The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

No complaints about the Weather this week, no parties, no weddings, no engagements! So only as the traveller's guide may I serve, and proffer a guest list for you to scan. Not that we aren't glad to hear of our friends' journeys, nor that we aren't delighted to welcome the visitors, but a little of this and a little of that makes up that variety pudding so essential to the appetite.

Spring vacation (not mine) is here. Each day as the various schools and colleges close, a new face is to be seen, with more due next week, and thereafter.

At Manor Shores, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell Geddes, Miss Ann T. Geddes who attends the Ethel Walker School in Simsbury, Conn., is enjoying two weeks with her parents, while her brother, Mr. William W. Geddes, a student at Swarthmore, came yesterday for the Spring vacation. Others include: Miss Betty Beck, who attends Miss Wheelock's in Boston, came Wednesday to spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Beck, Miss Fredrica Metcalfe, a senior at Hollins College, is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe; Miss Virginia Johnson, a student of Foxcroft in Middleburg, Va., a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson at Churn Creek Farms; Miss Constance Clevenger, a student at Low-Heywood School in Stamford, Conn., a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Clevenger at Locust Hill; Miss Helen Strong attending school in Harrisonburg, Va., will come on the 10th to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong, and Mr. Jack Kibler, a student at McDonough comes next week to be a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler.

Mr. Stockbridge Bacchus, a student at Rutgers College, is spending his Spring vacation as a guest of his uncle, Mr. J. D. Bacchus. The younger Mr. Bacchus is a grandson of the late Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus of New York.

Mrs. Chas. W. Whaland, who entertained last Saturday evening in honor of her brother, Mr. George Brice, M. F. H., of the Essex Hunt Club of Fair Hills, N. J., and her niece, Miss Virginia Brice, has as her house guest, her daughter, Mrs. Mary Whaland Nicholson, of Bridgeton, N. J.

Mrs. Harrison Cooke and her daughter, Anne Washington, of Elizabeth, N. J., spent several days this week as guests of Mrs. A. T. H. Harper at her home on Front St.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Covey returned to Chestertown, recently, after spending the winter months as guests of their daughter, in Drexel, Pa.

Dr. H. P. Copeland has returned to Chestertown, after a visit to Florida, which he made in his trailer.

Mrs. Margaret R. McIntire returned to her home here on Saturday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroeder who were her guests for the week-end. Mrs. McIntire spent the winter months as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. William D. McIntire in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Holliday, of Washington, and Mr. Harry W. Lewis, of Fort Belvoir, Va., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis over the week-end.

And so Journey's End. Here is where I get out, but I'll be seeing you.

Yours in the crowd,

The Wanderer

The girls are trying to pass their badge tests. We are going to start our outdoor athletics as soon as Old Man Weather permits.

The Music Club listened to Rossini's "William Tell Overture."

The types of airplanes and engines were discussed in science Club. It proved to be very interesting, especially to the boys.

The Home Economic Club discussed styles at their meeting. Our wool has finally come, so we have started knitting the scarfs and sweaters for the Red Cross.

Several seniors are planning to go to all High School's Seniors Day. We hope they have a good time.

Freighter Freed at Ocean City

Taking advantage of the high tide rolling in at the Ocean City beach Sunday night at about 7:30 o'clock the armed Norwegian freighter, Olaf Bergh, which went aground March 7th, was pulled off the sand bar and started on its way to Philadelphia.

Salvage work was begun on the ship a few hours after she went aground at 4:30 in the morning. Work continued until the following Friday night when they were able to move the ship about thirty feet and gained a few more feet on high tides on Saturday.
