Today at Kibler Field the feature attraction of Washington College's Homecoming celebration will take place when the Shoremen eleven meet the Blue Hens of the University of Delaware, traditional rivals of this institution.

Ekaitis has his men primed for today's contest against Bill Murray's Blue Hens. Yesterday's light workout completed a full week of secret practice sessions for the Shoremen and you can depend on Ekaitis to come up with some snappy new plays when he takes his team behind closed doors.

The Blue Hens, under Bill Murray in his first year at Delaware, are riding high coming into today's game. They have won three straight victories after a slow start this season and sport wins over Hopkins, Drexel and P. M. C. Their 14-7 victory over P. M. C. is worth noting since Saturday before, the Cadets set the Shoremen down by a 6-0 score. Hopkins was defeated by the Maroon and Black 20-0 while the Hens went a little better and came out on the top end of a 25-0 score against the Blue Jays. These comparative scores give Delaware a big edge over Ekaitis' men, but as past seasons have pointed out, when the Hens and Shoremen take the field in their annual battle all previous scores are thrown to the wind. This is best borne out by a look at last year's game played at Fraser Field in Newark where the Blue Hens went onto the field without a single victory all season to meet a Maroon and Black team that turned in a good record. The Shoremen were picked by everyone to defeat Delaware by at least two touchdowns and the result was a 20-0 victory for the Hens in a game that was Delaware all the way. Today the two teams go onto the field with good ball clubs and anything can happen.

Ekaitis, disregarding all records, gives his Shoremen team a 60-40 chance to take the Hens in camp. He has built a good club this year, one that plays smart, heady football and has developed a clicking offensive led by the freshman Lou Yerkes. Yerkes is an elusive runner, a good kicker and passer. His quick kicks have set up Washington scores several times this year. His boot in the game with the Juniata Indians that set the tribe back on their goal line turned the tide of that game and a few seconds later the Shoremen scored on a pass from Fetter to Worthed to win out 13-7. Yerkes is steady and dependable, not just a flash at times. His place in the backfield is what makes the Washington offensive go.

Today's meeting of these peninsular schools marks the ninth time they have met on the gridiron. The University of Delaware holds the edge, five victories to three since the series started in 1932.

A look at the past scores:

	Delaware	Wash.
1932	8	0
1933	8	0
1934	7	29
1935	33	15
1936	6	21
1937	13	16

By looking at the above records one can see that neither school has won more than two in a row and with the exception of the 1938 2-0 Delaware victory and the 1937 16-13 Washington victory, the winning team has won decisively and by a good margin. This indicates that usually the team first to take the commanding hand runs the opponent into the ground the rest of the game in this hard fought contest.

Walter Brandt, who turned in a great game against the Western Maryland Terrors last Saturday will start at right end in place of Worther. The Washington lineup will find Brandt and MacNellis on the ends, Palmerini and Storm at tackles, Kirby and Gibe at guards and Al Dudderer at center. The probable backfield will be Yerkes, Fetter, MacLaughlin and Macielag.

Red Hogan, freshman fullback will lead the Blue Hen attack today. He has been the main ground gainer this season for the Delaware team and will be hard to stop. We think however with Al Dudderer backing up the line for the Shoremen he'll find the Washington defense hard to penetrate. Brooks and Paul are two more dangerous backs that will bear watching with Brooks doing most of the passing and Paul the blocking.

With a capacity crowd of homecoming alumni in the stands to cheer the Maroon and Black team on, and seeing that Delaware has won the last two games, it looks like the Shoremen are due to cop today's contest and take possession of the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula title and the Senator Hastings trophy which goes along with this game. A victory by the Hens would give them possession of the cup. They have two legs on it and a win today would give it to them permanently.

Fall Farm Supplies

The Fall season is here and with it comes the demand for many things that you will find here. Come in and get our prices, or if you are too busy call us on the telephone.

Fodder Yarn

Best qaulity 21 oz. yarn. Treated against insects but not loaded to make weight. Price 11c per lb.

Corn Baskets

We have them in Oak, Bamboo or Metal in the different qualities. Take your choice from 69c up.

Anti-Freeze

It would be just too bad to let your radiator freeze when it is so easy to protect it with U. S. I. anti-freeze. Price 69c per gallon. Don't forget your tractor radiator.

Leaf Rakes

The leaves are fallnig every day. We have any kind of rake you may need. Bamboo rakes 25 and 50c each. Metal rakes 69c, 79c and $1.85 each.

Gun Shells

The gunning season is here. Super X. Winchester and Xpert are the most popular shells to be had. We have them in the load you will like. No advance in prices.

Roofing

Melting snow and ice find the holes in the roof and do lots of damage. Protect your roof now with a good roll roofing. Light weight $1.20. Medium weight $1.35. Heavy weight $1.50.

Platform Scales

Something every farmer should own. We sell the dependable Fairbanks scale 500 lb. capacity and the price is only $23.00. It pays to have them.

Rat Poison

This is the time of the year when rats and mice do so much damage. You need not be bothered if you will use "RAT KISS". It has been proven right here with your neighbors. Get some now.

Stoves and Stove Pipes

We carry a line of airtight wood heaters and a complete stock of pipe and elbows in both black and galvanized. Sizes 4 inch to 12 inch.

If you do not see what you want ask us.
