The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Again the chime of wedding bells is heard here when one of our former boys took the vows "to love, honor and cherish till death us do part."

The marriage of Miss Jane Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Campbell, of Pittsburgh and Mr. William M. McCullough, son of Mrs. J. S. Williams Jones, of Chestertown, took place at noon, Saturday, August 31, 1940, at Edmondson Avenue Methodist Church, Baltimore.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Leonard B. Smith, D. D., pastor of the church, in the presence of the immediate families.

Mrs. McCullough is a graduate of the Art Department of Grove City College and later studied at the Cleveland School of Art. Mr. McCullough, a graduate of Washington College and of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is now employed in personnel work at Edgewood Arsenal. The young couple will make their home at Stansbury Manor.

Over the week-end, members and guests of the Country Club are anticipating with much pleasure the second annual Deep Point Regatta followed by a picnic supper on Deep Point Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb. The sailing races will start at 2:30, while the supper will be served at 5:30 on the lawn. Here's hpoing for a fine breezy day. Last year everyone had such a good time, I remember, so let's all help history to repeat itself.

Since last writing you, I have learned of quite a few additional guests who spent the Labor Day week-end here. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Griffin, of Baltimore, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Thomas. Elmer Thomas Jr., by the way, left on Tuesday for New York to be a guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins, for several days.

Miss Mildred Ramsay, of Washington, D. C., was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Commander and Mrs. Hugh Sease at their home, in Quaker Neck.

Mrs. Geraldine Williams, of Baltimore, who came last Saturday, has remained throughout the week as a guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Smith with their two daughters, of Louisville, Ky., were guests this week of the former's mother, Mrs. Belle Smith.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, accompanied by Miss Betty White, returned home Sunday evening. Dr. Eldridge Eliason, of Philadelphia, was a guest at the home of Mrs. H. Clay Brown over the week-end. On Thursday, Mrs. Brown, Miss Brown and Miss White motored to Atlantic City, N. J., where they will remain until Sunday.

Guests over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hollinger included the former's sister, Mrs. Grover Neikerk, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hollinger and two daughters, Phyllis and Faye, all of Shady Grove, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Bucher and son, Don Eugene, of Colonial Village, Arlington, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lamb, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hollinger Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Coleman, of Philadelphia were guests of Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Coleman.

Mr. Burchinal Brown, of New York has been a guest of his mother, Mrs. Hiram Brown at Godlington Manor, this week.

Mr. William Welch, of Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Mollie Whaland and Dr. Berta Whaland of Bridgeton, N. J., are guests of the Misses Anna and Helen Welch at their home on Maple Avenue.

Among those who were out-of-town over last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton III, who spent the weke-end in New York.

Also inNew York where they attended the World's Fair during the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Porter of Chestertown and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mench, of Rock Hall.

Misses Kathryn Elliott, of Chestertown, Helen Coleman and Eulah Compton, of Baltimore left by motor on Wednesday for Keyser, W. Va., where they will be guests for a week of Miss Compton's mother.

Little Rose Mary Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Holt Wright, entertained a number of little friends on Wednesday afternoon at a "house warming" at the new home of her parents in Quaker Neck.

Col. and Mrs. Chas. Mills Bunker have as their guest this week, Mr. Charles Jennings, of Roaring Gap, North Carolina and Miami, Florida. On Thursday afternoon, Col. and Mrs. Bunker entertained in honor of Mr. Jennings at their home in the Wickes Apartments.

Mr. H. J. Hohman, President of the Kingsville Nurseries, will be the guest speaker at the September meeting of Our Garden Club on Tuesday, which will be entertained by Mrs. H. A. Kratzer at her home on Water Street.

All of which reminds me, my turn is next, and that I better be doing some weeding. Ta-Ta!

Yours at work,

The Wanderer

Jones-Slack

The wedding of Miss Florence Olivia Jones, daughter of Mrs. George R. Jones and the late Dr. George R. Jones, of Galena, and Mr. John Major Slack, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Slack, of Newark, Delaware, took place at 4 P. M. Saturday August 31, in Shrewsbury Protestant Episcopal Church. The Rev. Charles L. Atwater, D. D., rector officiated. Miss Mildred Hoyle, of Fairlee, played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. George R. Jones, Jr., of Galena. The matron of honor was Mrs. Alice Murray, of Dover, Del., sister of the bridegroom. Miss Dorothea Gilfillan, of Galena, cousin of the bridegroom was the maid of honor. Miss Laura Lee Jones, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin and a matching veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The attendants wore blue taffeta gowns and blue hats and carried bouquets of yellow galdiolis and yellow daisies. The flower girl wore a pink taffeta dress and carried a basket of old fashioned flowers.

Mr. Robert Slack, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Alick Murray, brother-inlaw of the bridegroom, Mr. Samuel Cole, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mr. Harry Wilson.

A reception followed immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Wilmington, Del.

ROOSEVELT URGES YOUNG MEN TO STAY IN COLLEGE

President Mead of Washington College has received recently a letter addressed to college and university heads throughout the United States by President Roosevelt, through the American Council on Education, urging college men not to abandon their education for enlistment either in the armed forces or in the defense industries. President Roosevelt says:

"Reports have reached me that some young people who have planned to enter college this fall, as well as a number of those who attended college last year, are intending to interrupt their education at this time because they feel that it is more patriotic to work in a shipyard, or to enlist in the Army or Navy, than it is to attend college. Such a decision would be unfortunate.

We must have well educated and intelligent citizens who have sound judgment in dealing with the difficult problems of today.

We must also have scientists, engineers, economists, and other people with specialized knowledge to plan and build for national defense as for social and economic progress.

Young people should be advised that it is their patriotic duty to continue the normal course of their education unless and until they are called so that they will be best prepared for greatest usefulness to their country.

They will be promptly notified if they are needed for another patriotic service."

O'CONOR URGES REDUCTION IN INCOME TAX

Advocates Revision Of Present Tax

In line with assurance given earlier in the year Governor Herbert R. O'Conor has asked the Commission on Tax Revision, which is to make its report to the Legislature in January, to consider the possibility of reducing the State Income Tax.

He further definitely suggested that the law be changed to permit that the tax might be paid quarterly instead of in a lump sum.

In a letter addressed to the Commission the Governor expressed himself as definitely of the opinion that there should be a downward revision in the Income Tax, particularly in cases where inequities have developed.

Governor O'Conor cited the greatly improved financial condition of the State as the basis for his belief that the Income Tax Law might safely be revised at this time.
