The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Between the excitement of getting to "the square" on time to see the names drawn, and all the Christmasy preparations, one's leisure moments these days are rare. We all seem like children about now, in spirit, anyway, and the old proverb. "Turn backward, turn backward O'Time in thy flight; make me a child again, just for to-night," is most apropos.

Plans for the holidays are slowly, but surely taking form. Rumors here, and reports there, predict a festive time. Mrs. Charles W. Whaland will entertain at her annual eggnogg party on Christmas Day, I understand, while the big dance of the season will be held on New Year's Eve at the Country Club. Other parties in Christmas week are still in the nucleus state.

Yesterday, Mrs. S. Holt Wright entertained at a luncheon bridge at her home in Quaker Neck, and to-night Dr. and Mrs. Wright will be hosts at supper and bridge to another group of friends. These are the first two of a series of parties, at which Dr. and Mrs. Wright will entertain.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Deringer will entertain at dinner and bridge to-night also, at their home on Queen Street.

Still another party for dinner will be at "The Reward" the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hurd, in Quaker Neck, who will have a number of New York house guests for the week-end.

On Saturday, December 21, Mrs. C. R. Humphreys and her father, Mr. Albert Kenly will entertain at their annual egg nogg party in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold O. Mauritson entertained at dinner last Sunday when they celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith were among those present at the annual family re-union of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Smith at their home in Denton, on Sunday.

Mrs. William T. Dixon, of Green Point Farm, was a guest last week end of Mrs. E. B. Cox, of Philadelphia, at which time she attended the marriage of Mr. Livingston Biddle, who was a room-mate of her son, Mr. William T. Dixon, Jr., at Princeton. Mr. Dixon was an usher in the wedding.

Visitors in the county this week have included:

Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiler, of Williamsport, Pa., who were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Miss Alice Duffy, of Baltimore, who spent a few days this week as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll, at Byford Court.

Miss Sara Rau, of Frederick, who was a guest this week, of her sister, Miss Marian Rau.

Mr. J. Hyland Jewell, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been the guest of his father, Mr. Hyland Jewell here for several days.

Mr. William F. Blyman, of Philadelphia, was the week-end guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Blyman.

Mrs. C. M. Newcomb has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miriam Virginia, to Lieutenant William Rowe Janney, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Janney, of White Plains, New York.

Lieutenant Janney, is at present, stationed at Fort Jay, Governor's Island, New York. No immediate date has been set for the wedding.

One by one, they go; these brides-maids who catch the bride's bonquet—you see what follows.

Yours for it,

The Wanderer

Telephone Official Retires

George H. Warren, Assistant to the Vice President and General Counsel of The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City, was honored at a luncheon at the Emerson upon his retirement from active telephone service, after forty-one years with the Bell System.

The many friends and business associates of Mr. Warren, including directors of the C. and P., and other prominent telephone officials from Maryland and Washington gathered at the Emerson to pay tribute to the veteran telephone executive.

Born in Fredericksburg, Virginia, Mr. Warren attended schools in Orange and Fredericksburg. In 199, at the age of 24, he entered the employ of the New York Telephone Company. Two years later, in 1902, he was transferred to the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the parent company of the Bell System. After serving as special agent and in various capacities with the Amreican Telephone and Telegraph Company upon the organization of the C. and P. group Mr. Warren came to Baltimore in 1912 to handle the important work of Rights of Way Superintendent and the extension of telephone lines in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

In 1920 Mr. Warren became Division Manager for the Maryland Company and in 1927 was promoted to Assistant Vice President, with headquarters in Washington. In 1937 he was appointed to his present position.

ROCK HALL

Wesley Chapel Sunday School had 200 present on Sunday. Sermon by Dr. J. C. Byrd. Mrs. Francis Wagner was soloist. Mrs. Elwood Burgess led the evening service.

Rock Hall Sunday School had 170 present on Sunday. Sermon by Rev. F. C. Louhoff. Miss Norma Scott led the Epworth League. Mrs. Blanche Hepbron was soloist.

Mr. M. T. Miller had his annual Christmas opening last Wednesday and at night each child was given an orange by Santa Claus.

Mrs. James Dowling and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Taylor were among some of our folks who visited Wilmington on Saturday.

Mrs. William Hastings had as a guest recently her sister, Mrs. Susie Green, of Princess Anne.

Mr. Laurence Stevens and daughters were week end guests of Baltimore, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacquette.

The Seventh Day Adventist Church members gathered in the Junior Order United American Machanics' Hall on Tuesday night and showed some very pretty and impressive pictures to the public.

Mrs. James Walbert spent several days in Baltimore, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Price visited Price, Queen Annes county, on Tuesday last and attended the funeral of the former's mother.

Mrs. Amelia Creighton passed away at her home in Hawthorne Road on Sunday, December 8th, after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held on Tuesday at 2:00 P. M., at the Methodist Church in Rock Hall. Interment was in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Stevens and daughter of Millington were visitors on Sunday of the later's father, Mr. John Brice.

Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth Sewell were visitors in Baltimore on Tuesday.

We are glad to report at this time that Mr. Leo Williams is improving after a spell of pneumonia.

Mrs. Inda Goodman is in the Woman's Hospital for treatment.

Dean Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emett Wood entertained a number of his small friends on Tuesday last to a birthday party.

Mrs. Andrew Heinefield went to Johns Hopkins Hospital on Wednesday for treatment. Her mother, Mrs. James Dowling accompanied her.

Mrs. Harry Wagner received word from her cousin, Mrs. Emma Stevens of Glendale, California, this week that she had fallen on a step and broke her hip. She was taken to the hospital at Los Angeles, for treatment. She was well known here as she was a former resident here some years ago. We all hope for her a speedy recovery.
