The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

It's been a long while since the majority of us have used "date books" for other than shopping lists, or to jot down some notation. But, we have them out now, using them literally. Parties are really going on at a furious rate, whether I write about them all or not. Some are small, some are large, but they're in the air, and are here, there and everywhere. Yes, for it's Christmas and the season for Good Cheer.

On Wednesday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Strong and Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne entertained delightfully at buffett supper and will be hosts again to-morrow Sunday evening, at supper, to another group of friends.

To-day, holds no less than three parties on its schedule. A large number from here will go over to Sudlersville, when Senator and Mrs. Dudley G. Roe will be at home from 5 until 8. There everyone sees everybody which in turn, equals a general good time. In the evening, Mrs. C. R. Humphreys and her father, Mr. Albert C. Kenly will hold their annual egg-nogg party and the fun will continue.

The third party will be a buffet supper to be given by Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison at their country home in Broad Neck.

As we pass on to Sunday, we find Dr. and Mrs. Julian S. Corrington entertaining at an egg-nogg party in the afternoon, with various supper parties later in the day.

Comes Christmas Eve, with the usual dropping in, delivering of gifts and finally the Midnight Services of Candlelight to which most everyone goes.

Christmas Day, the usual egg-nogg parties, perhaps the largest of which will be given by Mrs. Charles W. Whaland.

The Country Club will be open Saturday evening, Dec. 28th for informal dancing.

Still more invitations for next week! These were issued by the Whitworths, this time to a cocktail party, to be held at their home in Quaker Neck on New Year's Eve. Coming right before the dance at the Country Club, I am sure the last night of the Old Year will pass off pleasantly.

For the younger set, the Senior dance of the C. H. S. held at the Country Club on Thursday night caused a flutter of no small degree. followed by another party last night at Arcadia Farm given by Miss Bliss Brice who celebrated her birthday.

Among those who will enjoy Christmas elsewhere, will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley who will leave to-morrow for Montclair, N. J., where they will be guests of the latter's father, Mr. Horatio N. Kelsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines will spend Christmas in Cynwyd, Pa., as guests of Mrs. Hines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull.

Mrs. Catharine Beck Jones left on Thursday to spend the holidays in Springfield, Mass., where she will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin H. Beck.

Mrs. Allan A. Harris, accompanied by Mr. Arthur Bradley, will go to Baltimore to-day, where they will visit their sister, Miss Isabelle Beck, over the holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Roberts will leave on Tuesday to spend Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Norman E. Etzles and family at Mt. Airy, Md.

Mrs. Eben F. Perkins will go to Baltimore on Tuesday to be a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Perkins.

Mr. Ernest Strong has returned from Philadelphia, where he spent several days this week at the Navy Yard, as a guest of Commander Hugh M. Sease.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Perkins, of Philadelphia, were guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heberling at Cacaway Manor.

The Rev. Dr. G. I. Humphries, President of High Point College, High Point, N. C., and Mrs. Humphries, with their two daughters, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Carle T. Elsworth, of Baltimore, were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Farr, over last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Catlin, of West Hartford, Connecticut, announce the engagement of their niece, Mrs. Avis Christine Catlin, Church Hill, to Mr. Albert B. Friel, Queenstown and Wilmington, Delaware, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. W. Friel, Queenstown. Miss Catlin, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Catlin, Church Hill. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Jones announce the engagement of their daughter Carolyn Louise to Louis Hale Hallett. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday at 2 P. M., Dec. 28, 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stewart, of Davenport, Iowa, have announced the marriage of their younger daughter, Lydia, to Aaron W. Welch, of Ames Iowa, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Welch, of Georgetown, Md.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride Saturday, Dec. 14th the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Alfred S. Nickless, of the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kohler were the only attendants. After a small reception for the immediate relatives and friends the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Chicago and to the groom's home in Maryland. They will return to Ames, Iowa, where they will reside and both study at Iowa State College this winter. Mrs. Welch is majoring in art and Mr. Welch is doing graduate work in Plant Pathology.

Robert G. Welch, of Ft. Pierce, Fla., second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Welch of Georgetown, Md., has enlisted in the army and at present is at the Reception Center. Camp Blanding, Florida.

Among the many returning home for the holidays include, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Miss Harriette Welch, Miss Laura Whitworth, Miss Fredrica Metcalfe, Miss Betty Beck, Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers, Mrs. Richard Carvel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shaughnessy, Mr. and Mrs George Maxwell and family, Mr. Jack Kibler, Mr. Thomas Massey, Mr. Wickes Westcott, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dennett, of Cambridge, Mass.

At Brampton, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines will have Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cowles and Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., as their guests.

And so far into the night, could I write and write. But Life's like that, where there's all the time I want, I want for something to write; when there is no time to write, I have so much I haven't time. You know: 100% time—0 news. 100% news—0 time.

But you'll forgive me, you're busy too. So we'll say, "A very Merry Christmas to all, and to all A Good Night."

Yours in the same old way,

The Wanderer

1000TH MEMBER OF HOSPITAL PLAN

Mrs. Dorothy McDaniel shown receiving from Mr. Stafford her certificate of membership in the Blue Cross, Maryland's only non-profit hospitalization plan is told by H. Gayle Bourne, Shore Representative that she is the 1000th Easton resident to join.

There are few in Easton who during the last five months have failed to hear of the Associated Hospital Service Plan, commonly called the "Blue Cross" Plan; an organization which is sponsored by all the general hospitals in Maryland. Over 60 business firms in Easton since July 1st have cooperated with Mr. Bourne, Eastern Shore Representative and supported the presentation of the Plan to all their employees. All under the age 65 years are eligible to enroll, bringing with them their wives, their husbands and their children, if they are a member of an organized group. Only group enrollments are made, the size of the group required depending upon the total connected with the organization. Individual applications are not accepted.

When and if a Blue Cross member requires hospital care, they have the privilege of going to any general hospital in the State of Maryland. When they are ready to leave the hospital it is not necessary to pay the bill, for regardless of its amount the whole expense is paid by the Plan direct to the hospital. The patient receives a semi-private room along with all customary hospital services. The only thing that is limited is the time that one may remain in the hospital at the expense of the Plan. Each person is allowed three weeks per year. The average hospital stay is only 8½ days per case.
