Washington College Sports

By "Bing" Hartnett

Football is the war cry today as the Washington College Maroon and Black team prepares to meet the Garnets of Swarthmore at 2 o'clock on Kibler Field. Coach George Ekaitis does not "care to talk."

Ekaitis, in an interview stated that the game should be one of breaks and the team that takes advantage of these breaks will come out victorious in today's game. Aside from that the Washington College football mentor will make no predictions as to the outcome of the game or our chances for victory. This writer feels that Ekaitis' "keep quiet" stunt may be just a small sign that he thinks he may have a better than fair football team this season.

It would be foolish for any coach to make a prediction on a team where the freshmen and other new faces in the lineup will carry the difference between a winning or losing eleven. In 1938 the college had to face much the same situation with six freshmen in the starting lineup and the result was a disastrous season which saw the Shoreman failing to score all season. This year three freshmen are given starting assignments and the situation becomes a repetition of 1938 with anything able to happen.

In this state, there has been no pressure on the football candidates and as Ekaitis says "We're out to have a little fun and play some football. In practise, the new candidates have looked fair but to make any prediction before seeing his men in action against a real competitor, would be placing any coach out on an unnecessary limb.

Three freshmen will carry most of the college hopes in today's game. Frank Gibe, a freshman from Bridgeton, N. J., will start at right guard for the Maroon and Black and at this time is the most promising player of all the new men. Gibe played four years on the Bridgeton High School team and last year starred for an undefeated West Nottingham Academy eleven at Colora, Maryland. Frank Macielag, shifted from the line to the backfield, will be in at right halfback and is slated to do most of the kicking for the local eleven. Either Tom Yerkes or Joe McLaughlin, both freshmen, will do the quarterbacking against Swarthmore.

At the ends today will be "Benny" Benjamin and Brandt; at guards, Gibe and Ray Kirby; at tackles Joe Palmerini (captain for the day) and either Wilson Reidy or Storm; at center, Al Dudderer. In the backfield will be Baxtalini at fullback; Miles, left halfback; Macielag, right halfback; and either Yerkes or McLaughlin at quarterback.

The Washington ELM boasts a football forecaster of no mean ability this year in one certain Bill Eisner, if last week's predictions can be used as an example. Eisner in his column "Out on a Limb," allowing for ties picked 12 out of 13 games. His only bad miscue was his choice of Tulane over Boston College. Boston College swamped the Tulane aggregation 27-7. We feel, however, if he would drop his attempt to pick the actual scores and merely pick the winners he would assume a little more prestige. His scores were wrong, but his winners correct. Best selection was his choice of Wake Forest over North Carolina. Watch him this week; he may have something there.

Local townfolks and many of the College group are reading the Baltimore papers regular now to see what one Jack Kibler is doing for McDonough School. Son of the director of athletics, Thomas J. Kibler, for Washington College, Jack has been making the headlines with his passing and kicking for the cadets. Against Mt. St. Joe he completed ten out fo thirteen passes and the other night in a 13-13 game with Poly he pulled a 60 yard quick kick that went out on the Poly one foot line. Not a bad prospect for some school.

THE LONGEST WAY ROUND

A famous explorer, a resident of Brooklyn, was wanted urgently on the phone by his New York Office. Being informed by the telephone company that the bring-'em-back-alive man's receiver was off the hook the office radioed the explorer's field expedition in Africa and informed them of the situation. And so, by short-wave from darkest Africa, came this message to the absent-minded and mightily startled explorer: "Hey, your receiver's off the hook!" The explorer hasn't figured out yet how they found out.—Orestes H. Caldwell in Scribner's Commentator Magazine.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
