The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Gray shadows creep; cold breezes blow; daylight is dying; withered leaves are flying—briefly, a description of November twilight. Fortunately busy days dispel any gloom. What with election over, the Country Fair next week, foot-ball games to see, a smattering of entertaining, bowling, gardening, churching, Red Crossing and the like, who has time to give the weather much thought?

With the exception of Tuesday night, when everyone was more or less agog, one way or another, the week has been relatively calm and lacking anything of note.

Mrs. Walter Henson, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott at Scotch Folly, since the wedding, is being extensively entertained informally. On Wednesday, Mrs. Westcott entertained at a small luncheon in her honor. Over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaefer, of Westfield, N. J., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Westcott.

Mrs. Allan A. Harris accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Beck, will leave on Monday for Atlantic City where they will remain for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates Chiares, of Hagerstown, Md., have been guests of relatives here during the past week.

Miss Betty Thibodeau and Miss Gladys Rebecca Aldridge, of Baltimore were guests last week-end of the former's grandfather, Mr. L. Bates Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Eliason have returned from a motor trip through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Gitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle M. Gitt, of Baltimore, to Mr. William Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Thompson, of Centerville will take place on Thursday, November 21 in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, of Chestertown, grandparents of the bride, entertained members of the bridal party at dinner on Sunday at their home on Kent Circle.

Two other weddings have been announced. Miss Elizabeth Ireland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ireland of Fairlee, became the bride of Mr. Donald Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Coleman, on Saturday, October 19. The ceremony was performed in St. James Methodist Church by the Rev. J. Melvin Kay. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman are residing in Chestertown.

The marriage of Miss Maryland Mench, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Mench and Mr. John Orville Pinder took place on August 12 at Queenstown, the ceremony having been performed by Rev. Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Pinder will reside in Rock Hall.

Mrs. S. L. Byrn, of Cambridge, President of the Eastern Shore District of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs, was a guest this week of Mrs. F. L. Livingood.

Mrs. Frank Connelly, who has spent several weeks in Baltimore will return to her home here to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., will spend this week-end in Baltimore, where they will be guests of Miss Anne Boardman.

Before you will have heard from me again, the chances are we'll meet. WHERE?

"We have no money for ribbons bonny, our clothes are the worse for wear, but little it matters, in silk or in tatters, we merrily go to the Fair."

Yuors THERE,

The Wanderer
