FARMERS' NOTICE!

Lime for Wheat and Grass, &c.

Plenty of money can be made by using LeCore's Combination of Lime.

It leads wherever introduced. The farmers who use it get much better results. It acts at once. You save time and labor, as it takes less per acre.

The chemical properties of this combination of lime effect wonderful changes in the soil for years. To enrich the soil, and as a crop producer, there is nothing to equal it. Can furnish all that is wanted promptly, either in house or open cars, as preferred, by weight or measure. All lime will be fresh and well burned. Satisfaction guaranteed in every respect. GEORGE L. STOCKSDALE,

AND SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY

Special and prompt attention given to collections and settlement of estates.

OFFICE ON COURT STREET, Near Main, in Albaugh Building.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

1893.

Greatest of Republican Newspapers.

National in its aims and devoted to the welfare of the Masses of the American People.

The New York Tribune concedes the election of Grover Cleveland, but promises to defend the Republican policy on Finance and Protection, with all the ability it can command.

It was the discontent of the farmers which caused the Democratic victories of two years' ago. The Weekly Tribune, addressing itself directly to them for the past two years, has carried on a campaign of discussion for their benefit, almost unparalleled in American journalism; and the result coupled with Whitelaw Reid's previous great service to farmers, has been seen in the fact that agricultural communities have stood faithful to the Republican party, in a campaign in which, in other localities the party went completely to pieces. This year, the Democratic leaders changed their tactics and excited discontent among workingmen. They pointed to the higher price of farm products, and assured the workingmen of Northern cities that the British tariff system, (that is to say, lessened protection to American Farming and Industry) would lower the prices of food and manufactured products, and the profits of "monopolies" in this country, while at the same time maintaining the wages of labor, the wages being now the highest ever known in the United States. By false pretence, deception, and a pandering to the lowest passions of uninformed men in large cities, they have carried the country and elected a Democratic President and Congress.

The Tribune confidently awaits the result. Not for one moment, however, will The Tribune yield one inch of ground in the battle for American policies.

Roswell G. Horr's great articles will be among the features of The Tribune, the coming year. Men of every political faith are invited to read them. They will state the Republican view with frankness, point out the probable consequences of a change in the tariff policy of the country, and evade no issue, and conceal no fact, bearing upon the subjects discussed. Their thorough treatment of fundamental principles will aid every reader to a better understanding of profound and important issues.

A page a week will be devoted during 1893, to war stories and news of interest to Union veterans. Old soldiers, who have some experience to tell, which has not yet been printed, are asked to send the story to The Tribune for publication.

Farming has now become such an enormous interest in the United States, that there is an imperative necessity for making more of a specialty of the business interests of the Farmers of the country at large. Plans have been formed which ought to make The Semi-Weekly and The Weekly Tribune absolutely indispensable to every tiller of the soil during 1893.

A large number of entertaining features of general interest will also appear. "How to succeed in Life," "Village Improvement," special articles by brilliant men and women of high reputation, Chess and Checkers, and a hundred other things which cannot be recited in a brief prospectus, will appear on the Tribune's pages during 1893. The paper will have less politics and more of the thousand and one things which refresh the mind, entertain the imagination, and guide the reader in the prosecution of his business and social life.

The Tribune asks for reports as to the operations of Village Improvement Societies, from those who are acquainted with their operations.

An illustrated catalogue of excellent premiums will be sent free on application.

The Semi-Weekly is particularly commended to the attention of general readers. It gives more of the keen, incisive editorials, book reviews, foreign letters and other valuable features of The Tribune, than there is room for in the Weekly. The large type and broad columns of the Tribune make it the easiest paper to read.

To all who subscribe during 1892 for one year, the paper will be sent free for the balance of this year. Sample copies free. Weekly, $1.00; Semi-Weekly, $2.00.

Friends of Agriculture, Industry and the Republican party, are invited to make up clubs for the paper in their localities. There are four years' of trial, of new experiment, of discussion of great national topics, and of observation of the effects of Democratic supremacy before the country. The Tribune will lead in the presentation of the Republican view. The friends of the splendid record of the Republican party, can aid in the final triumph of Republican principles by seeing that the people read the Republican side of the story.

THE TRIBUNE, New York.

The Century Magazine

IN 1893.

It would be hard for a person who cares for good reading to make a better investment than a year's subscription to The Century Magazine. No region is too remote, no expense too great, if it will only produce what the Century's readers want. This is the policy that has made it, as the Pall Mall Budget, of London, says, "By far the best of the magazines, English or American."

The November number begins a new volume and contains the first chapters of a powerful novel of New York society, called "Sweet Bells Out of Tune," written by Mrs. Burton Harrison, the author of "The Anglomaniacs." In this story the fashionable wedding, the occupants of the boxes in the Metropolitan Opera House, the "smart set" in the country house are faithfully reflected, and the illustrations by Charles Dana Gibson, Life's well-known cartoonist, are as brilliant as the novel.

In this November number begins also a great series of papers on "The Bible and Science," opening with "Does the Bible contain Scientific Errors?" by Prof. Shield, of Princeton, who takes decided ground that the Bible does not contain scientific errors of any moment, and who most interestingly states the case from his point of view. Other articles in this series will include one in the December (Christmas) number, "The Effect of Scientific Study upon Religious Beliefs."

An important series of letters that passed between General Sherman and his brother, Senator John Sherman, is also printed in November, which number contains also contributions from the most distinguished writers, including an article by James Russell Lowell, which was not quite completed at the time of his death. The suggestion which Bishop Potter makes in the November Century as to what could be done with the World's Fair if it were opened on Sunday, is one which seems the most practical solution of the problem yet offered.

The December Century is to be a great Christmas number,—full of Christmas stories, Christmas poems, and Christmas pictures,—and in it will begin the first chapters of a striking story of life in Colorado, "Benefits Forgot," by Wolcott Balestier, who wrote "The Naulahka" with Rudyard Kipling.

Papers on good roads, the new educational methods, and city government are soon to come.

Four dollars will bring you this splendid magazine for one year, and certainly no cultivated home can afford to be without it. Subscribers can remit directly to the publishers, The Century Co., 33 East 17th St., New York. They should begin with November, and so get first chapters of all the serials, including "Sweet Bells Out of Tune."
