Election, Tuesday, November 7th, '93.

A Splendid Ticket.

These were words frequently heard from the lips of the Republicans of this city, when the nominations made by the convention of the party, at Firemen's Hall, were announced on Tuesday last, and, we do not doubt, have been frequently repeated throughout the county as the action of the convention has become known. They certainly express a fact that must be gratifying to every Republican in the county. The convention did its work well and the ticket presented is worthy of enthusiastic support.

For the House of Delegates Mr. Walter W. Sweigart is railroad agent and telegraph operator at Bruceville (Frederick Junction,) and is a young man of high character, fine judgment and excellent business capacity as well as intelligence.

Mr. Amos J. Lightner resides near Harney and is at present engaged in farming. He has been a successful merchant and is a gentleman of ripe experience, decided ability, and recognized integrity.

Mr. Charles M. Murray is a merchant at Hampstead, where he conducts an extensive business with practical judgment and ability. He possesses the respect of the community to the fullest extent, being just in his dealings, and a public spirited and intelligent gentlemen.

Mr. Louis E. Shriver, of Union Mills, who reluctantly consented to the use of his name, but was too patriotic to decline, is a farmer, and is also engaged in the manufacture of leather. He is well informed in public affairs and thoroughly equipped for the duties of a legislator. He is a gentlemen of high character and possesses the thorough respect of all by whom he is known.

The County Commissioners ticket is composed entirely of farmers, all of whom are successful husbandmen.

Mr. Israel C. Rinehart, of Union Bridge district, was a candidate on the Republican ticket two years ago and received a flattering vote. He is a gentleman of great force of character, well versed in county affairs, and deeply interested, as an extensive landed proprietor and heavy tax-payer, in their judicious administration.

Mr. Eli Zimmerman, of Manchester district, is known among his neighbors as an upright and worthy farmer and a gentleman of superior judgment in business affairs—just such a citizen as would make a thoroughly capable commissioner.

Mr. John H. Conaway, of Freedom district, occupies a deservedly high place in the esteem of his neighbors and fellow-citizens. His life has been devoted chiefly to the cultivation of the soil, in which he has achieved well-earned success. He is a leading citizen and is a man of probity and intelligence whose election would be a guarantee of the prudent and wise conduct of county affairs.

For County Treasurer Mr. Howard M. Zile is one of the best men in the county. He is a merchant and ice cream manufacturer at Winfield, in Franklin district, and conducts his business with prudence, energy and success. Thoroughly capable and endowed with a pleasant address he would fill the post of Treasurer in the most efficient manner and to the entire satisfaction of the people.

Mr. Samuel A. Crabbs, the candidate for Sheriff, is the proprietor of a hotel in New Windsor, where he enjoys a full share of the respect and good will of the community, being a man of firmness and decision of character and possessing, in an eminent degree, the qualities required in the sheriffalty.

Mr. Wm. E. Roop, the nominee for County Surveyor, is a Westminster district farmer, who fully understands the science of surveying, and is thoroughly qualified to discharge any duty that can possibly arise in connection with the office. His character, too, is stainless and above reproach.

Now let the work of the convention be supplemented by the energetic efforts of the Republicans of the county to elect the ticket. It is entitled to the hearty support of every member of the party in the county.

The Democrats of Baltimore renominated, for his seventh term as Mayor, on Tuesday, their perennial candidate, Hon. F. C. Latrobe. They also nominated for Associate Judges of the Supreme Bench of the city, Hons. Albert Ritchie and Pere L. Wicks, both holding those stations now by appointment of Governor Brown. Timothy Maloney was nominated for Sheriff, Henry A. Schultz for Clerk of the City Court, and Augustus Bouldin for Surveyor. W. Cabell Bruce, a son-in-law of Ex-Judge Wm. A. Fisher, was nominated for State Senator in the First Assembly District. The regulars and independents had a lovefeast and buried the hatchet for the time being.

Is It Expected?

The Advocate says the "Democratic platform pronounced a tariff for protection unconstitutional, and declared that taxes ought to be laid only to raise the necessary revenue for the purposes of government economically administered. Upon this platform there was a tidal wave of approval, and the country expects Congress to carry out the pledges made."

While there is no doubt about the pledges referred to by the Advocate having been made by the Democratic platform, it is not so absolutely certain that "the country" expects Congress to redeem them. The appearance of numbers of prominent Democrats before the Ways and Means Committee in behalf of the retention of protective duties on many products indicates that either a change has taken place in the opinions of some hitherto professed anti-protectionists, or that, in giving adherence to a free-trade platform, they supposed it was designed merely as a bait to catch the votes of gullible free-traders, and was not seriously intended. Certainly the Democratic party is far from being united in favor of the radical tariff legislation demanded by its National platform. The protest of such representative Democrats as Ex-Senator Henry G. Davis and Gov. McCorkle, of West Virginia, against the repeal of the protective duty on bituminous coal, is proof positive of the fact that all Democrats are not agreed concerning the declaration that protection is unconstitutional.

To be sure, other West Virginia Democrats do not agree with these gentlemen, in their demand for the protection of coal, and they have been roundly denounced in some quarters for raising the issue before the Ways and Means Committee, but they undoubtedly fairly represent a large body of Democrats who realize that the removal of protection from the peculiar products of West Virginia and Western Maryland will either destroy them utterly or bring the wages of tens of thousands of laborers to a level with the meagre recompense of the labor of foreign miners. Governor McCorkle and Mr. Davis left nothing of their opinions on this point to be inferred or misunderstood. They stated it as a fact in the plainest possible terms, and it is a fact about which it seems impossible for intelligent men to differ in opinion. Free coal means serious reduction of miners' wages, and the abolition or reduction of duties on many other products must inevitably have a similar effect. It is not surprising that many Democrats who voted for the Democratic candidates and thus apparently gave their approbation to the Chicago platform, hesitate, when brought face to face with the consequences of its enforcement, to give assent to the effort now being made in Congress to carry it into effect by the legislation proposed by the Ways and Means Committee. Thus "the country" is far from desiring Congress to carry the pledges of the Chicago platform into effect, whatever it may expect will be done by that body.

An Ante-Election Bargain.

The nomination of Mr. James J. Van Alen, of Rhode Island, by President Cleveland, to be Ambassador to Italy, has aroused a storm of opposition on the part of leading Democratic newspapers, among them that straight Democratic organ, the New York World. The objection seems to be that Mr. Van Alen bought the appointment with a contribution of fifty thousand dollars to the Cleveland campaign fund last year. It is not alleged that Mr. Cleveland was a party to the bargain, but that it was made between Mr. Wm. C. Whitney and Mr. Van Alen. It was certainly known to Mr. Cleveland, however, before the appointment was made, as certain prominent Democrats, to relieve him of embarrassment, procured pledges of subscriptions to the amount of Mr. Van Allen's subscription, for the purpose of refunding the money upon his consent to withdraw his application for the place. He declined to do so, however, and Mr. Whitney insisted that he should receive the appointment.

The fact that Mr. Cleveland made it, knowing the circumstances, gives reasonable ground for the implication that Mr. Whitney was authorized to make pledges of the character referred to in his name. He recognized the obligation by giving the place to Mr. Van Alen.

It is a gratifying fact that the appointment is being antagonized by powerful press influence. The indignation expressed so freely may not prevent the consummation of the anti-election contract; but it at least shows that events of this character are repugnant to honorable journalists and cannot occur without rebuke.

Mr. Van Alen is an aristocrat of an extreme type, and, it is, said, has remarked, in effect at least, that America is not a fit residence for a gentleman. Precisely why, if such be his conviction, he desires to represent the country at a foreign court, is a conundrum. He is, as his large contribution to the Democratic campaign fund indicates, a very rich man, and might have "left his country for his country's good," with ample ability to "cut a swell," without the adventitious aid of an ambassadorship. Mr. Whitney and the appointee both deny the ante-election contract, but the fact of the contribution is not contradicted.

The workingmen of Carroll county should notice particularly the resolution adopted by the Democratic county convention, on Monday last, approving the principles announced in the last Democratic platform. One of the declarations of that instrument was the absolute unconstitutionality of a protective tariff. The apprehension that that principle is to be practically applied in a new tariff law has caused a reduction in wages all over the country, and Carroll county workingmen have not been exempt from its influence. The wages of the employees of the Western Maryland Railroad have been reduced ten per cent., and a similar reduction is impending in private establishments, or the employment of less hands. In the face of this the Democratic party of Carroll county declares the principle of protection unconstitutional, and every workingman who votes the ticket gives his assent to the declaration, and invites Congress to pass laws to reduce the compensation he now receives for his labor.

Mr. W. A. Furry, has been appointed postmaster at Johnsville, Md.

The Democratic Primaries.

The Democratic primaries on Saturday last resulted in the choice of delegates substantially favorable to the nomination of the ticket suggested in a communication by Democrats to the SENTINEL last week. The slight difference in the ticket actually nominated was due to the fact that one of the parties named in the communication had no desire to be a candidate. Contests took place in two or three of the districts. In Woolery's a ticket was run in opposition to Mr. Elias B. Arnold for the sheriffalty, but was defeated by 196 majority. In Manchester two tickets were in the field—one favorable to Mr. Jacob Hoffman for sheriff and the other for Mr. Noah Sullivan for the Legislature. The latter won by 122 majority. The bitterest contest was in Hampstead, where Mr. J. Oliver Murray desired a delegation in his favor for the sheriffalty. He was opposed by the Wells-Walsh faction and much wrangling resulted and, it is said, some pugilistic encounters occurred. The outcome was two primaries and contesting delegations. In the convention, for the sake of harmony (?) the Wells-Walsh delegation consented to the admission of the Murray delegates—when it was known that that course would not change the result.

Notwithstanding a change in the membership of the county central committee was one of the purposes of the ticket for delegates voted for in the Westminster primary, it was elected without opposition, and, as will be seen by the proceedings of the convention, elsewhere printed, the contemplated change was carried into effect. Notwithstanding this acquiescence in the proceeding, it may reasonably be doubted whether the utmost harmony prevails among the prominent members of the party in this district, as it evidently does not in some other quarters.

The Democratic convention on Monday adopted a resolution favoring a new assessment law. Hasn't something been said on that subject by Democratic conventions, county and State, on previous occasions? Haven't pledges been made in that direction, repeatedly, only to be broken? But the Carroll county convention put it mildly. It didn't make any pledges. That would have been too old a chestnut. It was the sense of the convention "that the next General Assembly should pass an assessment law," but it wisely refrained from asserting that it would do so. In fact, judging from past experience, it is a hopeless case. The tax-dodgers control the party.

The Democratic State convention, held in Baltimore on Wednesday, renominated Marion De Kalb Smith for comptroller. Mr. James W. White, of this county, was a member of the committee on credentials, and Ex-Judge James A. C. Bond was chairman of the committee on resolutions. Prof. James A. Diffenbaugh was one of the vice-presidents of the convention. Hon. Frank T. Shaw, Messrs. Samuel Cover and George P. Buckey were appointed the Carroll county members of the State Central Committee.

Mr. Charles T. Wescott, chairman of the late Republican State convention, has appointed the Executive Committee for Baltimore city, under the authority conferred by the convention. The committee consists of one member from each ward, and three of those appointed—Messrs. Wm. F. Stone, Daniel Brinton and Henry Stockbridge, Jr.,—have been designated as members of the State Central Executive Committee for the First, Second and Third Legislative districts, respectively.

Messrs. Charles T. Wescott, Harry M. Clabaugh, Charles Herzog, Henry Stockbridge, Jr., Washington Wilkinson and D. W. Sloan, the committee appointed by the State convention to select a candidate for Comptroller in the event of the declination of Mr. Joshua Horner, Jr., met in Baltimore, yesterday, for that purpose. The result of the meeting is not yet known here.

The Baltimore Sun published all the resolutions adopted by the Carroll county Democratic convention except the one endorsing the last Democratic National platform. The omission is suggestive. The Democratic party generally is not as violent in its denunciation of protection as it was a year ago.

Proceedings are pending in the Circuit Courts for Frederick and Washington counties to compel the Supervisors of Election to have the names of the Republican candidates for full boards of County Commissioners in those counties, respectively, printed on the official ballots.

A Good Exhibit.

The following statement of receipts and expenses of the Western Maryland Railroad Company for August, 1893, and for the eleven months ending August 31, and as compared with the same period of the previous year, makes an excellent showing, especially in view of the recent financial depression.

	1893.	1892.	Increase.
Earnings.....	$130,617.08	$124,534.70	$6,082.38
Expenses.....	75,499.69	66,303.80	9,195.89
Net.....	$55,117.39	$58,230.90	$3,113.51

For the eleven months ended August 31, compared with the same months of previous fiscal year.

	1892-93.	1891-92.	Increase.
Earnings..	$1,085,621.31	$909,098.76	$176,525.75
Expenses..	749,274.01	621,953.93	127,340.08
Net.....	$336,350.30	$287,164.63	$49,185.67

The increase in expenses, as compared with August, 1892, was mainly due to large purchases of crossties.

One express train, on the Grand Trunk Railroad, crashed into the rear of another, at Bellevue, Mich., on Wednesday morning, killed a Mr. Newland and his wife, badly injured Mrs. Newland's father and mother and hurt the porter so badly that he will die. The car was a special and Mrs. Newland's father, Mr. Charles Meredith, is the cashier of the road.

Statistics compiled from official data show that from January to September this year 560 state and private banks in the United States failed, and that seventy-two have resumed business. In the same time 155 national banks failed, seventy of which have resumed.

A colored man named Langley was lynched near Aiken S. C. on Tuesday night, for the murder of a white man.

Eighteen German Lutheran families left Baltimore for their new homes on the Naticoke River.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

A motion was made by Mr. Harry M. Clabaugh and adopted by the convention, that each delegation name a member of a committee to recommend candidates for the action of the convention. The committee was announced as follows:

The committee retired, and after careful consultation reported a list of names which was received with decided marks of approval by the entire convention, and on motion the parties recommended were declared the nominees of the convention by acclamation. The ticket thus chosen is as follows:

For the House of Delegates—W. W. Sweigart, of Middleburg district; Amos J. Lightner, of Taneytown district; Charles M. Murray, of Hampstead district; Louis E. Shriver, of Myers' district.

For County Commissioners—Israel C. Rinehart, of Union Bridge; Eli Zimmerman, of Manchester district; John H. Conaway, of Freedom district.

For County Treasurer—Howard M. Zile, of Franklin district.

For Sheriff—Samuel A. Crabbs, of New Windsor district.

For County Surveyor.—Wm. E. Roop, of Westminster district.

In nominating candidates for a full board of County Commissioners the convention acted upon the conviction that the law of 1892, extending the terms of two of the Commissioners, was unconstitutional.

The County Central Committee was authorized to fill any vacancies that may occur on the ticket, and, after an informal conference on the subject of registration, the convention adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic convention, to nominate a county ticket, elect delegates to the State convention and appoint a new County Central Committee, met in Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Monday, and was called to order by Chairman B. F. Crouse. Col. James G. Berret, of Freedom district, was elected chairman. Upon assuming the chair he addressed the convention, expressing thanks for the honor conferred upon him and eulogizing President Cleveland, Senator Gorman, Governor Brown and the Maryland Congressmen. Mr. Charles Jones, of New Windsor, was elected secretary, and Dr. J. S. Zeigler, of Melrose, and Jacob Koontz, of Silver Run, assistant secretaries. A committee on credentials and permanent organization was appointed and subsequently recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent. The recommendation was adopted.

Two sets of delegates from Hampstead district, each claiming to have been regularly elected, were present seeking recognition. Finally one of the delegations voluntarily withdrew and the committee reported the following as entitled to seats in the convention:

Taneytown district—Wm H. Morse, Dr. C. W. Weaver, Jonas S. Harner, Edward F. Smith, J. D. Hesson.

Uniontown district—J. Casper Frizell, Henry Sittig, Louis M. Shuey, David Phillips, Augustus Warehime.

The following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Carroll county, in convention assembled, reaffirms its devotion to the principles announced in the platform of the last Democratic National convention.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the next General Assembly should pass an assessment law for the revaluation, on an equitable basis, of all the property in the State justly taxable.

Resolved, That we commend the excellent administration of the Honorable Marion De Kalb Smith as Comptroller of the State Treasury, and recommend his renomination for another term.

Resolved, That the low rate of taxation in Carroll is the best evidence of the judicious management of the affairs of the county by the dominant party which has had control of them for the past twenty-six years.

The convention thereupon proceeded to the nomination of candidates for the various offices, and a proposition was made to change the order of such nominations and relegate the sheriffalty to the end of the list, instead of making it the first to be acted upon. The proposition was defeated, and Messrs. Elias B. Arnold, of Woolery's; J. Oliver Murray, of Hampstead; L. U. Messler, of Union Bridge, and Ephraim Haines, of New Windsor, were placed in nomination. On the first ballot neither candidate received a majority of the votes cast, but the second resulted in the nomination of Mr. Arnold.

For County Treasurer Messrs. John J. Reese, of Westminster; Addison S. Morelock, of Myers', and Peter Rinaman, of Hampstead, were placed in nomination. The first ballot was without result, but on the second ballot the vote stood 45 for Mr. Reese, and 10 each for Messrs. Morelock and Rinaman. The remaining candidates were nominated by acclamation, and the entire ticket is as follows:

For Sheriff.—Elias B. Arnold, of Woolery's.

For County Treasurer.—John J. Reese, of Westminster.

For County Commissioners.—John H. Stem, of Franklin.

For the House of Delegates.—Benj. F. Selby, of Mt. Airy; Johnzee E. Baesman, of Freedom; J. Wesley Biggs, of Westminster; Noah Sullivan, of Manchester.

Some Pension Statistics.

A dispatch from Baltimore to the daily press says: "The formal report of the Commissioner of Pensions, which is now in the hands of the Secretary of the Interior, is supplemented by some later figures of interest.

"A statement prepared at the Pension Bureau shows that since March 4th, 1893, the total number of pensions granted was 55,399. Of these 4,128 were issued since August 26, 1893, and comprises 1,712 originals and 1,497 increases. Of the originals issued to soldiers of the late war 326 were for disabilities contracted in the service and in line of duty, and 316 were issued under the act of June 27, 1890. The number issued for disabilities contracted in the service was, therefore, twenty in excess of those issued under the dependent act. The board of revision is now disposing of an average of about 1,600 cases per week of those suspended under the recent orders of the bureau. At this rate it is estimated that practically all of those heretofore suspended will be disposed of by October 10. It is also estimated that at least seventy-five per cent. of those suspended will be retained on the rolls, though not all of them at their old rates of pension."
