James Kreeger and 2 children and Mrs. Harry S. Russell with little son "Russ."

Miss Madeline Baxter has returned from a visit to Saratoga Springs, and New York, where she attended the World's Fair.

Mr. William T. Dixon will leave this week for a ten days cruise with friends aboard the yacht of Mr. and Mrs. William Meredith of Easton.

Mrs. Leonrad C. Needles and son, Leonard E., are spending a month visiting friends and relatives in Findlay, Ohio, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Las Vegas, N. M. They are making the entire trip by Gray Hound bus. On their return trip they will stop in New York for a four-day visit at the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley are the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Milton T. Harris, in Gloucester Point, Va.

Miss Margaret Ann Turner has returned to her home on Washington Avenue after spending several weeks at Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Miss Peggy Benton, has been visiting at the World's Fair and is now the guest of friends at Mt. Molly, N. J.

Miss Mary Patricia Thompson, of Yeadon, Pennsylvania, has been a guest for the past week at the homes of Miss Mildred Powers and Miss Helen Westcott. Miss Powers accompanied Miss Thompson on her return home and will be her guest for next week at Yeadon.

So much for those who travel by land sea or air.

Now for some guests who are here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Holliday, of Washington, D. C., have been spending the week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Benton, of Baltimore, are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kirby.

Mr. and Mr.s Lewis King, of Memphis, Tenn., are guests for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Deringer.

Mrs. Luke Ekerly and family of Palmyra, N. J., are guests of Mrs. Ekerly's father and sister, Mr. H. T. Jewell, and Mrs. Preston P. Heck.

Miss Isablele Beck, of Baltimore, came on Wednesday to be at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Allan A. Harris, who is suffering severely from a fall on Monday evening. Mr. Harris, who is a patient at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital is resting more comfortably at the present writing.

Miss Bessie Dixon will entertain at a house party over the week-end at the home of her mother, Green Point Farm. Her guests will include Miss Ellen Duer, Mr. Robert Johnson, Jr., Mr. Courtney Whedbee, all of Baltimore, and Mr. Robert Culver, of North East.

Invitations have been received in Chestertown to the marriage of Miss Nan Lincoln Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kirkham Smith, to Mr. James William Johns, Jr., son of Mr. James W. Johns, business manager of Washington College, and Mrs. Johns, of Chestertown. The wedding will take place at 5 o'clock on Saturday evening, August 17, at the home of the bride's parents in San Rafael, California. Mr. Johns is a representative of the Roebling Steel Company, of Trenton, N. J.

At the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keefer are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son and Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ozman upon the birth of a daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Whiting, of Baltimore, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son at St. Agnes Hospital, August 3rd. Mrs. Whiting was Miss Kathryn Ford, of Chestertown. Little Suzanne and George are spending the remainder of the summer with their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Ford.

I sat me down in thought

I've thought and thought, it is no use
I've writ what all is new.

TAX DITCH MEETING HELD FRIDAY AT MILLINGTON

The County Commissioners and the County Tax Ditch authorities held a public meeting at Millington on Friday afternoon of this week for the purpose of discussing the details of the tax ditch idea with reference to benefits, costs and maintenance and also for the purpose of having objections to the proposed Corbalay branch ditch which runs from Massey to Millington.

Due to the hour of going to press it was impossible to report details of the meeting although no objections to this ditch were expected as all farm owners except one who are affected by the ditch had requested the project.

It was understood that machniery and CCC labor is to be furnished and the cost of the project is the wages of the machine operator and gasoline and oil. There is also a maintenance cost.

In addition to Corbalay branch, applications have been made for the ditching of Dead Mans branch and Pudding branch. Other tax ditch proposals are being considered in the county.

Mr. Julian Hurtt, president of the Board of County Commissioners, presided at the meeting.
