DICKENS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED BY CLUB

Mrs. H. A. Kratzer, Miss Hope Wickes, Mrs. J. S. Archbell, Mrs. C. R. Humphreys, Mr. Waldo Barroll, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Miss S. S. Roberts, and Miss Jennie Wilkins. (Story in "Now and Then" on page 7.)

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Wherever it has been produced, "Charley's Aunt" has been unmistakably a hit. It's amusing situations and misunderstandings have been enjoyed by young and old, impressionable and blase. It has outrun any other play three to one, and it is even now one of the most popular hits on Broadway.

The story deals with two college boys who in order to have their girls visit them must have a chaperon. They manage to dress up one of their classmates to impersonate one of the boy's aunt, who was supposed to have arrived earlier. The complications that arise when the real aunt shows up only add to the general merriment. Of course, things straighten themselves out in the end but not before the audience has thoroughly enjoyed itself.

The Seniors seem bound to make this the best production ever to come from Chestertown High and all are working with zeal and enthusiasm to attain this end. They have good material, a capable director, interest in the undertaking, and the ability to "put it over."

The cast is as follows: Jack Chesney, Rollison Baxter; Charles Wykeham, Joe Sutton: Lord Fancourt Babberly, Clifford Brockson; Sir Francis Chesney, Charles Silcox; Donna Lucia D'Alvadorez, Florence Deringer; Stephen Spettigue, Robert Miller; Lottu Verdun, Marie Thornton; Amy Spettigue, Mary Roe Groves; Brassett, John Walters; Ela Delahay, Mary Lusby; Maid, Eudora McGinnis; Farmer, Hope Raleigh.

Don't forget to attend this important "first night performance" at William Smith Hall. You'll be doing yourself a favor.

Beefsteak Is Favorite Dish

A survey of restaurants disclosed that beefsteak is the favorite dish in the United States, with corned beef and cabbage second.

QUAKER NECK

We are sorry to report that Mr. James Bailey is in the local hospital suffering from a broken leg, falling from a horse. We hope he will have a speedy recovery.

Many from our community attended the Farmer's Banquet on Thursday night in the Fire Hall.

Mrs. Marion Vansant, of Massey, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Stoops, on Saturday.

John Wesley Dickerson and Donald Titter, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickerson.

Helen Hilyard, of Pomona, spent the week end in Millington with her parents.

Mrs. James E. Walbert and daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Hadaway, of Chestertown, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Walbert and daughter, Virginia, of Broad Neck, were callers on Sunday of the former's son, Edgar and his family.

Miss Carolyn Stoops, of Conneecticut, was home for a short while over the week-end.

Mrs. Harry Goodman and daughter Hilda Mae, and Mr. Harold Patrick, spent a few days visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore the past week.

Members of the Quaker Neck Club keep in mind the covered dish luncheon on Wednesday at Mrs. George Carrolls.

Mr. Charlie Kirby received word last week of the death of his cousin Wilbur Kirby, who lived in Boonsboro, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hadaway, of Cliffs, spent a short time on Sunday at Worton with Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hadaway.

Rev. Wm. Lewis is planning an important business meeting to be held at Bond Church on Tuesday, Feb. 18 and requests all members to be present of both Bond and Mowbray.

Miss Elizabeth Davis is recovering from a case of chicken pox and is planning to return to school soon.

Mrs. Lelia Lamb entertained relatives from Baltimore at her apartment at Cliff's on Sunday.
