Dear Roamer

Here come the brides, all dressed in white. Yes, white ivory velvet with pearl trimmings at the neck, full skirt, long train and tight bodice with leg o' mutton sleeves will be the gown of Miss Marian Price Aldridge, daughter of Mrs. John Kennard Aldridge, when she becomes the bride of Mr. Beverly Stanford Hazel. Her veil of tulle will be caught with orange blossoms, and she will carry a bouquet of lillies of the valley and gardenias.

At 8 o'clock this evening, in candle-lighted Emmanuel P. E. Church, the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Mr. Waldon Pell, headmaster of St. Andrews School, Middletown, Del., assisted by Dr. Charles L. Atwater, rector of the church. The bride, will be given away by her uncle, Mr. Paul J. Wilkinson, of Baltimore.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Gladys Rebecca Aldridge, sister of the bride, will be gowned in fiesta green velvet, wearing a plume of the same color in her hair, and will carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Miss Elizabeth Baldwin, Miss Elizabeth Scott Westcott, Miss Miriam Newcomb and Miss Martha Speicher, the bridesmaids, will wear gowns of fuchsia velvet with matching plumer, each carrying a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Granville Hudson Sherwood, assistant headmaster at St. Andrews will act as Mr. Hazel's best man, while the following will serve as ushers: Mr. William B. Evans, of Elkton, Mr. Ronald G. Hanby of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. William Day Scott of St. Andrews, and Mr. Robert L. Bryan of Seaford, Del.

A reception following the ceremony will take place at Worton Manor, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Mexwell.

Last week, I wrote you an account of the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Kreeger and Mr. James Porter Matthews, whose marriage will take place to-day at 4 o'clock in the First Methodist Church.

Next week I will give you a full account of "Beppy" Wescott's wedding which will take place on the 19th of this month, at Emmanuel Church. So be patient. However in the meantime, here are some of the parties in her honor:

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Roland Corey entertained at a bridge party and pantry shower; on Tuesday, Mrs. Harry H. Deringer will give a luncheon bridge; on October 12, Miss Margaret C. Bell will be hostess at a shower; following the rehearsal on the night of the 18th, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, and Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers will entertain the wedding party, and on the wedding day, Mrs. Leon O. Bryan, mother of the groom, will entertain the bridal party and house guests at luncheon.

Invitations have been received by relatives in Chestertown to the marriage of Miss Anna Ethel Nagy, to Mr. Richard H. Barnes, of Philadelphia, on Saturday afternoon, October 5th, at five-thirty o'clock.

The ceremony will take place in the Lion Presbyterian Church, in Philadelphia followed by a reception at seven o'clock at the Hotel Essex.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anna E. Nagy, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Barnes of 5364 Wingohocking Terrace, Philadelphia, Pa. He is also the grandson of former City Councilmna, John W. Barnes, of Chestertown.

The October meeting of Our Garden Club will be hled at the home of Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr. At this time, a few members of the Federated Garden Clubs of Baltimore, will speak on the advantages of a garden club becoming a part of the Federation.

Mrs. William B. Usilton is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellington, in Alexandria, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Ellington will move in the near future to Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin H. Beck, and young son, will shortly move to Hartford, Conn., where they will make their future home. Mr. Beck who has a position with the Du Pont Co., will have New England territory. Their good fortune, however, will certainly mean our loss.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Springer, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cowles, of Ashville, N. C., will be week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines at their home Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Ford, Jr., and little daughter, of Philadelphia, were guests over last week-end of Mr. Ford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford, at their home on Queen St.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Griffith and daughter, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Covey.

Mrs. Henry Beck will motor to Dallas, Texas, on Thursday, after a visit in this community for three months. She will be accompanied by Miss Sarah Turpin, of Centreville.

Pardon me if I seem to dash, but preparations are at hand to see these brides to the altar. There's no other news anyway, and I am secretly blessing them for getting married at this time. They don't know what a favor they've done for me.

Yours quite grateful,

The Wanderer
