KENT COUNTY HAS SHIPPED 328 RED CROSS GARMENTS

176 Workers In County

According to a statement made this week by Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, Chairman of Production, Kent County has shipped to National headquarters 328 Red Cross garments to date. These garments have been made by 176 volunteer workers within the county from wool and material furnished by the Kent County Red Cross Chapter. Material in the future will be furnished by National headquarters.

The new quota for Kent county is 385 garments to be completed by December 15th. This quota consists of dresses, sweaters, layettes, operating gowns, pajamas, shawls, convalescent robes, mufflers, socks, caps and bed shirts.

Additional workers are needed to help in this worthy and needed work. Volunteers furnish their labor only, as all material is furnished.
