Dear Roamer

To-day it's a case of the bridesmaids were, the ushers were and the brides were—yes, a thing of the past. I feel lost without a wedding to write about. But for a change of scenery, parties will take the place. After so very long, there will be five this coming week.

Starting with Tuesday, Mrs. W. Clarke Grieb will entertain at a bridge luncheon at her home on Deep Point in Quaker Neck, followed by another similar party, the next day, Wednesday.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. H. Clay Brown will entertain at a buffet supper followed by bridge; and on Thursday, at a bridge luncheon.

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Carey, of Baltimore, will be guests next week-end at the home of Mrs. John Speicher and the Misses Toulson. On Saturday evening, Mrs. Speicher will be hostess at a buffett supper and bridge praty in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Carey. So it looks as if party clothes will once again be donned by Milady, following a long season of slacks, socks, sweaters or "what have you."

Sister Matilda, a Dominican Nun of the Dominican Convent in Akron, Ohio, is a guest, this week and next, of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell at Worton Manor. An artist, of rare ability, Sister Matilda, who signs her canvases, Karol Beck, was recently awarded the highest award in France the Beaux Arts Gold Medal, for the best painting of the year in Europe.

This work "Port La Rochelle" which won the landscape Beaux Arts award, was judged for its exquisite coloring, lights and shades and composition. In the near future, Sister Matilda will return to exhibit some of her paintings done in France, beautiful spots which have been bombed. While in this locality she plans to do quite a number of sketches, depicting the points of beauty of the county.

Also guests at Worton Manor this week have been Dr. Jane Leslie Kift and Miss Karen Hedenberg, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Branham of Front Royal, Va., were guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, when they attended the Westcott-Bryan nuptials last Saturday evening.

Miss Fannie E. Stuart and Mrs. Mary B. Smith have returned from a ten days visit to Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson, of New York, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley, at their home in Quaker Neck.

Dr. Gilbert W. Mead entered Johns Hopkins Hospital yesterday for observation and treatment during the coming week.

Mrs. Tilden Brice accompanied by Mrs. John Clendaniel left this week for Wilmington, N. C., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Adair McKoy. Mrs. McKoy was formerly Miss Priscilla Grainger.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beilhartz are spending their vacation motoring through Ohio and Indiana.

Miss Ina Coapman, of Poughkeepsie, New York, was a guest of Mrs. Nell C. Westcott last week. They have recently returned from a motor trip via the Skyline Drive and other sections of Virginia.

Miss Helen Westcott spent several days in Millburn, New Jersey last week and was a visitor at the World's Fair.

Off to New York, in a party, to do the sights and have a general good time for the week-end, will go Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, Mr. William S. Collins, Mr. Harrison Vickers, Jr., and Mr. Ringold Jones.

Comes this week, Hallowe'en. Beware! For witches ride on Hallowe'en their cloaks are black, their eyes are green. Every witch has a tall black hat, every witch has a big black cat. And "the gobblins will git you, if you don't watch out."

Yours by the fireside,

The Wanderer

TRAFFIC OVER NEW HIGHWAY BY JANUARY 1ST

The connecting link of the dual highway between Elkton and Perryville is expected to be completed by January 1st, according to a statement made by officials of the State Roads Commission this week.

When completed, this new highway will shorten the trip from Chestertown to Baltimore. Entrance on this dual highway will be a half mile this side of Elkton and from there to Baltimore one may travel without passing through but one town, Aberdeen.

There is little hope of further improvement of the Eastern Shore trail from here to Elkton although this may come in time.

The completion of the dual highway will make the trip from Kent county to Baltimore easier than that to Philadelphia which at the present time is a toss up.

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

By MARY SCHAUBER

"Two, four, six, eight, whom do we appreciate? Chestertown!" Rock Hall, Galena, Ray! Ray! Ray!

Yes, you guessed right. Soccer and fieldball are the main topics being discussed in and around Chestertown High School.

The High School Soccer Team played a second game with Rock Hall and Galena. Both times the boys' team brought home victory for their dear alma mater. At the end of the game with Rock Hall the score read 4 to 3 in favor of Chestertown. After the breath taking game with Galena every C. H. S. student sighed with relief, because the end of a very exciting game had come and the score read 1 to 2 in favor of Chestertown High.

The girls' fieldball team played a hard game with Rock Hall and Galena, but it seemed as though fate played its part along with the girls because they lost both games. The score with Galena was 4 to 8, and with Rock Hall 16 to 2 in favor of the girls wearing orange colored suits, which stood for the Rock Hall High School.
